

Fizz, Flavor in Tall Glasses Of Ice Cream

Ice cream coolers are welcomed refreshments for the young and not-so-young folks. This is an easy way to please family and guests. Fill tall glasses with scoops of vanilla ice cream. Over this pour a bottled fruit drink or set out an assortment of bottles to let each one fix his own.

For variety, try grape juice, orangeade, ginger ale, root beer, a cola, chocolate milk, or any of the popular soft drinks. Ice cream coolers are purely delicious, really nutritious, and good fun.

CHOCOLATE SHAKE
For each milk shake, use 1 cup chilled milk, 1/4 cup cold chocolate sauce, and a big scoop of ice cream. Mix to the consistency of thick cream with an egg beater, an electric mixer, or a blender. Pour into a tall glass and serve at once.

ROOT BEER FLOAT
Fill a tall glass with root beer. Add a generous scoop of vanilla ice cream. Stir and serve.

FRUIT A LA MODE
Chill stewed fruit, such as boysenberry or raspberry, or pureed applesauce. Serve in compotes topped with vanilla or pecan crisp ice cream.

Care of Cottons Has Own Method

The finish as well as the fabric needs to be considered for successful removal of spots and stains, textile specialists of the U.S. Department of Agriculture advise. Many of the new cotton fabrics this year are finished with resin, either to give them resistance to wrinkles and soil or for such decorative effects as a glazed sheen or raised designs that give a sculptured or embossed appearance. The resin finish thus may add to the attractiveness of the goods and also save cleaning and pressing.

But if a bleach is to be used on resin-finished cottons and linens, the specialists as well as textile and bleach manufacturers advise a perborate bleach rather than a chlorine bleach. The resin absorbs chlorine, and then the fabric discolors and weakens. The label on the garment or the goods should give this information, especially if the fabric is white.

Grease spots on finished cottons also may need special attention to come out satisfactorily. The specialists suggest sponging such spots with cleaning fluid (grease solvent) before laundering to make sure of getting all the grease out.

When finished cottons are purchased as yard goods, the homemaker can try laundering a sample to learn how to treat the fabric to keep its appearance. Informative labels on both ready-made garments and yard goods are especially helpful. Not all finishes on cottons include resin. Many cottons that look like silk are mercerized — a permanent finish that calls for no special care. Most special finishes except mercerizing are gradually lost by wear or laundering. Some may lose their finish in the first laundering; others may last at least for a season.

Extra Time for Vegetables Pays

Take a little extra time to your vegetable cooking and you can make some fine recipes.

If you haven't already done so, here's a reminder to serve fresh garden peas tossed with slivered almonds and melted butter. With new potatoes and broiled lamb chops you've got a company menu that can be cooked within half an hour. Marinated lima beans taste extra good on an outdoor menu. Let the cooked lima stand in well seasoned wine vinegar and an olive oil marinade for several hours before serving.

Scrape and slice a bunch of carrots; cook just until tender in boiling salted water, then drain. Re-heat the carrots with a tablespoon of butter or margarine and a couple of tablespoons of mint jelly. Serve these minted carrots with roast leg of lamb.

SELECTION

When whole-kernel corn is canned, the corn kernels are cut close to the cob. But when corn is "cream-style," the top of the kernels are cut off and the remaining portion is scraped from the cob. Whole-kernel corn is good in pancakes and muffins, soups and salads. Cream-style corn is fine also for soup and in many casserole dishes. Both styles of corn are good heated and served "as is."

REAL COLD

Cookie dough is usually easiest to handle if it is chilled and rolled out in small amounts at a time.

Refreshment on a tall glass begins with a generous scoop of ice cream. You vary your flavor by a simple twist of the corkscrew, for bottled drinks give the fizz and the flavor.

HERB HANDY

It is a good idea to buy marjoram in powdered form; this way its fine flavor is quickly absorbed and thoroughly distributed through the food on which it is used. Try sprinkling a little powdered marjoram over snap beans or green peas.

GANG FUN

When serving frankfurters to a gang, preheat the broiler and toast the frankfurter rolls at one time under the broiler unit. If you want something special, spread the cut surfaces of the rolls lightly with butter or margarine before toasting this way.

LEAVE 'EM BIG

When you are making pastry for pie, remember that coarse particles of fat give a flaky crust, while fine particles give an undesirable closely-knit texture. The fat may be cut into the flour with two knives or with a pastry fork or blender.

Rice, Walnuts in Meatless Loaf

Here is a good meatless main dish that uses rice and walnuts for its flavor.

- 1 cup soft bread crumbs
- 1/4 cup chili sauce
- 1 1/4 cups cooked rice

EARLY DOES IT

Next time you buy hamburger, get it ready for cooking in a skillet as soon as you buy it. Make the meat into patties and layer them between squares of waxed paper, then wrap them all in another piece of the paper. Refrigerate the patties and use within two days.

CHECK BONES

Make sure your roast chicken is done. Move the drumstick up and down; when the leg feels loose at the thigh joint, the bird is ready to be served.

per. Blend thoroughly and put in a greased loaf pan. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for 45 minutes. Serve with a well-seasoned tomato sauce. Serves 6.
