

Women's Section

SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

Miss Colleen Powers Now Mrs. Mahon

The First Christian Church in Salem was the scene of the marriage of Miss Colleen Powers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Byron Powers of Molalla, and Harold Patterson Mahon Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold P. Mahon of McMinnville, on Sept. 11. The Rev. Wayne E. Green performed the 8 o'clock rites.

Mrs. Clorinda Topping was the soloist and Mrs. J. M. Cracraft was the organist. The altar was banked with bouquets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli. Of white Chantilly lace over satin was the bridal gown, fashioned with two tulle overskirts and a fitted bodice with long sleeves. Her veil was of Swiss imported tulle over blue and was caught to a seed pearl tiara. She carried a bouquet of white rubrum lilies and stephanotis.

Miss Patricia Orcutt of Molalla was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Buren of Portland, formerly of Salem, Miss Nancy Gassman of Portland, all Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters, and Miss Joyce Mahon of McMinnville, sister of the groom. The honor attendant wore a ballerina gown of red wine tissue silk over taffeta and carried orchid spider chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids wore grape ballerina frocks of tissue silk over taffeta and carried red wine spider chrysanthemums.

Attend the Groom
Ray Pruiett of Independence was best man and ushers were Dick Moore, Irvin Hanville, McMinnville, Bill Johnson, McMinnville, Glen Munkers, Corvallis, and Lloyd Staats, Ocean Lake.
For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Powers chose a Dior gown of blue lace with silver accessories and a pink orchid corsage. Mrs. Mahon wore a dusty rose lace gown with gold accessories and a green orchid corsage.
A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Glenn F. Powers of Salem, the bride's aunt, cut the cake, Mrs. Paul

OES Friendship Night Observed

Friendship night was observed by members of Ainsworth Chapter OES at the Wednesday meeting at the Scottish Rite Temple. Presiding were Mrs. Robert Stutzman George Bixler, worthy matron and patron.

Honor guests were Willard Craig, member of the grand budget committee, Mrs. J. Edgar Reay, grand representative of South Dakota; Mrs. Helen Beck, grand representative of Tennessee; Mrs. Eria Crowe, grand representative of Indiana; Mrs. Ethel Craig, worthy matron of St. Mary's Chapter, Corvallis; Mrs. Jennie Fisher, worthy matron of Brazillia Chapter, Albany, and Mrs. Margaret Carlson, worthy matron of Marguerite Chapter, Lebanon.

Mrs. Alvin Luhr announced a luncheon to be given by Ainsworth Social Club on September 23 at the Masonic Temple.
A program was presented including vocal numbers by Sharon Anderson, accompanied by Barbara Corie and piano solos by Patricia Whelan. The courtesy ladies presented a degree for Mrs. Stutzman on her birthday.

The October 6 meeting will observe charter night and all charter members will be honored. Refreshments were served with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Osterman as chairmen. Assisting were Mrs. J. N. Francis, Mrs. Lillian Kinzer, Mrs. Lester Alton, Mrs. J. H. Ritchie, Mrs. W. H. Freele and Mrs. John E. Wood.

Milke, Portland, served the groom's cake, Mrs. Jason V. Robertson, Molalla, the bride's aunt, and Mrs. Carl A. Rickson, Portland, cousin of the bride, poured. Linda and Donna Jolley passed the rice bags.
After a wedding trip to Victoria, B. C., the newlyweds will be at home in Seattle at 4537 Stanford Ave. while Mr. Mahon completes work on his doctorate degree at the University of Washington. Both are graduates of Oregon State College, where they received their master's degrees. Mr. Mahon is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity.

Yma Sumac, Inca singer, who will appear in Salem October 14 at Salem High School auditorium, sponsored by The Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce. The concert is to be presented by Harley Hoppe and tickets will be on sale at Stevens and Son, beginning October 1.

Beverly Trent A Bride of Saturday

DALLAS—Before a setting of a large flower covered arch, baskets of Picardy and white gladioli, and candelabras, Beverly Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Trent, was married to George Frederick Christensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Christensen of Goldhill, at the First Christian Church, Saturday, Sept. 11 at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. Orville Mick read the double ring service.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Robert Dorenhecker sang. Mrs. Carl Wright played the wedding march.

The bride wore a white nylon tulle over satin waltz length gown with lace bodice and lace inserts in the skirt. Her finger tip veil was held by a band with pearl trim. She carried a Rainbow Bible with an arrangement of white orchid and stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Miss Wanda Holmes of Lebanon, wore a waltz length dress of Picardy over taffeta and the bridesmaids, Miss Jan Lundy and Mrs. Charles Zeigler, wore dresses of powder blue net over taffeta. They carried identical nosegays of Picardy and white gladioli.

