

This Will Bring Thrill to Better's Heart Tomorrow

The thoroughbreds return to the Lone Oak Track tomorrow as one of the main attractions of the annual Oregon State Fair. A group of the thoroughbreds are shown here breaking from the starting gate during last year's race meet. The races will run for seven days, excepting Sunday, and will include some of the fastest harness horses in the Northwest in the first and third race daily. The trotters will be here for the first time since 1950. Post time for the daily races is 1:15 p.m.

Indians Bow to Yanks

Dodgers Whip Cubs, 10-2

Records Fall as Nats Wallop Detroit, 16-6

NEW YORK (U) — The New York Yankees, who could win all of their remaining games and still lose the pennant, clipped the league-leading Cleveland Indians 10-2 Thursday and moved within 3½ games of the top.

Whitey Ford, with help from Alie Reynolds in the ninth, held the Indians to three hits. But the Indians made it close because two of the three were home runs — by Sam Dente in the fifth and Larry Doby in the ninth.

The Yankees did all of their damage in the sixth. Mickey Mantle parked Bob Lemon's first pitch of the inning high and away into the third deck of the right field stands.

A two-base error by Vic Wertz and an intentional walk were followed by a sharp single to center by Andy Carey. The third run scored when Wertz couldn't find the handle on a sharp grounder by pinch hitter Eddie Robinson.

The loss snapped an 11-game winning streak for Lemon, the league's only 20-game winner so far.

The Yankees also clinched at least a tie in their season's series with the Indians. They've won 11 of 20 and have two left — a doubleheader at Cleveland Sept. 12.

But even if the Yankees could win all of the 22 games they have left, they couldn't guarantee the pennant since the Indians could lose two more to New York and still finish with one more victory than the Yankees in their overall record.

The National League race tightened up Thursday, too, with the second place Brooklyn Dodgers whipping Chicago 10-2 while New York and Milwaukee were idle. The Dodgers now trail New York by three games. Milwaukee is ½ behind.

Russ Meyer, who has beaten Chicago 16 consecutive times and 19 out of 21 since the Cubs sold him, found things easy after his mates jammed across seven runs in the fourth.

Gil Hodges hit a two-run homer during the rally which included two doubles, two singles, two sacrifice flies and a pair of walks.

Junior Gilliam extended his hitting streak to 11 games with a first-inning triple. Hodges now has hit in the last 10 Brooklyn contests.

They almost had more broken records that people in the stands at Washington where the Senators buried Detroit 16-6 before a gathering of 1,260.

Roy Sievers drove in seven runs and hit his 23rd homer, an all-time high for a Washington player. Mickey Vernon's three hits moved him over the 2,000 mark. He's the third active player to pass 2,000, joining Stan Musial and Enochs Slaughter.

Vernon also set a new Washington high for left-handed hitters by collecting his 19th home run. The total of 18 hits was a seasonal high for Washington.

The Philadelphia Phillies handed the St. Louis Cardinals their fifth straight loss, 5-4, as Robin Roberts pitched his 19th victory. Stan Lopata's three-run homer was the big blow for the Phils. The Cards made it close when pinch hitter Bill Sarni homered with one aboard in the ninth.

None of the other teams was scheduled.

MEXICAN GOLF WINS
BRIDGEPORT, Pa. (U) — Margaret Smith, women's golf champion of Mexico, putted her way into the finals of the U. S. Junior Girls' Tournament Thursday with an impressive 5 and 4 win over Leona Sayre, Norristown, Pa.

Prince Dare, having failed to stand up under training this season, has been retired to stud. His best season was as a juvenile when he earned $64,575 including first in the $50,000 Maryland Gold Cup.

Kewan Gosper, the Australian who won the British Empire Games 440-yard championship at Vancouver this summer, is a student at Michigan State.

'Largest Field' Races Saturday

The biggest field of horses ever nominated for an Oregon State Fair race is seeking a post in Saturday's Inaugural Handicap.

