Peruvian Air Club Group To Visit Salem

A delegation of 12 Peruvian youths are scheduled to arrive in Salem Aug. 3 for a one-day visit with state officials and members of Salem's Capitol Squadron, Civil Air Patrol.

The youths, all members of the Peruvian air club which resembles the CAP, will be guests of the Oregon CAP wing for a two-week tour of the 'tate. The party will travel by Air Force plane in company with Capt. George Ramsdell, Air Force liaison officer to the CAP.

Capt. Wilber D. Garrett, commander of the Salem unit, said the youths would have lunch with the governor and later tour the capitol as well as inspect CAP facilities at McNary Field.

Their visit to Oregon is in conjunction with a cadet exchange program conducted jointly each year by the Air Force and CAP. Three Oregon cadets will make similar trips to foreign countries this summer. None are from the Salem area, Capt. Garrett said.

Neuberger Says Republicans Are Avoiding Talk on Issues

State Sen. Richard Neuberger, Democratic nominee for the U.S. Senate, charged in Salem Monday that Oregon Republicans are "refusing to discuss the issues in this campaign."

Neuberger, who is seeking the congressional seat now held by Sen. Guy Cordon, predicted he would "win if the voters only understand the issues involved—including power, forest conservation, and oil."

Neuberger said his opposition, plus most of the Oregon press, doesn't want to discuss Cordon's voting record. Instead, he said, they will spend "tremendous sums of money on publicity."

"They want me to run around the state discussing the issues, while they plan to wait and bombard the voters with billboard, radio and TV propaganda. After Labor Day Republican billboards will be plastered from the Snake River to the sea."

Speaking to a group of about 75, mostly local Democrats, at a luncheon in the Senator Hotel, the candidate charged Cordon has "consistently voted against the best interests of the Oregon people."

"Cordon's supporters," Neuberger told his listeners, "don't want you to know, for instance, that if the late Sen. Taft was right on public housing then Cordon is wrong; if the North Atlantic Treaty is a good thing, then Cordon is wrong; if sportsman groups are right about conservation then Cordon is wrong; if educational groups were right about the oil-for-schools bill, then Cordon is wrong; if President Eisenhower was right about the Bricker amendment then Cordon is wrong."

Oregon, he said, has "been under one-party rule too long. Just as the Republicans said we needed a party change on a national scale because one-party rule leads to graft and corruption, so do we need a change in Oregon's congressional representation."

For a "foreign policy" Neuberger said he believed the United States' hopes for the future depended on keeping friendly allies. He said he did not favor permitting Red China to "shoot her way into the United Nations." He added, however, he felt the United States should not withdraw from U.N. if that organization does sent Red China.

Court Grants Probation on Burglar Count

Thomas Watson Pipkin, Portsmouth, Va., Monday was placed on two years probation by Marion County Circuit Judge George R. Duncan on a charge of burglary not in a dwelling.

He was arrested in May by city police and charged with entering the Burroughs Inn, 2395 Front St., on May 21. Following his arrest Pipkin also admitted entering six other Salem establishments, police said.

He was returned to the court's jurisdiction Monday from Oregon State Hospital where he had been committed for a 30-day observation period.

Hearing Set On Proposed Street Work

Final assessment figures for the proposed improvement of Reedy Drive and Tess Avenue in the Hoover School District were presented to the Marion County Court Monday.

The court set Aug. 23 as the date for hearing of objections to the improvements and property owners along the two streets will be mailed notices.

Also presented to the court Monday was the estimated cost for improving Pleasant View Drive in the Arnold subdivision in Keizer. Total estimated cost was $5,654-$11.50 for each foot of property for land owners on the street.

In other business before the court a letter from W. P. Garrett, right-of-way and tax agent for the Spokane, Portland and Seattle Railway Company, was presented. He stated his company now has forms of easement executed by the Oregon Electric Railway Company granting Marion County the right to extend the slopes of its fill on railroad right-of-way in connection with improvements on South River Road.

Prison Term Given Segrist

Walter Bennie Segrist, 680 N. Liberty St., was sentenced Monday to two and five years in the state penitentiary by Marion County Circuit Judge George R. Duncan on charges of concealing stolen property. The sentences are to run consecutively.

The charges were based on two radios stolen from stores in Dallas and Salem. Following Segrist's arrest by city police Feb. 4, a quantity of stolen goods was found in his apartment, police said. He was indicted by the grand jury June 22 and found guilty by jury Thursday.

Sentence Delayed On Check Charge Against Youths

Sentencing of three Corvallis youths, who Saturday pleaded guilty to charge of obtaining money by false pretenses, Monday was continued until Thursday in Judge Val D. Sloper's District Court.

The three, Robert L. Nelson, 21, Glen Allen Cummings, 18, and Joseph Earl Mager, 19, were arrested by city police in connection with a $21 check passed in Salem on July 19. Bail previously was set at $500 each.

Monday detectives from Albany were in Salem to question the youths about checks allegedly passed there.
