* Classified ads will be run in both papers to give advertisers the advantage of the tremendous pulling power of 35,000 combined circulations.

When an ad is ordered three or more times and a Sunday issue is included (for example Friday Saturday Sunday) the lower Sunday rates apply because only the Statesman publishes Sundays.

Classified ads will start in the morning Oregon Statesman concludes in the evening Capital Journal. Both will be accepted for Sunday Statesman only.

The deadline for classified ads is 60 p.m. the day before publication. Emergency ads are small line ads received after 1:00 p.m. may be placed in the "Too Late To Classify" column for the following morning.

Ads for Monday papers must be in by 5 P.M. Saturday

The Statesman-Journal Newspaper reserves the right to reject questionable advertising. It further reserves the right to place all advertising under the proper classification.

The Statesman-Journal Newspaper assumes no financial responsibility for errors which may appear in advertisements published in its columns, and in cases where this paper is at fault will accept that part of an advertisement in which the typographical mistakes occur.

A "Blind" Ad—An ad containing a Statesman-Journal Newspaper box number for an address—is for the protection of the advertiser and must therefore be answered by letter. The Statesman-Journal Newspaper is not at liberty to divulge information as to the identity of an advertiser using a "Blind" ad.
