Mt. Angel Post To Participate In Pilgrimage

Statesman News Service

MT. ANGEL—The Mt. Angel Post of the American Legion voted Tuesday night to accept the invitation to take part in the Marian Year pilgrimage on August 15 being planned by the Holy Rosary Church at Crooked Finger and to send the post-colors, the firing squad and as many members as possible.

Another community project to which Legionnaires will lend their time is the week-long Boy Scout Camporee at Camp Pioneer. Past Commander Gene Hoffer, Adjutant Mel Rigdon and Gene Goldsby will take turns in helping supervise the Mt. Angel group of scouts who will attend the camp. The post is the troop sponsor.

Ray Ruscher, new post commander, announced the following committee appointments: Sick committee, Ira Herriford, chairman, Charles Ertelt and Gene Hoffer; membership, Ira Herriford, Clem Schneider, Gene Hoffer and Mel Rigdon; Beaver Boys State, Rom Bockelman; picnic, Francis Hauth, Gerard Hammer, Mel Rigdon and Bernie Hassler.

Eight members received department awards for their work in membership. High with both the gold and silver awards was Clarence J. Ebner who signed 47 members. All the rest received silver awards. Ranking in order given, they are: Gene Hoffer, Ray Ruscher, Fred Lucht, Clem Hauth, Ernest Crowder, Joe Faulhaber and Ira Herriford. The presentation was made by Past Commander Hoffer.

The post will reduce summer meetings to one a month in July, August and September and hold that meeting on the second Tuesday.

The annual picnic for Legion and Auxiliary members and their families was set for Sunday, August 1, at Hall's farm.
