of 760 at Tri-City in stitches with their maneuvers. Even Manager Edo Vanni of the Braves darted to and from the pitching box, bringing wet towels to "cool off" the perspiring and pitching Perez.

And so, for other than the playoffs which start at Vancouver Wednesday night, the Western International League closed doors on undoubtedly its worst season in history. Ten teams started the campaign in April. Seven managed to finish, and all seven are hanging on the financial ropes.

Momentous news is expected from the next league meeting, at Seattle in a few weeks.

Roenspie, with help from Rayle In the final two innings, won last night's opener. Salem scored five runs in the third inning off Walt Clough, which were enough to win. Big blow of the uprising was Perez' three - run double. Bob Moniz had a home run for Tri-City, with one on.

The Senators had another fiverun inning in the nightcap, in the sixth off Don Robertson to go in front by an 8-3 score.

But when Starter Gene Johnson was slammed for a six-run inning in the bottom of the sixth, the So-lons turned comics and turned the game into a farce. There was nothing to lose for either side. Even though both Perez and Tan-

Twice-Daily Practice Schedule Starts Today

46 Bearcats

Head Coach Ted Ogdahl put the accent on labor in the Labor Day opening football practice at Willamette University Monday as 46 players turned out for the first day's drill. The day's prac-tice included conditioning work, fundamentals, running, and even a little arrimmage. a little scrimmage.

Ogdahl and his two assistants, Jerry Frei and Ray Chaipuzio, wasted no time in the drills as they sent an offensive group against a defensive line in partetice plays.

Among the 56 players turning out were 14 of the 18 returning letermen. The missing four are expected to be here within the next few days. Missing are center Ken Cooper and end Norm Dversdal, both expected Tuesday, and halfback Windy Sequeria, who is expected before the end of the week from Honolulu, where he has been working this summer.

has been working this summer. Today the two-a-day practices begin with an afternoon and morning session slated through Friday. Saturday the squad will split, up to play its first scrim-mage game. This week's early practices will consist mostly of conditioning and fundamentals, according to Ogdahl. Ogdahl commented Monday that he was pleased with the con-dition of the team, stating that they "showed up in better shape than they have in the last couple
