Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. What is the proper way to eat an apple at the dinner table?

A. Cut the apple into quarters, then peel it. The pieces should be conveyed to the mouth with the fingers.

Q. Is it proper for a girl to give her fiance an engagement gift?

A. This is optional. However, in most cases the ring given to the girl is the only engagement gift exchanged.

Q. Is it proper for a young girl to invite a boy into her home for a snack after a date?

A. Only if her parents, or some other mature person, are in the house. It would not be proper if there were no one home who could be regarded as a chaperon.

Q. We frequently have guest speakers at our women's club. Should we applaud them both when they are introduced and after they speak?

A. This is proper—the first time in greeting, and the second time in approval.

Q. Is it all right for a bride to have both a matron and a maid of honor at her wedding?

A. Yes, if the wedding is a very large and formal one.

Q. Should a guest, who has accidentally broken something, replace it with another?

A. This is the proper and considerate thing to do.
