

Valley News Briefs

Keizer — The Keizer Fire Department put out a fire about 2:30 p.m. Thursday in brush behind the A. L. Pierce property, 4215 Shoreline Dr.

Turner — Annual Sunday School picnic of the Methodist Church will be held Sunday at the V. S. Sawyer farm. Sunday School and church services will be held at the picnic site.

Hopewell — The Hopewell Home Extension Unit is sponsoring a picnic at Williamson State Park at 1 p.m. Sunday. Mrs. John Fuqua is in charge of arrangements.

Unionvale — The Missionary Society will meet at the church Tuesday night and has invited the Dayton Society as guests. Leaders for the meeting are Mrs. Lulu Rockhill and Mrs. Gene Lamb. Men are especially invited to attend the meeting.

Mt. Angel — Joseph Schmitt, veteran head of the Mt. Angel court of the Catholic Men Foresters, has been presented with a 50-year membership pin by Father Cyril Lebold, spiritual director of the organization. Schmitt has held the office of chief ranger for 20 years.

Woodburn — Serving for the Knights of Columbus' weekly coffee hour next Sunday will be Frank Bentley, John Pick, Robert Volz, William Barrett, and Edward Kahut. The coffee will be served at the Parish Hall after the 6 and 9 a.m. masses.

Four Corners — The Robert Clements have traded their residence at 430 Glenwood Dr. for the E. J. Hilyer acreage, Brooks route 1. The Hilyers have three children and the Clements have two.

Jefferson — Pfc. Benjamin D. Malone, whose wife, Helen, lives in Marion, is now serving with the Fifth Regimental Combat Team in Korea. Malone is a rifleman in Company B of the combat team. He entered the army in February, 1953, and arrived in Korea last August.

Unionvale — The Rev. and Mrs. Clyde Dollar and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Blanton, Birmingham, Ala., have been vacationing the past two weeks going as far north as Canada.

Oakdale — Folks here are quite used to hearing blasting from the lime quarry but for the last two weeks it has come from an added source. Polk County has been blasting gravel on the Roy Flow-erdew farm for use on construction of the new Oakdale Road. The road has been completed to just south of the Al Fletcher home a distance of about 3 and one fourth miles.

Independence — After a long spell without a dentist, Independence now has one with the arrival of Dr. Jack Daley.

Turner — Harry Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wolf and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wolf of Amity returned home Tuesday from Rathdrum, Idaho where they attended funeral services for their mother, Mrs. Grace Wolf.

Monmouth — Edward S. Leum, Springfield, began his duties as new city officer here July 20, replacing Ray Cummings who has joined the Salem police. Leum formerly served eight years as city officer at Clackamas.

Grange Fair Date Listed At Union Hill

Statesman News Service
UNION HILL — Robert Humphreys, master, presided at the July meeting of the Union Hill Grange.

The Grange Community Fair will be held at the Grange Hall on October 9. This is an annual affair for all those living in the community.

Mrs. J. C. Krenz and Mrs. Verna Scott were appointed to secure a wedding gift for Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Darby, whose marriage took place recently at Dallas, and who now live at The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Shaw of the Macleay Grange were visitors. Cpl. and Mrs. Guy Scott who are home on leave from Ft. Eustis, also attended grange.

Mrs. Robert Darrah, lecturer, was reported to be in the hospital. Mrs. Noah Hunt, gave a report on the State Grange meeting held in Albany in June.
