UCLA Routs Troy in Fourth

102,548 Witness Bruin Bid for Fame

By BOB MYERS
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The unbeaten Bruins of UCLA blasted Southern California out of the air Saturday, defeating the Trojans by a 34-0 score before 102,548 fans to win the Pacific Coast Conference championship for the second straight year.

Rounding out a perfect nine-game season before the largest football turnout in the nation this year, the Bruins fired one touchdown shot through the air that actually won the game in the first seven minutes.

It was a pass play for 48 yards from little halfback Primo Villanueva to end Bob Heydenfeldt.

Despite the loss, Southern California is due for the official selection to represent the PCC in the Rose Bowl against Ohio State, conquerors in the Big Ten conference.

The Trojans finished second in the PCC with a 6-1 conference record. UCLA is ineligible for the coming bowl game, having played there last Jan. 1.

Held scoreless the second and third quarters, UCLA buried the Trojans under a barrage of four touchdowns in the fourth to keep alive the Bruin bid for the mythical national collegiate championship.

The break, and the braking point for the underdog Trojans, came late in the third period.

The Trojans marched across the middle field for the first time on a pass interception by center Marvin Gux and then moved from the UCLA 44 to the Bruin eight, first down with a touchdown opportunity.

But a pass by quarterback Jim Contratto was grabbed up by UCLA halfback Jim Decker and away he went. He travelled 98 yards to cross the goal, but a clipping penalty against a teammate set the ball back on the USC 23.

The Bruins failed to cash in on this break, but the Trojans were dead.

Soon after, UCLA back Johnny Hermann stepped in to field another Contratto pass, raced 44 yards, and UCLA went on to pull in front 14-0.

The two middle quarters had been a desperate struggle between two great lines on a field where the temperature was reported 110 degrees at kickoff time. Slowly the giant Bruin line began to take its toll, but only after a tremendous fight by the Trojan forwards.

Bob Davenport, the Bruin's bread and butter fullback, crashed one yard for the second touchdown, and Villanueva fired a pass for 12 yards and six points to his blocking back.

Pioneers Win 8th in Row
PORTLAND (AP) — Lewis and Clark downed Eastern Washington College of Education 38-13 Saturday to extend its winning streak to eight games.

Halfback Jim Smith and end Jim Quick scored five of the six touchdowns for the Pioneers—co-champions of the Northwest Conference.

The Evergreen Conference team, winner only once this season, scored in the first half on a 94-yard kickoff return by John Ditz. Dale LaPierre added the final Eastern Washington touchdown in the last quarter on a 12-yard run. Minutes later quarterback Jimmy Johnson scored for Lewis and Clark.

It was the final game of the season for both teams.

49ers Crush Pitt Steelers
PITTSBURGH (AP) — San Francisco's 49ers, using Joe Perry and John Henry Johnson for a pair of battering rams and quarterback Y. A. Tittle for a slingshot, lambasted the Pittsburgh Steelers 31-3 Saturday night in a National Football League game.

