ENTRY INVESTIGATED

Report of a burglary at the Franz Bakery warehouse, 1220 S. 20th St., late Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning was investigated by city detectives. Manager Russell Barker told police entry to the building was made by forcing a door on a loading platform. Desk drawers had been searched but apparently nothing was missing, police said.

5 Youths Get Jail Terms For Thefts

Five youths who were arrested last March and charged with thefts from cars in the Silver Creek Falls area were sentenced to jail Wednesday in the court of Marion County District Judge Val Sloper.

A sixth was placed on a year's probation.

Judge Sloper assigned 90-day sentences in the county jail to Cecil Lee Todd, 18, and Duane LeRoy Hug, 19, Oranzo Bryan Shaw, 19, was sentenced to 120 days, and Jack Lyman Todd and Dean Stiles, both 19, received 180-day sentences. Placed on probation was Duane Lemoine Mattox, 18.

All the youths except Hug are from Silverton. Hug had formerly lived in Silverton but had moved to Mt. Angel.

They were arrested in March by Marion County sheriff's officers who were investigating a series of thefts from cars left in parking lots around Silver Creek Falls.

All the youths pleaded guilty to larceny charges.

State Supreme Court Upholds Portland Firm

The State Supreme Court Wednesday upheld the right of a Portland transport firm to apply for a cartage permit.

The court, in a divided report, reversed a Marion County Circuit Court order which upheld the public utilities commission's order denying an application of the Berry Transport, Inc., for a permit to conduct local cartage service in Portland as a common carrier.

The opinion was written by Justice Walter L. Toozee.

Prior to 1948 plaintiff held a P. U. C. permit authorizing operations generally within a 50-mile radius from Portland. An amendment to the motor transportation act, effective January 1, 1948, required motor carriers operating exclusively within the corporate limits to make application for a permit within 90 days. In May, 1948, plaintiff applied for the permit. After hearings the utilities commissioner denied the permit on the grounds that the plaintiff had continued to operate without authority and so was a habitual violator and that plaintiff had failed to sustain the burden of proof that its application was in the true public interest.

The late Marion County Circuit Judge Rex Kimmell upheld the commissioner.

The supreme court, in another opinion, reversed a previous opinion and remanded for retrial the case of R. G. Start against the Shell Oil Company, involving recovery of damages based on the sale of a weedkiller which plaintiff charged killed his crop of bulbs.

The new opinion withdraws the previous opinion handed down in August, 1953, which held that the trial court should have allowed defendant's motion for a directed verdict.

On recommendation of defendant's salesman, according to the late opinion, plaintiff purchased the weedkiller, and following alleged destruction of his bulblet crop, obtained a judgment for $11,250 in the Multnomah County Circuit Court with Judge James R. Bain presiding.

Justice Hall S. Lusk, in the current opinion, held that under the facts in the case the jury could have "found that the defendant might reasonably anticipate a buyer would inquire regarding a quality of the weed killer, and if so, the salesman would have implied authority to make representations concerning it."

West Point Preparatory School to Open

The Millard School, a school for preparing candidates aspiring to West Point, has been moved from Washington, D. C. to Oregon and will open at Langlois, Ore., in Curry County on Sept. 10.

After operating successfully for 21 years in the nation's capital Millard School closed several years ago owing to increasing high overhead, sponsors said.

In selecting the new site at Langlois, Col. Homer B. Millard, school director, was influenced, he said, by the beauty of the rugged Oregon coast, the mild climate and by its remoteness from large centers of population.

The Millard School, it was reported, formerly prepared more than 2,000 candidates for West Point, among them sons of Generals Eisenhower, Arnold, Patton, Crittenden, Clay, Doolittle, McAuliffe and Gruenther.

Credit Group Delegates to Visit Frisco

Businessmen to Meet With Federal Official Today

Members of the Salem Industrial Development Council and operators of small business firms have been invited to a no-host luncheon at noon today in the Marion Hotel to meet E. M. Stevenson, chief of the small claims division of the San Francisco federal air procurement district.

The meeting will feature a discussion of the problems of small businesses in securing government contracts.

At an earlier meeting, Stevenson will confer with members of the development council's executive committee. John Watt, manager of the Oregon Industrial Commission, will also be present at the meeting, which will begin at 10:30 a. m. Topics to be discussed during Stevenson's visit to Salem were considered Tuesday morning at a breakfast meeting of the executive committee. The group also discussed the prospects for new industries moving to Salem.

Samuel Gray Of State Tax Office Dies

Samuel E. Gray, 57, examiner with the state inheritance tax commission for the past five years, died of a heart attack at a Salem hospital Wednesday following a short illness.

A resident of Salem for five years, Gray was born April 26, 1897 at Osakis, Minn. Prior to moving to Salem he had been with the Travelers Insurance Co. for 25 years with offices in Pennsylvania and Nebraska. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

A veteran of World War I, he was a member of the American Legion Capital Post 3, the YMCA, Columbia Athletic Club in Portland, and Phi Beta Kappa.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. Saturday in the W. T. Rigdon Chapel with the Rev. Lloyd Uecker officiating. Interment will be at Lee Mission Cemetery.

Peace Officers to Hear Thornton

Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton will be in Bend this weekend where he will address the state convention of Oregon Peace Officers Association Sunday morning.

He will discuss the relationship of Oregon's district attorneys and the state department of justice to local law enforcement agencies.

Flock Testing School Set

The annual flock testing and pullorum agents' school for laymen who desire to become official fowl testers will be held Friday, Aug. 6, in the poultry building at Oregon State College, Corvallis.

The school is sponsored by the State Department of Agriculture Poultry Improvement program in cooperation with the college.

Youth Bound To Grand Jury In Check Case

A 19-year-old youth who police say has admitted forging three checks in Salem was bound over to the grand jury Wednesday morning in Marion County District Court.

The youth, Don Gilman, Roseburg, waived preliminary hearing before District Judge Val Sloper. He was returned to Salem Tuesday by a city police officer after he surrendered to Portland police.

Gilman is charged with forging a check for $236 on the First National Bank in Salem July 8. Police said he tried to pass the check in the bank but left when the teller began examining the signature.

The check was signed with the name of Harold B. Allen, 1746 S.

Woman Wounded By Revolver Shot

Mrs. Edna Thelma Anderson, 431 Manbrin Dr., was admitted to Salem Memorial Hospital Wednesday afternoon after being wounded in the left side and arm with a .38 revolver. Her condition was reported as satisfactory Wednesday night.

State police who investigated the incident said Mrs. Anderson was alone in her home when the shot was fired. She was taken to the hospital by Willamette Ambulance Service.

Liberty St., an employe of the State Highway Commission. Police said Gilman told them he had selected Allen's name from the telephone book.

After appearing in district court, Gilman was transferred from the municipal jail to the Marion County jail. Bail was set at $3,000.
