Phyllis Scott Married to Mr. Staab

The First Presbyterian Church was the setting for a lovely wedding Sunday afternoon when Miss Phyllis Jean Scott, daughter of Mrs. Don E. Firth, became the bride of Charles S. Staab, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Staab. The Rev. B. J. Holland officiated at the 4 o'clock nuptials.

Victor B. Palmason was the soloist and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs the organist. The altar was banked with bouquets of yellow gladioluses and blue delphinium.

Of imported Chantilly lace over nylon tulle and satin was the bridal gown, fashioned with a court train and fitted bodice with buttons down the back, Peter Pan collar and long sleeves. Her illusion fingertip veil was caught to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a Bible with marker of white orchid and shower of delphinium and yellow carnations. Mr. Firth gave the bride in marriage.

Mrs. E. T. Porter of Longview was the honor matron and she wore a blue nylon tulle gown over taffeta with matching shoes. The bridesmaids were Miss Colleen Martinsen of Hubbard, Miss Juliette Sather of Aurora, and Miss Margaret Babbs of Eugene, who wore yellow nylon tulle dresses over taffeta with matching shoes. The attendants all wore floral headbands and carried old fashioned nosegays of yellow and blue roses, gladioluses and delphinium.

Cheryl Dittman, dressed like the honor matron, was the flower girl.

Groom's Attendants
Robert C. Scott stood with his brother as best man and ushers were Kenneth Hamilton Jr., David Roake, Ted Roake Jr., and Paul Sundin.

The bride's mother chose a dusty rose crepe gown over taffeta with matching hat and white accessories. The groom's mother attended her son's wedding in a blue crepe gown with matching hat and white accessories. Their corsages were yellow roses.

The newlyweds greeted their guests in the social room of the church. Cutting the cake were Mrs. A. C. Baker of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Jack Frohman and pouring were Mrs. M. F. Dittman of Sherwood and Mrs. Harry Otte. Assisting were Mrs. Jack Bradshaw, Miss Imogene Dittman of Sherwood, Miss Elaine Baron, Miss Loretta Dornbusch, Miss Marjorie Davie and Miss Mary Ellen Davey.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to San Francisco the new Mrs. Staab donned a navy blue and white suit with matching stole and navy accessories. They will make their home in Long Beach, Calif.

Weatherford, Arlington; Mrs. George Rossman, Salem, current first vice-president of the federation; and Mrs. Emery E. Ingham, Portland. . . .
