Mrs. Jones Bids Mothers, Daughters to Luncheon

Mrs. Ronald F. Jones will be hostess this afternoon at a three-generation luncheon — a group of mothers, daughters and grandchildren to be the guests at the Jones country home.

A fourth generation will be represented by Mrs. George Sewell, great-great aunt of one of the youngest guests, one-year-old John Elliott Poorman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Poorman of Syracuse, N.Y.

Invited to the one-o'clock luncheon are these family groups: Mrs. Sewell, Mrs. F. W. Poorman; her daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. W. Poorman (Joan Elliott), and young John. Mrs. William Phillips Sr., Mrs. Don Phillips and Don and Diane. Mrs. Karl Becke and daughter Mrs. William Shinn and Michael and Julie.

Mrs. Kenneth Bell, Mrs. Richard Sullivan and Bobby and Duff of Bend.

Mrs. Brazier Small, Mrs. William Close and Kit. Mrs. Floyd Shephard of Portland, Mrs. George Alexander and Shep.

Mrs. Edgar Pierce, Mrs. Peter Geiser and Peter and Marjorie. Mrs. Lester Barr, Mrs. Roger D. Probert and Becky.

Mrs. Dan Thomas, mother of the hostess, Mrs. Donald E. Jones, Jr., and Jeffry.

Bridesmaids, Groom Sing at Schreder-Larson Nuptials

Miss Betty Darlene Schreder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schreder, and Kenneth Alan Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Larson, of Silverton, were married Sunday, July 11, at the First Congregational Church.

Dr. Ernest Campbell performed the four o'clock ceremony. The bride wore a gown of French Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin, with a portrait neckline and a pleated tiered skirt forming a regal train. Her fingertip veil was of French illusion and she carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of white stephanotis and carnations centered with a white orchid.

Methodist Group to Hear UN Speaker

An address on United Nations by Mrs. Clifford Bender, New York, official observer for Methodist women at UN, will be a highlight at the Oregon Conference Women's Society School of Missions and Christian Service this week at Camp Magruder, near Barview.

Representative from the Women's Societies of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guilds of the four Salem Methodist churches will attend the school and the guild weekend.

This is the eleventh annual summer school and the ninth weekend to be held for Oregon Methodist women, with the purpose of training women for leadership through an integrated program of missionary education, Christian social relations, spiritual life cultivation, and program building.

Mrs. Bender also will teach one of the four study classes.

Mrs. Ernest P. Goulder of Salem, conference secretary of spiritual life, will direct the morning lakeside worship service and the evening fireside vesper. Other conference officers from Salem attending will be Mrs. Roy Gretzie, secretary of student work, and Mrs. C. W. Stacey, publicity chairman, both of whom will lead conversation groups, which are to be part of the program.

Other Salem women in attendance at the school will be Mrs. Laurence Walworth, Mrs. Roy Lockenour and Mrs. Ted Hobart. Attending the guild weekend, July 17 and 18, immediately following the school, will be Mrs. R. C. Genre, Mrs. James Brusse, Mrs. Eugene Kitzmiller, Mrs. J. Edgar Purdy, Mrs. J. M. Hartley, Mrs. Loyal Shafer, Mrs. Della Sparks, Mrs. Don Wright, Mrs. J. H. Drysdale, Mrs. Ben Sanchez, Mrs. Richard Burson, Miss Grace White, Miss Bernice Singree, and Miss Jennette Scheidel.

Wedding Party Members Named

Miss Dorothy Kinney, bride-elect of Milton Ingram, has announced the names of her attendants at the wedding to be performed July 23 at eight o'clock at the Jason Lee Methodist Church.

Miss Arlene Bishop will be the maid of honor and bridesmaids are to be Miss Esther Hyatt and Miss Caroline Hullings, Beaverton.

Melvin Cheldelin, Anacortes, Wash., will be best man and Richard Hughes, Halsey, Bud Galbraith of Madras and Arlie Strawn of Willamette will usher. Mr. and Mrs. Jack F. Kinney are parents of the bride-elect, and Mr. Ingram is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ingram of Madras.

House guests of Mrs. John C. Benish, 630 North Winter street, are her niece, Mrs. Harvey Frantz and two daughters, Mary and Helen, of Prairie du Chien, Wis. The Wisconsin family visited in Salem last August and may decide to locate in the Salem area.

Guests for a family dinner at the Stuart Johns home on Monroe Avenue were Mr. and Mrs. Al Boardman, George, Mark and Mary Ann from San Mateo, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. John French, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Goldade, Mrs. Wilfred Willer, Fred, Keith and Dorothy.

House guests of Mrs. Etta Harpist on Ridge Drive over the July Fourth holiday were Miss Marie Smith and Miss Marietta Harpist of Coos Bay.

The Willamette Auxiliary, F.O.E., will have a no-host dinner tonight at 6:30 at the Eagles Hall. Members are asked to bring their families and a covered dish. This is the last dinner until fall.

Mrs. Thomas Patrick Gorman, who was Miss Harriet Marie Nizic before her marriage at St. Philip Neri Catholic Church in Portland July 10. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Arton Nizic, Portland, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Gorman of Woodburn. (Wong Studio, Portland).

Camp Fire Girls Enjoy Banquet, Water Carnival at Camp Kilowan

Eighty-five campers at the Camp Fire Girls Camp Kilowan this week will have a good time if all the wishes of last week's campers come true. At the close of an outdoor campfire Saturday evening, campers launched "dream boats" they had constructed of bark, and as each one drifted across the lake bearing lighted candles, the campers made wishes for their in-coming friends on Monday.