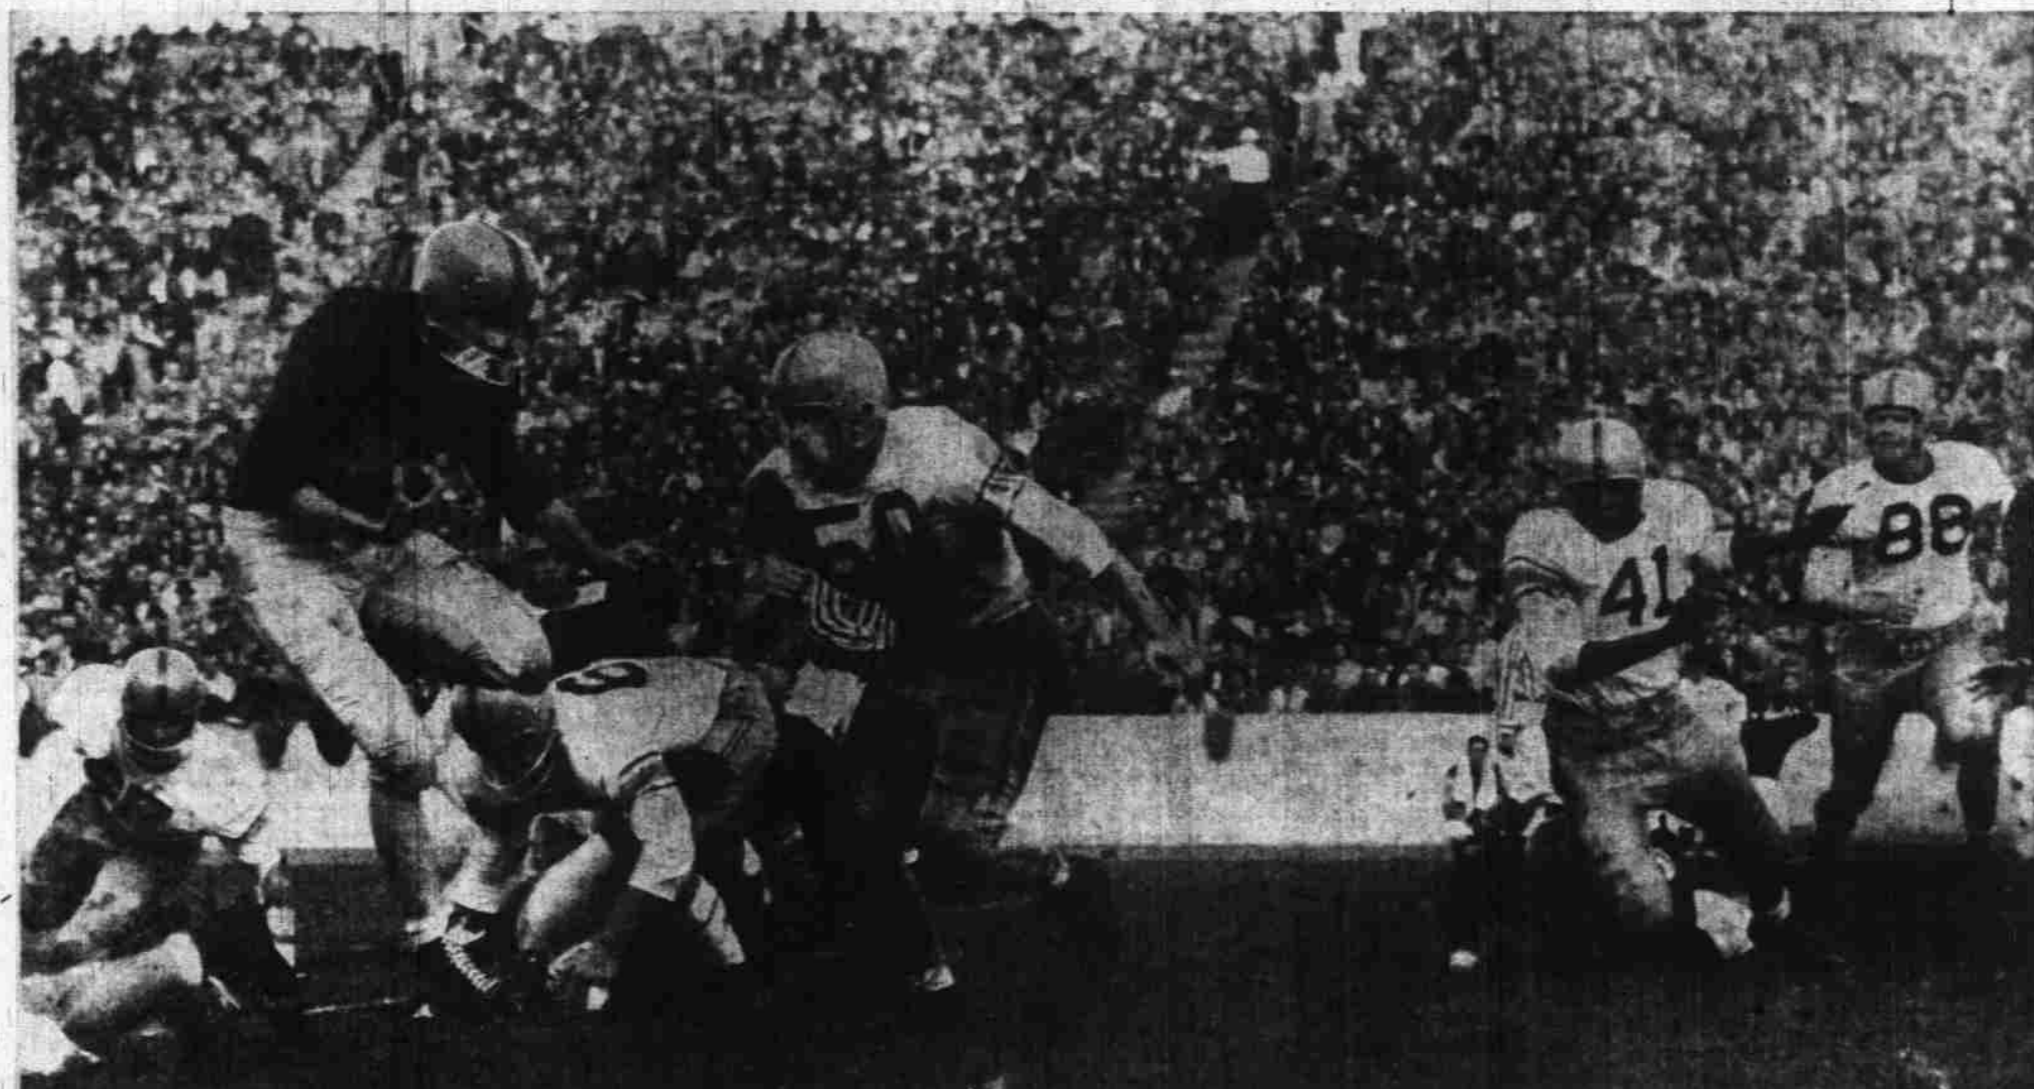

Tittle, nursing a broken left hand pitched two touchdowns to end Bill Jessup for 44 and 28 yards. Perry, the NFL leading ground gainer, plunged over from the 2, and Johnson scampered 24 yards for the other score.

Gordy Solatu kicked a 25-yard field goal and tacked on four conversions. Solatu missed a 35-yard field goal attempt in the second quarter.

The final 49ers tally in the fourth quarter—a 23-yard pass from Tittle to Jessup—climaxed a 69-yard drive. Perry raced 30 yards to the Steelers' 30 to set up the score.

WAKE FOREST FALLS
WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — Charlie Sumner returned to full-time duty at quarterback where he gained fame a year ago and passed William & Mary to a 13-9 football victory over Wake Forest Saturday in a see-saw battle that was in doubt right down to the last play.

