Janice Olson Becomes Bride Of John Bernard on Saturday

Miss Janice Wynn Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Olson, became the bride of John Douglas Bernard, son of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Bernard of Georgetown, British Guiana, at an 8 o'clock ceremony at the Central Lutheran Church on July 17. The Rev. G. B. Rundstrom officiated at the nuptials. Miss Pauline Petticoard was the soloist and David Louthan the organist. The bride and groom sang "The Wedding Prayer" while kneeling at the altar.

A tulle and lace gown with train was chosen by the bride. The lace bodice was buttoned down the back and styled with a lace collar with tulle inset. The skirt was net and tulle over satin. A pearl and rhinestone headpiece held in place her fingertip veil. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and pink rosebuds.

Five attendants and a flower girl preceded the bride to the altar all wearing white dotted nylon frocks over orchid, yellow, green, pink and blue taffeta slips respectively. They carried arm bouquets of white, pink and yellow gladioluses and wore picture hats to match their gowns.

Miss Darlene Olson was her sister's maid of honor and Miss Helen Melby, Miss Janice Goertzen, Miss Lois Jean Olson, a cousin of Silvertown, and Miss Debrah Ann Olson, also a sister, were the bridesmaids. Linda Aplington was the flower girl. The candlelighters, Miss Shirley Kight and Mrs. George Richard, also wore white dotted nylon frocks over pink taffeta slips.

Groom's Attendants
Fred Forester of San Diego stood with the groom as best man. Ushers were Jerry B. Olson, cousin of the bride, Maynard Nelson, Wendell Zear, and David Olson, the bride's brother.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Olson selected a sheer blue-grey dotted Swiss dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Pouring were Mrs. Peter Olson, Mrs. Hazen Smith, aunts of the bride, and Miss Jo Anne Blunt. Cutting the cake were Mrs. James Hollingsworth, aunt of the bride, assisted by Mrs. Faye Williamson, the bride's cousin. Assisting were the Misses Phyllis King, Anna Holland, Di Anne King, Sandra Hazelbaker, Joyce Wright, Evelyn Fisher, Mrs. Don Friesen and Mrs. Robert Johnson.

Vocalists Will Hold Tryouts

The Pentacle Theatre will hold tryouts for the one-act Gilbert and Sullivan musical "Trial By Jury" at 8:30 Thursday evening in the Y.W.C.A.

The theme of this rollicking musical comedy is a hectic breach of promise suit brought about by a bride-to-be who is jilted at the altar by her faithless lover. The ensuing court battle is a humorous satire of lawyers and the legal profession in typical Gilbert and Sullivan humor which is familiar to all lovers of musical comedy.

The play calls for six soloists, one soprano, two tenors, two baritone and one bass, and a chorus of six bridesmaids and six jurymen.

Persons interested in trying out should be prepared to sing a solo of their own choosing. It will be necessary for persons trying out for the chorus to sing in small groups for balance, blend and quality.

Anyone interested in joining The Pentacle Theatre is invited to attend the tryouts. This is a community summer theatre and the group welcomes new and interested members.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Hill entertained as their guests Monday at their Candalaria home their nephew and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Wallace Hill of Ann Arbor, Mich. The Hills are on a tour of the West Coast and also visited in Ashland with their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Aubrey Hill.

new Mrs. Bernard changed to a blue brocaded nylon dress with white stole and accessories. The couple will leave soon for their new home in Georgetown, British Guiana.

Turn-Around Freezer Works Just Like It Used to; Sherbet's Good

By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman Woman's Editor

Maybe they had something in the gay 90s, at least the home made ice cream ground out in a freezer and served crackling cold to an eager crowd was something. Nothing has ever surpassed the smooth richness of that ice cream.

Wonderful memory of our youth (thank goodness, it was a little later—though no less gay—than the 90s), is the fruit sherbet Mother used to mix up and we children froze in the old White Mountain freezer. This was a special treat on Band Concert night, when half the town gathered in the park across the street, and we sat on the porch eating that luscious sherbet. Loganberry was our favorite, and Mother made it by simply mixing up a very good tasting, punch, a little richer and sweeter than for drinking.

We remember how we were induced into the long labor of turning the crank of the old freezer only by the anticipation of joys to come.

YEN PAYS OFF

The other day, after suffering a great longing for fruit sherbet as it used to be, and encouraged by the thought that it will be far less favorable to surplus girth than rich desserts of the refrigerator variety—we brought a White Mountain freezer.

It looks the same, makes just as smooth sherbet and our appetite has not waned with the years. We got a 2-quart freezer, being sure that a smaller amount of space for ice would be an inducement to make sherbet oftener. We were glad, for two quarts was a good amount, and we could have re-used some of the ice had we wished to make a second batch. It took four trays of ice to do the job, and instead of packing the tub with fresh ice, we set the inside container in the freezer to let it mellow.

Our dear little freezer sports a coat of turquoise paint and a book of instructions, which its ancestor did not.

We made our first batch of sherbet with strawberry juice (left from berries we canned a week or so ago), frozen lemon juice and a half can of crushed pineapple.

If you are the owner of a freezer, no matter how old, you'll find desserts it makes are well worth the cranking. (Incidentally it only took 10 minutes of turning, our memories deceived us as to the effort needed and time consumed.)

Here are some recipes for ices from our White Mountain book:

LEMON SHERBET

2 cups sugar 4 cups water
¼ cup lemon juice
Boil sugar and water 5 minutes, combine with juice, cool and freeze.

Our next venture will be:

PINEAPPLE SHERBET

2 cups water 2 cups crushed pineapple
2 cups sugar ½ cup lemon juice
Boil sugar and half the water for 5 minutes, add remainder of water, pineapple and lemon and cool before freezing.

You can, of course, use milk in your sherbets but one reason for our getting the freezer is an allergy to milk and cream. We've been deprived of real good frozen desserts for years for the refrigerator positively refuses to produce smooth ices without cream or milk, stir and whip as you will.

ORANGE SHERBET

2 cups water 2 cups orange juice
1 cup sugar ¼ cup lemon juice
3 cups milk or water
Boil sugar and 2 cups water for 3 minutes, add orange and lemon juice. Cool, add remainder of water or milk and freeze.

HAYESVILLE — Congratulations and the grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Al Stettler of Hoodview Drive. The paternal grandparents live in their first child at the Salem General Hospital on July 20.