Twenty-four thoroughbreds have been nominated for the fair's opening-day feature race, and lots will be drawn to determine which go into the eight stalls in the starting gate.

The Inaugural Handicap carries an $800 purse. Three-year-olds and upward are eligible for the 6¼-furlong race.

Jockeys were streaming into the State Fair horse barns Thursday, many coming directly from the California State Fair meet.

A big field of harness racers are also on hand. They will vie in the first and third pari-mutuel races daily at the State Fair and will compete for trophies in two races on Sunday afternoon as part of that day's free grandstand show.

Eight running races are on the fair program every day except Sunday. Monday's feature will be the Labor Day Handicap, a mile and one-sixteenth race for three-year-olds.

Racing officials for the State Fair meet include Cecil L. Edwards, commission steward; Charles A. Evans, director of racing; Charles Mullany, racing secretary; Don Blair, clerk of scales; Dr. J. G. Gill and Walter H. Zosel, placing judges; Charles Kading, Charles Hunter and William Rice, patrol judges; Bobby Thompson, jockey room custodian; Dr. F. G. Rankin, track veterinarian; and Gene Hartnett, mutual manager.

Vernon, who has won the American League batting championship twice, wasted no time Thursday in whacking out the hit that counted. He belted a single to right off Detroit's Ned Garver in the first inning.

Play was stopped momentarily and Vernon's feat was reported over the public address system. The ball was thrown to Coach Heinie Manush to preserve for Vernon.

Vernon went right on hitting after that, getting a single and a home run, his 19th of the year. He broke another record with his homer, for no other left-handed hitter ever had hit that many with a Washington entry. The mark of 18 was shared by three predecessors.

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. (U) — Lewie Hoad, Australia's phlegmatic blockbuster, cut the props from under giant-killer Jack Frost Thursday and strode into the quarter-finals of the National Tennis Championships along with two seeded Americans — Ham Richardson and Tom Brown Jr.

Uncle Sam's two top-ranking nephews, defending champion Tony Trabert and Vic Seixas, sat out the sixth day's proceedings at the swank West Side Tennis Club and will make their quarter-final bids later.

Hoad, playing with a cool confidence that bordered on boredom, swept aside the 19-year-old Frost, Stanford University student from Monterey, Calif., 6-3, 6-0, 6-4.

Manager Paul Richards leads his third-place Sox back into town after a long eastern swing with rumors accompanying him about a showdown on a new contract.

The former Seattle manager signed with the Comiskey for one year in 1951. Late in the 1952 season, he was given a two-year contract, which expires after the close of the present season.

No one knows what Richards has in mind when the scheduled talks with General Manager Frank Lane, President Mrs. Grace Comiskey, Vice President Chuck Comiskey and other board members are held within the next few days.

One report is that Richards' price for remaining with the White Sox is a three-year contract and that the Comiskies do not favor a pact of more than two years.

Lane has admitted that he gave Clarence W. Miles, president of the Baltimore Orioles, permission to talk to Richards concerning the job of general manager, but not field manager.

Caps Edged By Wenatchee

VANCOUVER, B. C. (U) — The Wenatchee Chiefs opened their four-game stand here Thursday night when they came from behind to nip the Vancouver Capitanos 5-4.

The Chiefs were down 4-3 going into the ninth when Jerry Green singled. Green went to second when Arnie Hallgren, attempting to pick him off first, threw wild. He advanced to third on an infield out.

Ross McCormack walked and Jake Helmut singled to score Green as the tying run. Dain Clay brought McCormack in with the winner via a sharp single to right.

Herrera Keeps Senators 'Alive' With 6-1 Victory

Doubleheader Slated Tonight

4-Run Heat Sparks Win Over Tri-City

By AL LIGHTNER
Statesman Sports Editor

The combination of Tommy Herrera's effective flinging, a four-run inning and three timely double plays last night kept the Salem Senators alive in their bid for the second-half WI League pennant, as they tumbled the Tri-City Braves 6-1 at Waters Field.