Carol Lee Washburn of Medford, niece of the groom, was the flower girl and Billy Jones, nephew of the groom was the ring bearer. Lee Johnson of Medford was the best man. Bill Trent, brother of the bride, and Bud Hodges lighted the candles and also were ushers with John Mayfield of Grants Pass.

Mrs. Trent chose an embroidered slate blue taffeta dress with pink accessories for her daughter's marriage. Mrs. Christensen wore a blue crepe dress trimmed with rhinestones and beige accessories. Both wore corsages of pink rosebuds.

Reception Follows Rites
Immediately following the service, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Lee Johnson and Mrs. Delmar Chapman of Goldhill, sisters of the groom, served the cake. Mrs. Floyd Wolfenbarger, of McMinnville, cousin of the bride, presided at the punch

Miss Finnicum, Mr. Durbin Wed

UNIONVALE — Miss Donna Lee Finnicum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Finnicum, and Paul Durbin son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Durbin of Dayton, were united in marriage at a ceremony Thursday Sept. 9 at 8:30 p.m. The Rev. Clyde Dollar officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Robert Monroe, cousin of the bride, was the organist and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Robert Coburn of Dayton. Charles Lendberg of Salem and Robert Shelburne of McMinnville, brothers-in-law of the bride, lighted the tapers.

The bride chose a blue afternoon dress for her wedding and wore white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with white orchids.

Honor attendant was the bride's sister, Mrs. Charles Lendberg of Salem, who wore a beige ensemble with beige accessories. Her flowers were pink pon dahlia's. Freeman Finnicum brother of the bride, was the groom's attendant. Ushers were Charles Longberg and Robert Shelburne.

Mrs. Finnicum chose for her daughter's wedding a black dress with red accessories and a red rosebud corsage. The groom's mother wore blue with black accessories and a pink rosebud corsage.

A reception followed in the gymnasium. Mrs. Robert Shelburne of McMinnville, sister of the bride, cut the cake assisted by Mrs. Don Gubser. At the coffee urn was Mrs. Clifford Brot, sister of the groom, and Miss Vonda Makinster was at the punch bowl. Assisting were Mrs. Louise Sullivan of McMinnville, Mrs. Ruth Langlitz and Mrs. Marvin Lorenzen of Dayton, Mrs. Lyle Smith, Mrs. Larry Siempan, Miss Luella McIntosh, Mrs. James Ediger, of Dayton, and Mrs. Rodney Perry of McMinnville.

bowl. Assisting were Mrs. C. M. Warren of Salem, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. W. J. Edgar of Portland.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a navy knit suit with pink and gunmetal accessories. After a honeymoon trip through California and Nevada the newlyweds will live in Corvallis, where the groom is completing his course in agriculture engineering at Oregon State College. The bride is employed in the animal husbandry offices at the college.

Around Town

By JERYME ENGLISH

INVITATIONS... were in Thursday's mail to a coffee parties for which Mrs. Maynard C. Shiffer, Mrs. Lewis D. Clark and Mrs. Sidney D. Hoffman will be hostesses on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 21 and 22... the affairs will be held at the Candalaria Heights home of the Shiffers with guests bidden to call between 10 and 1 o'clock each day...
Fete a bride-elect... Mrs. John S. Lothead and her daughter, Gail, were hostesses for a pre-nuptial party Thursday night in honor of Miss Shirley Taggart, who will be married to Roy Christiansen on September 25... A bathroom shower honored the bride-to-be and a late dessert supper was served by the hostesses... Fifty friends were bidden to the party at the Kingwood Heights home of the Lotheads on Pall Drive... The supper table and rooms were festive with bouquets of autumn flowers featuring chrysanthemums in shades of lavender, gold and white with matching tapers...
Announcements... were received by Salem friends this week of the marriage of Miss Ann Hae Stackhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stackhouse of Slippery Rock, Pennsylvania, formerly of Salem, and William Rule, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rule of Des Moines, Wash... The ceremony took place on Wednesday, September 1 at the First Congregational Church in Stanton, Michigan at 8 o'clock... The bride resided in Salem while her father was coach at Willamette University... she also attended Willamette and Oregon State... She is a graduate of the University of Washington and has been employed by the Seattle Police force...
Event of Sunday... will be the wedding of Miss Janice Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Taylor, and Robert Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hobbart Dixon... the couple will exchange their vows at the First Congregational Church with Dr. Julian Keiser officiating at the 6:30 o'clock rites... A reception will follow in the fireplace room... the couple will live in San Diego, where Mr. Dixon is stationed with the U.S. Navy...
Welcome newcomers... in the capital are Dr. and Mrs. Philip Porter and two children, who recently moved here from Newport... they have taken a house at 1725 Grant Street... Dr. Porter will be associated with Dr. Merle F. Brown...
Expected... to arrive in the capital this weekend is Mrs. Donald A. Young, who has been in Los Angeles for several months... She is coming north to join her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young, who will be visiting in Portland... The Youngs are currently in Anchorage, Alaska while he is stationed there with the U. S. Air Force... Molly and Don will be here for the wedding of her sister, Miss Mary Ann McWaters, and Jack Healy, which will be an event of September 25 at St. Thomas More Church in Green Hills, Portland, with a reception following at the new Portland

