Bums Narrow Giant Margin to 3 Games

Don Newcombe won his ninth game and allowed eight hits until he gave way to Jim Hughes in the eighth.

In addition to Rodgers' homer, the Brooklyn runs in the sixth included a three-run double by Pee Wee Reese who also scored when the outfield relay went into the stands.

The sixth place St. Louis Cardinals moved to within 1 1/2 games of first division by whipping the Philadelphia Phillies 3-1. Tom Phillips allowed seven hits. The Phils' run came on a triple by Mel Clark and a sacrifice fly by Smokey Burgess in the sixth.

Baltimore Orioles climbed out of the American League cellar with a 2-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox on Jim Fridgey's single in the ninth. Fridgey smashed one off the left field wall with the bases loaded and two out. Ted Williams went hitless.

Vandals Gird For Duck Tilt

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — The Idaho Vandals picked up some experience on handling a wet football during a light practice session Wednesday.

Coach Skip Stahley spent a large portion of the time with kicking and passing drills in the steady rain that fell all afternoon. George Eidam was featured as both kicker and passer.

Stahley said there will be no more scrimmage work for his men before the Vandals entertain Oregon on Saturday. The team can't take the chance of any injuries, he said.

All but two men are expected to be able to play Saturday. Fullback Larry Gorrell is still out with a bad knee and halfback Ted Frostensen, with a shoulder separation.

Another UW Player Hurt

SEATTLE (AP) — The injury jinx, which plagued the Washington Huskies last week, hit again Wednesday.

Don Hartwig, Walla Walla sophomore and No. 2 right end, was shelved for 4-6 weeks with a bone fracture in his right foot. Medics reported the break after studying X-rays. Hartwig hurt the foot in Tuesday's scrimmage.

Others of the squad's recent half a dozen cripples were on the mend, with one exception, and ready for Saturday's football opener here against the Utah Redskins.

The question mark was veteran halfback Jack Kyllingstad, who nursed a charleyhorse, and might see only limited action this weekend.

Oklahoma City Hoop Hopefuls Study Ballet

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Don't be surprised if Oklahoma City University's basketball players show plenty of fancy footwork and unusual grace on the court this winter—the boys have taken up ballet.

Basketball coach Doyle Parrack confirmed the rumor Wednesday and offered this quick explanation: "It's an experiment. I think there may be a correlation between the movements of the dance and basketball maneuvers, especially in jumps, post play and defense."

Parrack added he felt the twice-a-week dance lessons would help his athletes perfect their foot work and timing.

He declared, however, that the 25 basketball players attending the free classes offered by a private dancing school "were doing so on their own."

"There is no compulsion about the lessons and no college credit is involved," he said. "It is not a basketball practice either and I wish you would stress that," he told newsmen.

Regular basketball practice starts Nov. 1.

Waldorf Likes Cal's Progress

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Coach Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf, not usually lavish with praise where his own team is concerned, said the California Bears were "moving better" in Wednesday's three-hour workout.

All in all, he said, it was "a little better practice."

Cal, ranked 12th in the Associated Press pre-season football poll, meets second ranking Oklahoma here Saturday in the first nationally-televised game of the college football season.

Cards Face COP

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) — Stanford Wednesday completed its preparations for Friday night's football game with College of the Pacific in Stockton.

Coach Chuck Taylor told his 60 squad members they could have Thursday off. It will be their first day off since workouts started Sept. 1.

Joe Long, second string center, quit the team because of the recurrence of an old shoulder injury.

The Duke University football record lists a 96-0 victory over Furman in 1891. That season a touchdown was worth four points instead of six.

Official Says Changes Due . . .

Nats' Troubles Bring Howls, Harris on Spot

WASHINGTON (AP) — A major face lifting is in store for the Washington Senators over the winter, but whether Manager Bucky Harris will vanish in the shuffle rests squarely with an old friend, club-owner Clark Griffith.

