

Decorations A Feature of Smorgasbord

By LORRAINE HARMS
Decorations will be a feature at the YMCA-YWCA Smorgasbord to be held at the new YWCA building Thursday night. Dinner will be served continuously from 5:30 to 8 o'clock. The public is invited to attend this annual event, which benefits the world fellowship fund for the two organizations.

Posters from around the world will be displayed. One of the eye catching posters is of Africa, displaying war dance materials, a large woven drum, a shrunken head, a boomerang, gourds, swords and animal teeth.

Another clever poster by Prescott of Paris, shows sidewalk cafes, an art studio, and the Eiffel tower; the French flag is shown hanging from one of the buildings. Its humorous exaggeration is in contrast with another Paris poster by Rod Reider of cobblestone streets, shuttered windows and sidewalk cafes.

Yucatan is represented by an Indian woman in colorful garb and a distant pyramid.

Bermuda is pictured by Loweras in rocks, blue water and sandy beach.

Oriental life is drawn by Charles Baskesquille on a poster of oxen plowing flooded rice paddies.

The Christian Service Guild of the First Evangelical United Brethren Church will meet Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Earl Weathers. This will be the Thanksgiving service with Mrs. Don Senter as program chairman. Assisting will be Mrs. Royal Hayes and Mrs. E. L. Krause. There will be a round table discussion on "The Christian Home." Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Milton Miller, Mrs. Robert Wood and Miss Marie Mahood.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it really necessary to explain the reason for refusing an invitation?

A. Yes, unless you really want nothing further to do with the person extending the invitation. "I'm sorry, but I have another engagement" is usually good form.

Q. If tea is served and a guest does not care for it, would it be all right for this guest to ask for a cup of coffee?

A. Not unless the hostess asks if he or she would prefer coffee. Otherwise, drink the tea, or part of it, and express no preference.

Q. How long should one stay when making a call of condolence at a friend's home?

A. This call should be especially brief—not longer than about ten or fifteen minutes—unless, of course, the bereaved friend asks you to stay longer.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Phillips (Carol J. Graves), who were married Nov. 6 at the Christ Lutheran Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Graves and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Phillips. The couple will live in Alameda, Calif., where he is stationed with the U. S. Navy. (McEwan Studio).