Beaver Romps Six Yards in First Quarter TD Drive

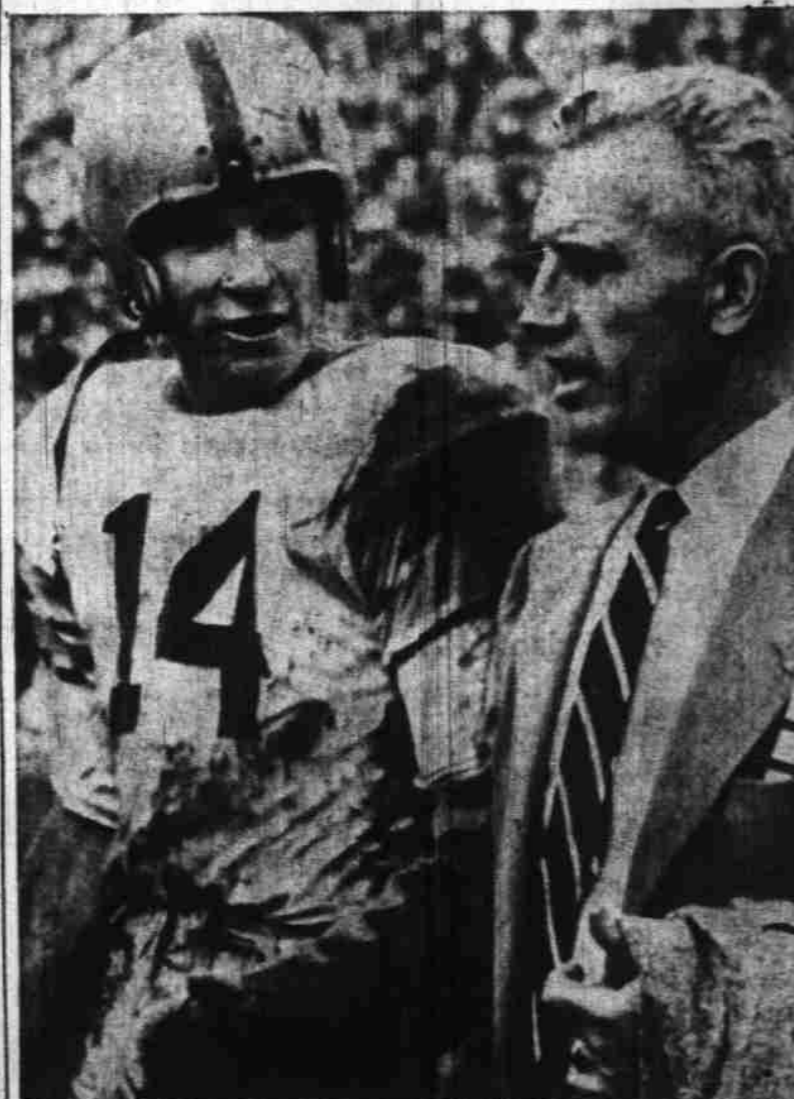

CORVALLIS—Dick Mason, Oregon State halfback, hurdles two Oregon tacklers for Fullback Jasper McGee (41) and End Hal Reeve (88). Persley KO Victim Of Bud Smith in 9th

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Wallace "Bud" Smith, a 9-5 underdog, knocked out Arthur Persley with a smashing right hand to the heart Saturday night in 1:18 of the ninth round in a battle between lightweight title contenders at the Bayfront Park Auditorium.

The sudden blow crumpled Persley, the No. 5 lightweight contender. Smith drove home a left to the jaw as Persley went down but it was obvious that the right hand punch had done the job.

Ohio State Trips Michigan

Buckeye Rally Wins, 21-7

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State won the Big Ten championship, a trip to the Rose Bowl and a hefty claim to the national football title Saturday in a come-back 21-7 win over the University of Michigan.

A crowd of 82,438, plus a national television audience saw the Bucks surge back in the final quarter after being stalled by a poised Wolverine eleven during most of the game.

The win—only the third in 12 seasons against the old rival Michigan—gave the stubborn Bucks their first unbeaten, untied season in ten years.

And Ohio became only the second Western Conference team in history to win seven straight games in the rugged league. Only Chicago's 1913 team had done it before.

The Bucks came from nowhere to climb back on the football throne. Held to only four first downs in the first three periods, Ohio came to life after holding Michigan on the six-inch line to take the ball just as the third session ended.

With the score deadlocked at 7-7, the Wolverines had a first down on Ohio's four, but four cracks at the line served only to turn the ball over to the Bucks, who promptly marched 99 yards, 2 feet and 6 inches in 12 plays, climaxed by Dave Leggett's 8-yard touchdown toss to end Dick Brubaker.

Late in the session, Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy, Ohio's outstanding star of the day, intercepted a pass and ran it back to his own 38, and 11 plays later he ended the 62-yard drive with a one-yard plunge for the final score. Little Tad Weed, 145-pound place-kicking specialist, booted all three placements for Ohio.

Michigan marched 88 yards in 12 plays at the start of the game for its only touchdown, an intricate back lateral play sending left halfback Dan Cline into the end zone for the score. Ron Kramer, Michigan's great sophomore end, who played a fine game on both offense and defense, booted the extra point.