Garden Club building... Molly has already arrived in Portland and is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McWaters, and her husband is expected Saturday... The many Salem friends of Mrs. Donald Young are pleased to hear that she plans to return to Salem to make her home...
It's welcome home... for Mr. and Mrs. Ellis F. Von Eschen and their son, Ellis Jr... The senior Von Eschens flew East the end of August and attended the national American Legion convention in Washington, D. C... from there they went on to New York to visit Mr. Von Eschen's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Von Eschen, who reside at Manhasset... they also visited with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Vincens (Glenn Barnes), who live in Rosley Heights... Mrs. Vincens is a former Salem resident... Last week the Von Eschens met their son, who returned by ship from a summer in Europe and England... he was accompanied by a Willamette University friend, Bob Straumfjord of Astoria... the two toured the Continent by car... Mr. and Mrs. Von Eschen flew West and their son and Bob drove cross-country... Ellis Jr. will leave later in the month for Palo Alto, where he has a scholarship and will take graduate work at Stanford University...
Flying... to Mexico City Sunday will be Arden Parker, daughter of the Cyril Parkers... she will enroll for her sophomore year at Mexico City where where she will major in Spanish... Arden took her freshman year at the University of Oregon... she is traveling by car to San Diego and will fly to Mexico from Tijuana...
Visiting... in the capital the past week have been Lt. (jg) and Mrs. Gerald Robison and children, Kathleen Clare and Richard, of San Diego, who have been guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker... today the Robisons are going over to Neskwonin to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manley Robison, formerly of Salem... The end of September the visitors will return to San Diego, where Mrs. Robison and the children will remain while Lt. Robison is in Japan...
Return home... Mrs. Lewis Griffith is back from a fortnight's stay in Redmond with her daughter, Mrs. John Copenhaver... Mr. Copenhaver is currently in Washington, D. C... Dr. and Mrs. George S. Hoffman are home from a summer in Pendleton...
Weekend jottings... Attending the Pendleton Round-Up are David W. Eyre, his son, David W. Eyre Jr., and grandson, Larry

Richard West Married in California

From California comes news of the marriage of a Salem man Airman First Class Richard W. West, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. West of Salem, to Miss Nancy Catherine Crow of Fresno, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian B. Crow of Fresno. The ceremony took place Sept. 4 at the First Methodist Church in Colton, San Bernardino County.
The bride wore a ballerina gown of mist pink fashioned princess style and a strapless bodice embroidered in rhinestones. Her accessories were pink and she pinned a corsage of white flowers to her waist.
A reception followed the nuptials in the California Hotel in San Bernardino.
The newlyweds spent their honeymoon along the California coast. For traveling the new Mrs. West donned a light blue linen ensemble. The couple will be at home in San Bernardino near March Air Force Base, where Mr. West is stationed.
The bride is a graduate of Fresno High School and attended Fresno State College. Mr. West is a graduate of Multnomah College in Portland.

Mrs. Bud Craig will be hostess for a shower tonight at her home on Edina Lane for the pleasure of Mrs. Joseph Hoffstadt. Fifteen relatives and friends have been invited to the party.
Eyre, of Portland... they will also enjoy some fishing in the Willows before returning... Guests of Miss Doratha Steusloff at her beach home at Pacific City this weekend will be her great niece and nephew, Ann Chambers and David Chambers... Mrs. Charles Woodring of Washington, D. C. and her niece, Dorothy Hobarth of Baltimore... Mrs. Woodring, who is Congressman Walter Norblad's secretary, will be here until December...
Return home... Mrs. Lewis Griffith is back from a fortnight's stay in Redmond with her daughter, Mrs. John Copenhaver... Mr. Copenhaver is currently in Washington, D. C... Dr. and Mrs. George S. Hoffman are home from a summer in Pendleton...
Weekend jottings... Attending the Pendleton Round-Up are David W. Eyre, his son, David W. Eyre Jr., and grandson, Larry

Notice to Club Publicity Chairmen

Publicity to appear on the Woman's Page of the Oregon Statesman must be mailed at brought into the office by noon preceding day of publication. Sunday stories must be in by Wednesday noon. Material should be typed whenever possible.
Any follow up stories on club meetings should be sent in as soon as possible following the meetings. Pictures of club projects worthy of publication should be arranged for with the society editor a week in advance.

