Activities at Camp Kilowan Are Varied

Weather continued right for the forty-five Salem girls who spent last week at Camp Kilowan, Camp Fire Camp near Falls City. Half of this number were Blue Birds, from 7 to 10 years old, and for the first time their week's program included a hike to "Thirty-foot Falls" and an overnight sleep-out at the hunters' cabin. They were back at camp for breakfast, and none the worse for their big adventure . . .

On Friday the Blue Birds enjoyed their first noon lunch in their own Blue Bird Lodge. Refrigeration recently provided, makes it possible to receive rations prepared in the main dining hall, for special events in their own quarters. On this occasion they celebrated the ninth birthday of camper Sally Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Roberts . . .

Highlight of the week was again the traditional Saturday evening "banquet"—this time a "come-as-you-are" party. Camp director, Miss Virginia Moses, had issued invitations to the affair at varying times through the week, catching the Blue Bird unit one evening as they donned pajamas for bedtime. Attending dinner in their pajamas was something of the unusual, as was the predicament of another unit of older girls who were "invited" while in their sleeping bags during an overnight trip . . .

Salem Girls Given Awards
At chapel service Sunday morning, Salem campers Janet Johnson, Diane Pettesy and Jean Hawthorn, read the scripture and call to worship. On Sunday evening three of the campers, awarded the coveted Camp Kilowan ties for five years of attendance at Kilowan, were Salem Camp Fire girls Marlene Dolezal, Ann Hawthorn and Valerie Ramsdell. Margie Milne and Janet Johnson lighted the fires for the closing council fire ceremony . . .

Miss Esther Fuenning, Camp Fire area executive, and board member, Mrs. W. E. Gardner, were dinner guests at Kilowan Friday . . .

Session IV begins July 22, with campers leaving Salem by Hamman Stage Thursday morning at 9:45. Camp staff is now enjoying a three-day vacation and much-needed rest. Remaining sessions beginning each Thursday are still open for registration of girls over ten years of age. All Blue Bird places have been filled. The Camp Fire office at 147 N. Commercial is open each day until 5 p.m., but will be closed on Saturday for the remainder of the summer . . .

Couple to Live At Ft. Lewis

WILLAMINA — Miss Sandra Jean Ayres, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ayres of Grand Ronde, was united in marriage to Earl Spencer Bauman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bauman of Grand Ronde, at a 1 p.m. ceremony June 29 at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Gale Putnam of the Nazarene Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony . . .

The bride wore a white princess styled nylon dress with a corsage of pink rosebuds. Miss Gloria Ayres, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Judy Ayres, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid . . .

Donald Bauman of Fort Lewis, Wash. was best man for his brother . . . The couple is at home at Fort Lewis, where the bridegroom is stationed. The young couple are both graduates of the Willamina high school . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Carpenter of Hilo, T.H. arrived in the capital Tuesday night for the wedding of their daughter, Sue, and Robert Huntley Jones, which will be an event of Saturday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The Carpenters arrived in the states in late May and immediately went east for the graduation of their son, Terry at the U.S. Naval academy, Annapolis in June . . .

More Cake Ice Box Cakes Take Pineapple, Orange, Almond as Flavor Interest

By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman Woman's Editor
There are some subjects in the culinary line that bear discussion on several occasions, and the ice box cake subject is one . . . We recently wrote a story about using the refrigerator for these desserts and found so many interesting recipes that we'll now write a sequel . . .

Chocolate's good, of course, and so are other flavors, but there's a lot of goodness in icebox cake recipes that use fruit as the chief interest . . .

Pineapple, for instance:
PINEAPPLE ICEBOX CAKE
1 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch Pinch of salt
1/2 cup pineapple juice 1/2 cup butter
1 1/2 cups diced pineapple 1 1/2 cups confectioner's sugar
4 eggs

Blend cornstarch and pineapple juice, add pineapple and cook until thick over hot water. Slowly pour on the slightly beaten egg yolks, returning to the pan and cooking for three minutes more over water. Add salt and cool. Line a nine-inch (or so) spring form pan with about 12 ladyfingers split, laying them close together and putting in broken pieces to fill cracks in the bottom . . .

Cream together the butter (which has been mashed and washed to remove part of salt) and beat thoroughly. When smooth and creamy stir in cold pineapple mixture then fold in stiffly beaten whites and pour in the lined mold. Chill for 2 hours, then put on cake plate, remove mold and decorate with pineapple spears. The recipe serves 10 . . .

Or good old faithful oranges:
ORANGE ICEBOX CAKE
1/2 cup sugar 1 cup finely drained orange pulp
1/2 cup lemon juice 1/2 cup butter
4 eggs Grated rind of orange
1 cup butter 1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups confectioner's sugar Ladyfingers or wafers

Dissolve sugar in lemon juice and heat in top of double boiler until scalding hot. Beat egg yolks and add hot mixture gradually, stirring well. Pour back in double boiler, cook until thick and smooth and let cool. Cream butter and add confectioner's sugar. Add orange pulp and rind. Stir in cold egg mixture and fold in egg whites beaten stiff with vanilla and 2 tablespoons confectioner's sugar. Line bottom and sides of a spring cake pan with cake or wafers, fill with mixture, alternating with layers of cake, and set in cold place for 24 hours. May be served with whipped cream if desired . . .

Any nuts are good in icebox cake, as in other desserts, and here is one that features almonds:
ALMOND ICE-BOX CAKE
3/4 cup fresh butter 1 1/2 dozen ladyfingers
1 1/4 cups powdered sugar 1/2 pint heavy cream
3 eggs 1/2 teaspoon almond extract
1 cup chopped blanched 12 macaroons
toasted almonds

Cream butter well, work in sugar, add flavoring, egg yolks, fold in beaten whites and nuts. Line mold with waxed paper, lay macaroons on bottom, line sides with ladyfingers, put half of cream mixture in mold, put on rest of macaroons, add rest of mixture, let stand in refrigerator 24 hours. Macaroons may be crushed and sprinkled in layers if stale enough to crush . . .

Bride-Elect Honored

Miss Cynthia Bourne and Miss Arlene Bishop were hostesses for a bridal shower at the Joe L. Bourne home on Thompson Avenue in compliment to Miss Dorothy Kinney, who will be married to Milton Ingram Friday night. A miscellaneous shower feted the bride-to-be and 15 guests attended the party . . .

The Pugh-St. John family reunion and picnic will be held at Cascadia Park on Sunday, July 25 . . .
