

Jr. Legion Ends Season With Loss

Oregon City Wins District Crown

Oregon City's American Legion Juniors put an end to any possible chance of another team in the district of getting into a playoff series Wednesday afternoon as they banged out a 7-0 victory over Salem's Downtown Merchant Juniors at Waters Field. The win gave Oregon City the undisputed second-half championship and that, coupled with their first half championship, gives them the district title.

For Salem, it was a case of not being able to hit when men were in scoring position on base—plus committing some errors that aided greatly in the Oregon City scoring.

Oregon City scored in the first when Bob French stole home after getting on with a double. In the second they added three more on a hit batter, two errors, and a fielder's choice.

In the sixth, Bob Eisele led off with a single for Oregon City, Ed

Frick was safe on an error. Eisele scored on Marvin Groff's ground ball, Jim Sarver singled to score Frick, and Sarver came home on Dietz's fly ball, giving the visitors another three runs.

The six Salem errors helped to advance the winners around the bases and also across the plate. Salem, unlike Oregon City, left 12 men on base.

Jack Loy, Salem hurler, collected 10 strikeouts for his team and allowed only seven hits, while Oregon City's Hank Hendry, gave up an equal number of hits—but was helped by errorless ball from his teammates.

Oregon City will now play Newberg in the sub-sectional playoffs. Winner of this series will then play in another district playoff for the right to go to the state tournament.

U.S. in Lead For Davis Cup

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad (U)—Hamilton Richardson and Straight Clark swept to easy victories Wednesday to give the United States a 2-0 lead over the British West Indies in the first round American Zone Davis Cup competition.

Only two hours were required for the two matches in which Richardson, from Baton Rouge, La., whipped Geoffrey Ingfield, 6-2, 6-0 and Clark, from Pasadena, Calif., turned back Ralph Legall 6-2, 6-0, 6-3.

Now the United States must win only one of the remaining matches in the best-of-five series to advance to the semi-final against Cuba, which drew a first round bye. The doubles are slated for Thursday and the final two singles Saturday. Clark will team with Hal Burrows of Charlottesville, Va., in tandem event.

A Baker, A Sailor, A Collegian . . .

Publix Tourney Goes Into 5th Round Today

DALLAS (U)—The St. Louis baker man, Joseph S. Evans, giant Navy officer William Scarbrough of Jacksonville, Fla., and tiny collegian Hal McCommas of Dallas headed a sun-blistered pack into the fifth round of the National Public Links Golf Tournament Wednesday.

Evans was devastating as he lashed Bob Ludlow of Indianapolis, 7 and 6, with a 5-under-par, then blasted Mike Andonian of Pontiac, Mich., out, 5 and 4, with a 1-under-par performance.

But the most sensational round of the hectic day during which the field was cut to 16 players was Scarbrough's 5 and 4 victory over Milton Frank of St. Louis.

Scarbrough, the 235-pounder who thrives on sunshine—of which there has been plenty in this hottest of all tournaments—shot a par 36 on the front nine to take a 2-up lead. Then he really went to town. He birdied the next two holes and on the fourteenth, where Frank had a birdie, the big man from Florida used a 1-iron to pitch within five feet of the hole and sank it for an eagle to close out the match.

McCommas, who started as a favorite in this tournament, moved along easily. He shot 1-under-par over the 6,296-yard par 36-35-71 Cedar Crest course in taking out Reese Berry of Indianapolis, 4 and 3. He had shattered Robert R. Parry of Portland, Ore., 4 and 2, in the third round.

Parry was one of two Northwest entries eliminated Wednesday. Two others advanced.

Joining Parry on the sidelines was Alvin E. Gustafson of Spokane, who went down before William Alcorn of McKeesport, Pa., 3 and 2. The two Northwest winners were Rodney Funseth of Spokane, a 1-up winner over Donald A. Montgomery of Long Beach, Calif., and Richard P. Masterson of Seattle, who tamed Art Todd of Columbus, Ohio, 1-up.