The Wolverines, who piled up six first downs to Ohio's one in the opening period for their 7-0 lead, marched from their own 14 to Ohio's eight in the second session. Quarterback Lou Baldaacci tried two futile passes and a line play after which Kramer missed a field goal from the 14.

Ohio's first offensive gesture came just after that. Jack Gibbs, third string fullback who had played only 15 minutes this year, intercepted a pass by Michigan's Jim Maddock and raced it 45 yards to the Wolverine 11.

A penalty moved Ohio back to the 16, but Leggett passed to sophomore end Fred Kriess in the end zone for the touchdown which tied it just before halftime.

Cassidy, whose big effort was a 53-yard break over tackle in Ohio's second touchdown spurge, led the Buck ground gainers with 94 yards in 14 plays. Fullback Fred Baer paced Michigan with 75 yards in 13 tries.

WSC Thumps Huskies in Worst Defeat of Series History 26-7

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP)—Frank Sarno targeted Jim Hagerty on a 47-yard pass play to break a second quarter stalemate Saturday and from there the Cougars of Washington State chopped out a 26-7 Pacific Coast Conference football triumph over Washington.

It was the worst defeat every administered by the Staters in 47 meetings with their traditional cross-state enemy.

The burly line and bruising backs of the massive Cougars, who had swapped fumbles with the undermanned Huskies through a dull first quarter, cut loose in the third quarter with a 19-point scoring spurge.

Most of the yardage was chewed out on the ground, with fullback Duke Washington and halfback Jim Hagerty ripping the Washington line to ribbons.

With a minute and 10 seconds left in the game Washington averted a shutout, aided by a pass interference ruling. The decision came on a fourth-down gamble and gave the ball to the Huskies on the Cougar 6. On third down Bobby Cox pitched again, Corky Lewis gathering in the ball for the tally.

Sophomores and juniors carried most of the lead for the two teams, but the game was a farewell appearance for several standout players on both clubs.

The crowd of 17,500—well under the stadium capacity of 25,000—said goodbye to the Cougars' alternating fullbacks, Chuck Beckel and The Duke. Purnell also was winding up his college career, as was Tackle Ted Brose.

Glide Tips Culver For Six-Man Title
GLIDE, Ore. (AP)—Glide overpowered Culver here Saturday to win the high school football six-man title in Oregon, 39-14.

Wayne Ferguson and Gene Polley scored two touchdowns each and Dick Smith scored one and passed to another to lead the winners.

Bears Topple Tribe, 28-20

Late Stanford Rally Nearly Stops Cal

By RUSS NEWLAND
BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—California's favored Bears after rolling up a tremendous lead going into the third period, had to fight with everything they had to stave off an inspired Stanford team Saturday to win their 57th annual "big game" 28-20.

A capacity crowd of 81,490 saw the Bears hold a commanding lead of 28-0 just after the third period opened. Stanford, fighting for every inch, scored two touchdowns in that quarter and another in the final period.

The Indians were knocking for another touchdown later in the quarter, but a fourth-down pass was batted down in the end zone, and they lost the ball on California's 17.

California went into the game favored by 14 or more points. The Bears were lucky to squeeze through in the final minutes.

Paul Larson, California's great quarterback, scored one touchdown and passed to another, but he was bottled up and thrown for losses in the latter stages of the colorful contest by the rushing Stanford players.

The Bears scored three touchdowns in a wild second period that accounted for the victory.

Another California touchdown early in the third gave the Bears a commanding 28-0 lead. The first three California touchdowns came after two Stanford fumbles and a pass interception.

VANDERBILT WINS
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Vanderbilt combined an effective passing and running game Saturday to defeat Villanova in a wild-scoring football game 34-19 and end the longest losing streak in Commodore history.

Paul Shaw rallied his team in the second period, and the Staters could not score again until late in the fourth quarter, when an Oregon fumble gave them the ball on the Oregon 14. The touchdown came six plays later with halfback Dick Mason plunging over from a yard out.

Shaw lost four yards in four rushing plays, but completed five of 16 (Continued on next page)
