Girl, Feared River Victim, Found Hiding

PORTLAND A - Police and volunteers searched hours Monday night for a girl they feared had drowned in the Tualatin River. Then they found she had been hiding in a tree. The girl was Thomasine Biggs,

13. Sherwood, who had been swimming with her sister, Nadine, 14, and a neighbor, David Smith, 16. At dusk, she swam away and climbed into a tree house as# a trick on the other two. When she saw all the searchers and the other commotion, she was afraid to own up. But eventually she sneaked home. It was 2 a.m. before searchers found out she had arrived there safely. The police report said they understood the girl would be taking her meals in a standing position for some time.

Steelworkers' Boss Criticizes Parent Union

ATLANTIC CITY , N. J. UP- The United Steelworkers of America, already cool toward their parent CIO, Monday heard their president criticize present trade unionism and call for a major new approach. But President David J. McDonald stopped short of telling the biennial USW convention just how he stands on whether the giant union should get out of the CIO, as it has been reported the USW might do. He told the 3,000 delegates that he would discuss later in the week the Steelworkers' "relations in the