Highlights Given Of Camp Retreat

Jason Lee Wesleyan Service Guild met Monday night in the Kirby Room of the church for the first meeting of the fall season. There were over thirty members and guests present. Miss Mary Keefer was in charge of the worship service and Mrs. Paul Silke the program, which included highlights of the Wesleyan Service Retreat at Camp McGruder this past summer. The reports were given by Mrs. Wayne Kuhl and Miss Bernice Singree.
Plans are being made for the program theme for the United Nations dinner which will be held October 22.
Guests present were Mrs. John Hasche and Mrs. Roy Beardsley. Mrs. Eugene Kitzmiller and Mrs. Marie Putnam poured during the refreshment hour.
Hostesses were Mrs. Dayle Jory, Mrs. J. N. Brinkley, Mrs. B. A. Shellhart and Mrs. Dona Andal.

SURGICAL SUPPORTS

Of all kinds. Trusses, Abdominal Supports, Elastic Hosiery—Expert Fitters—Private Fitting Rooms.
"Ask Your Doctor"
Capital Drug Store
405 State St.
Corner of Liberty
S and H Green Stamps

LADIES COATS

Botany, Juilliard, Hoffman and imported fabrics. Chinchillas, poodles, fleeces, tweeds and flannels. All sizes. Millium lined.
Beautiful New Fall and Winter Styles
100 TO CHOOSE FROM—NO TWO ALIKE
29⁷⁵ 39⁷⁵ 49⁷⁵
Open All Day Saturday
KAY WOOLEN MILL STORE
260 South 12th St. "The Street the Trains Run On"

QUICK AND OH, SO GOOD! AND EASY

Delicious New England style chowder with none of the work! Just add a pint of milk, a piece of butter, heat... and serve with pride! Enjoy some today.

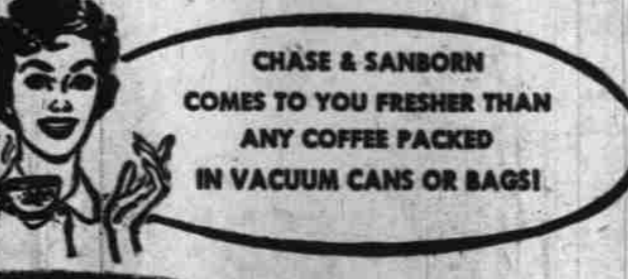

AT YOUR GROCER'S

SAVE 5¢ a pound on AMERICA'S FINEST COFFEE!

GET ACQUAINTED OFFER! Here's your money-saving opportunity to discover the one coffee that comes to you fresher than any other leading brand! You see, even a tiny difference in freshness makes a big difference in flavor! And "Pressure Packed" Chase & Sanborn brings you that extra freshness that makes such a big flavor difference in your cup.

Don't miss out! Save 5¢ a pound on America's finest coffee! Get Chase & Sanborn in these special cans now at your grocer's!

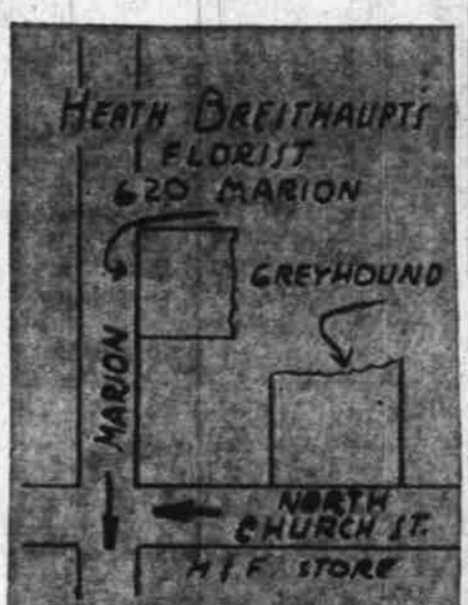

CHASE & SANBORN COMES TO YOU FRESHER THAN ANY COFFEE PACKED IN VACUUM CANS OR BAGS!

10¢ OFF 2-lb. can!

Heath-Breithaupt's Florists

OPEN HOUSE

Friday & Saturday 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.
Sunday 10 am. to 6 p.m.

We are sorry we wore the old building out—20 years in the same location—We now are settled in a nice new building with Beautiful Windows—More Room and EASY PARKING.

Free FLOWERS

For the Ladies
Surprise for the Kiddies
Accompanied by Parent

New Lines of POTTERY

Finest Flowers - Dewdrop Fresh
From Our Own Greenhouses—

Free ORCHID LEIS

Flown Especially for us
From Hawaii—
To Lucky Ladies
Listen for the Lucky Clock

Shop Our KASH AND KARRY POSEY MART

Seasonable Flowers At Economy Prices

Heath-Breithaupt's Florists

620 Marion
Business Hours 9 A.M. - 6 P.M. Except Sunday
Flowerline 3-9179