The wolves have been howling in the capital as a result of the club's disappointing second division finish. Its attendance figures have tumbled.

And when neighboring Baltimore shelled out a sizeable bundle of cash Tuesday to lure Paul Richards as general manager of the Orioles, the howling grew even louder.

Calvin Griffith, the Nats' executive vice president, acknowledged the situation Wednesday. "Something is going to be done," he said. "We can't afford to get kicked around. You can be sure there will be plenty of changes."

Clark Griffith, the 84-year-old owner of the ball club, said firmly that any decision to shift managers would be his and his alone. He promised an announcement after the season ends Sept. 26.

Harris, himself, was saying nothing. He was at the same old stand, directing the field fortunes of the club which he piloted to its first championship 30 years ago. This is Harris' third hitch as manager of the Senators.

Warriors Wait Dallas Clash

LEBANON (Special) — Equipped with 14 lettermen and a pleasing 6-0 victory over Astoria last week, the Lebanon Warriors Friday night play the Dallas Dragons in a football game here at eight o'clock.

Coach George Van Pelt's T-formationed Warriors have only six regulars back from last year's squad, which posted a 7-2 record, but expect to have another successful campaign.

Lettermen are Centers Fort Parrell and Larry Hoover, Guards Lee Evans and Rodger Wold, Tackles Monte Siegner and Ty Gove, End Ed Neustal, Quarterback Darryl Bishop, Halfbacks Malcolm McBride, Dick White, Benny Monroe and Jim Smith and Fullback Charles Pless. A lettered transfer is Fullback Ron Bessonette.

Bulldogs Open With Central

WILLAMINA (Special) — The Willamina Bulldogs, coached by Tom Cowan, open their football season here Friday night with Central High's Panthers at eight o'clock.

The Bulldogs, who won seven and lost one last year, have but seven lettermen. They are Halfbacks Doug Littlejohn and Bob Fowler, Guards Gordon Fowler and Mickey Scott, Tackles Merle Schaeffer and Gordy Macpherson and Center Ted Cook.

The balance of the squad is made up of inexperienced and light underclassmen who have shown much spirit and desire in practice sessions.

Saints Start In Jamboree

SUBLIMITY (Special) — With 12 lettermen on hand, along with five outstanding prospects in his turnout of 24 aspirants, Coach Father R. P. O'Hara's Sublimity Saints open their football season Friday night at Stayton in the eight o'clock jamboree.

Lettermen on the team are End Larry Reisterer, Tackles Pat Murphy, Harold Toepfer and Tom Christiansen, Guards Ted Schott-hoefler, Don Gescher and Bill Welter, Center Don Murphy, Quarterback Alan Bell, Halfbacks Bob Doerfler and Dennis Sullivan, and Fullback Jim Lewis.

Other top prospects are Guards Richard Sayre and Tommy Wolf, Tackle Dale Rubel, End Jim Hershberger and Halfback Doug Bradley.

Hoxie Leading In KOCO Meet

Ron Hoxie, with a one under par 71, leads the championship flight qualifiers thus far as the fifth annual KOCO Shortstop golf tournament draws near.

All those intending to play in the championship flight of the weekend meet must qualify not later than today. The low 18 will be in the title flight.

All others in the tourney need not qualify. They will be placed in flights according to established handicap. Play will start at 1 p.m. Saturday, and will continue Sunday following the 9 a.m., long-ball driving contest.

Tourney Chairman Red Smith has lined up what he terms "the greatest prize list ever" for the tourney, which is annually one of the biggest of the golfing ventures at Salem Golf Club.

The entry fee posted by players will entitle them to take part in

Final Trials Sunday In Conser Lake Area

ALBANY (Special) — The Willamette Valley Retriever Club will sponsor the final meet of the season here Sunday, starting at 9 a.m. It will be a Picnic Trial on the Conser Lake area.

Events will include derby, qualifying and open-all-age. Pigeons, ducks and geese will be used in the events.