The bridesmaids, Miss Vivian Whitton and Miss Margaret Meyer, both of Davis, Calif., were dressed like the maid of honor. They sang "Take These Lives and Let Them Be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee." The groom sang, "God Gave Me You," and Richard Zeller also sang.

Lighting the tapers before the ceremony were Mrs. Leroy Fleishman of Monmouth and Mrs. Lyle Schmidt of Dallas, both wearing green gowns. Mrs. John Schmidt was the organist. Miss Sandra Lee Johnston of Silverton, niece of the groom, was the flower girl and wore a white net over taffeta dress and small pink and blue flowers in her hair.

Don Heiter of Portland was best man. The groomsmen were Roy Harvey and Ken Schreder, and ushers were Sheldon Johnson, David Walker, Dan Barthold of Silverton, and John Olson.

The mother of the bride wore a coffee colored lace dress with brown velvet accessories and wore a yellow rosebud corsage. Red rosebuds were pinned to the blue print dress worn by the groom's mother, who chose navy and white accessories.

Mrs. Albert Furnue, Silverton, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. H. D. Drew, Castle Rock, Wash., aunt of the bride, cut the cake at the reception in the church parlors. Mrs. J. W. Hancock was at the coffee urn and Mrs. Sheldon Johnson, Silverton, sister of the groom, served the punch. Assisting were Miss Gladys Johnson, Junction City; Miss Donna Wellard, Portland; Mrs. Marshall Swink, Lebanon; Miss Donna Starkey and Miss Iris Woodcock.

Miss Starr Hancock was in charge of the guest book and two cousins of the bride, Miss Bonnie Berg and Glenn Harms, passed the dream cake.

For their wedding trip to Yellowstone Park, the bride and groom wore matching suits of beige. The bride's suit was trimmed in brown and she had brown accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Mr. Larson is going into the ministry and will serve with Village Missions under the sponsorship of the Christian Business and Professional Women of America.

Auxiliary to Acquire Flag

The Auxiliary to the Veterans of World War I, Barracks 113, will hold a social hour at 8 p.m., July 14, at the Eagles Hall.

During the meeting plans for obtaining a standard and an auxiliary flag will be discussed, the president, Mrs. Beatrice White said. Mrs. Mary Ellen Emery, chairman of the ways and means committee, has chosen members who will help with the project.

Mrs. Etta Furgeson, K. P. chairman, will be assisted by Mesdames Ethel S. Austin, Mary Baard, Olive Hunsacker, Edith M. Jaeger, Mae Louise Hill, refreshment chairman, named Mrs. Susan Baum, Mrs. Blanch Howard, Mrs. Jean Hunt, and Mrs. Muriel Jardine to her committee.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hugins Jr., and children, have returned from a trip to Palo Alto, Calif., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. William Hoagland.

Nuptial Vows Said at Rites In Portland

Miss Harriet Marie Nizic, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Arton Nizic, Portland, became the bride of Thomas Patrick Gorman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Gorman of Woodburn, on July 10 at St. Philip Neri Catholic Church, Portland. The Rev. Joseph L. Quinn conducted the morning nuptials.

The bride's gown was of lace and nylon net over satin, en train. A pearl encrusted Juliet cap held her French illusion fingertip veil in place. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. John C. O'Brien was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a floor length gown of pink nylon tulle over taffeta. She carried a crescent bouquet of white carnations.

The bridesmaids were Miss Doris Prinslow of Woodburn, Miss Nancy Gordan and Miss Ann Adele Mallon of Tacoma, wearing gowns identical to the matron of honor's.

Robert Gorman was best man for his brother. Ushers were Lawrence Gorman, also a brother, Michael McClure, Robert Crain, and John C. O'Brien.

After the wedding breakfast at Portland Golf Club, the wedding party drove to Maryhurst College where the bride placed her bouquet on the Blessed Virgin's Altar. The reception was held in the late afternoon at Portland Golf Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorman will be at home in Woodburn after a wedding trip to Canada.

South-Burbank Rites Held

PEDEE—Carla X. South, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl South, became the bride of Alfred Wesley Burbank, son of Mrs. Mary Burbank, in a double-ring ceremony at the Pedee Community Church, July 2. The Rev. John Lawler, pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white organdy with a pearl tiara holding her fingertip veil. She carried white carnations and miniature gladioluses. Barbara Revell was bridesmaid and wore pink organdy.

Lighting the candles were Marguerite McBeth, cousin of the groom, and Timmy South, brother of the bride. LeRoy Sopper of Dallas, a former resident, was best man. Ushers were Ted South, brother of the bride, and Donovan Burbank, brother of the groom. Mrs. Louise Potter sang, accompanied by Mattie Lawler. Margaret Flowers of Dallas decorated the church. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. After a short trip they will live near Pedee.

The bride has been employed at the Dallas Hospital and the groom is employed by the Atlas Lumber Company of Falls City.

Couple Feted On Anniversary

JEFFERSON—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Meyers are at home following a "second honeymoon" trip to Los Angeles. They left after an open house given by their children honoring their 25th wedding anniversary on June 24. About 40 friends called to greet them.

Mrs. Gilbert Zimmerman and Miss Nina Specht poured and Mrs. Howard Hampton cut the cake. Miss Phyllis Specht presided at the guest book and Miss Delores Meyers received the gifts for her parents. Arrangements of white Esther Reed daisies and blue bachelor buttons carried out the blue and white color scheme of the original wedding.

Miss Meyers and Claude Meyers sang, accompanied by Mrs. Gene Kester, and Mrs. Gilbert Zimmerman sang "I Love You Truly," a song sung at their wedding 25 years ago. The Rev. A. E. Bashford of Corvallis, former Evangelical United Brethren pastor here, gave a talk.
