W. N. Simon Rites Saturday
Funeral services will be held at Virgil T. Golden chapel Saturday at 10:30 a. m. for Walter N. Simon, former Salem hardware dealer, who died from a heart attack Wednesday while fishing at the coast.
Simon for many years operated the Salem Hardware store with his brothers, Lawrence, Simon and the late Frank M. Simon. The Simons retired from the business in 1943.
A late resident of 1381 Marion St., Walter Simon was born at Altura, Minn., and came to Salem in 1900 with his parents, John and Sarah Simon. He married Ellen Brown of Salem, and they spent several years in Canada in ranching operations before returning to this city to make their home.
Simon attended the Lutheran Church and was a member of the Salem Gun Club and Salem Elks Lodge.
Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Ellen Simon; a daughter, Mrs. Ada Sischo, Salem; a sister, Mary S. Benson, Salem; brother, Lawrence Simon, Salem, and a step-sister, Elsie Fletcher, Salem.
The Rev. John L. Cauble will officiate at the services and interment will be at Belcrest Memorial Park.