It was the opener for the final scheduled series of the season here, and tonight the same two clubs do doubleheader battle starting at 6:30 o'clock. The series winds up with a single clash Saturday night, after which the Braves and Solons move to Tri-City for a final three games.

Having shaken off the painful effects of losing two of three games at Wenatchee earlier in the week, Hugh Luby's lads are now determined to sweep all six remaining outings with Edo Vanni's Braves, in the hope that such a climax will amount to the second-half flag.

They got off to a rousing start last night as Herrera overcame a rough first inning to breeze in with his sixth triumph of the season.

The Braves tallied in the first on three base hits and Vic Buccola's sacrifice fly. Thereafter the per right-hander flipped six-hit ball and was given A-1 support.

Don Robertson, ace of the Tri-City staff, but unable to beat a Salem club here in two years, reluctantly surrendered the tying run in the second and then saw his ball game go bluey in a four-run third inning.

In the second Harry Warner singled and was forced at second by Jimmy Deyo who later tallied on Connie Perez' long triple to center.

Herrera himself started the outburst in the third with a slashing single off Buccola's glove at first base. Mel Krause also singled and both runners moved along when Gene Tansell grounded out. Bob Kellogg was whiffed, halting the avalanche momentarily.

Warner was purposely passed so that Robertson could face the right-hand hitting Deyo. This strategy exploded the wrong way for Vanni when Deyo singled to right, good for two runs. Artie Wilson's throw to third in an attempt to cut down Warner went by Terry Carroll, and Warner also scored, with Deyo winding up on second base.

The Salem center fielder made it No. 4 for the inning when Perez smashed a scorching single to right.

The final Salem run was "brained" in by Warner in the seventh. With Krause on third and Warner on first, Harry broke for second as Robertson was going into his stretch before hurling to Deyo. The Tri-City pitcher made a slight move toward first base before backing off the rubber and trapping Warner. But ump Fisher spotted the defect, roared "balk" and Krause came (Continued on next page)

Garden to Open Fall Boxing Season Tonight

NEW YORK (U) — Madison Square Garden opens its fall-winter boxing season Friday night with a pair of comebacking heavyweights Cesar Brion of Argentina and Charley Norkus of Bellerose, N. Y., as the headline attraction.

Brion, making his first U. S. appearance in over a year, is a 6-6 favorite to score his second victory over the 26-year-old ex-Marine.

Lack of Depth May Hurt . . .

Prospects Look Good For Bearcat Gridders

By DUSTY FLOG
Statesman Assistant Sports Editor

An impressive string of 18 returning lettermen will greet Ted Ogdahl, Willamette University football coach, when the Bearcats start their grind Monday morning. To add even a more optimistic outlook for the team is the fact that of the 18, nine of them were regulars on the 1953 squad.

With this to build around, Ogdahl will issue uniforms Monday morning and then start a two practices daily routine to build the team into shape for their first game when they meet Humboldt State College on Sept. 18.

Despite how promising the team looks on paper, Ogdahl means the fact that the team doesn't look like it will have much depth.

"We have a good looking first gang," says Ogdahl, "but injuries could hurt us bad."

The returning lettermen are ends Phil McCallister, Dean Benson, Norm Dverdal, Mike Hovis and Bruce Harding; tackles Dale Anderson, Dale Greenlee and Jerry Kangas; guards Andy George and Bob Dyer; center Ken Cooper; quarterbacks Harvey Nefendorf and John Kent; halfbacks Louis Lofland, Bob Zoelch, Windy Sequeira and Don Humphrey; and fullback George Bardley.

Regulars from last year are McCallister, Benson, Anderson, George, Cooper, Nefendorf, Bardley and Sequeira. George was an all-conference selection last year and looms as a strong man in the center of the line.

Humphrey is a returning serviceman who lettered before entering the service.

Main objective of the Bearcats will be to set a better record than the two wins, five losses and one tie of last year.
