Scio Youth Hurt as Car Hits Bridge

Statesman News Service
SUBLIMITY—A Scio youth suffered non-serious injuries Thursday night when his car went out of control and tore out most of the railing of a small bridge on the Stayton-Silverton highway, about a mile north of Sublimity.
Reported in good condition later at Santiam Hospital, Stayton, was Robert Key, 17, of Scio Route 2, Box 247.
Key indicated that he must have gone to sleep prior to the accident.
Officers said the youth's 1941 Studebaker sedan ripped out three-fourths of the bridge railing. Key was reportedly thrown from the car and into a six-foot ditch. He was taken to the hospital by a passerby.
The car was reported extensively damaged.
