Grabers Are Honored at Reception

Mrs. Rollin Graber of San Bernardino, Calif., a daughter-in-law, was hostess for the celebration, assisted by Mrs. A. B. Browning, a sister of Mrs. Graber, Mrs. A. A. Graber, a sister-in-law, Mrs. E. M. Perman and Mrs. George Davis.

Here for the occasion were the Grabers' two son and daughters-in-law, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Rollin Graber, and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Graber of Portland, and the latter's daughter, Nancy and Cathy. The Rollin Grabers' daughter, Gloria, who was unable to attend as she is in nurses training in San Bernardino, presented her grandparents with the guest book.

Guests at the Graber wedding held in Salem in 1904, who attended the Tuesday celebration were Mrs. Charles Hill, Mrs. Guy Eades, Mrs. Wayne Price, Mrs. A. B. Browning, Charles Stephens, Joseph Graber and A. A. Graber. The wedding of Ila Lynch and John Graber took place at the home of her parents on 13th and State Streets with the Baptist minister, the Rev. F. W. Cliffe, officiating. Mrs. Arthur Lenon (Frances Liston) was the bridesmaid and Charles Roth was best man.

Pouring at the anniversary reception were Mrs. Gordon Bowden, Mrs. Gordon Graber, Mrs. Robert Friess and Mrs. A. A. Graber. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Roland Seegar, Mrs. Gordon Bowden and Mrs. Harry Knepper. Mrs. Delbert Graber was in charge of the gifts and Mrs. Roland Seegar passed the guest book.

The occasion also marked the birthday of Mrs. Rollin Graber. The Rollin Grabers are leaving today to return to San Bernardino, where Colonel Graber is stationed.
