

Wolves Start Cage Campaign Coming Friday

OREGON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, Monmouth—(Special)—The OCE Wolves open their basketball season Friday night in a game at Seattle with the Seattle Pacific quint, an annual OCE cage foe. The clash will be played in Royal Brougham Pavilion in Seattle, starting at 8 p. m., and word has been received that the clash will be televised in the Puget Sound area over KTNT-TV, Tacoma.

Dr. Bob Livingston of the Wolf-pack has been getting his young squad into shape for the past couple of weeks. He has but two lettermen, but guards. They are Larry Chamberlain and Darrel Davis. Chamberlain is the team captain and comes from Salem, Davis is from Independence.

Probable starters for the Wolves in the Seattle game will be Chamberlain at one guard and 6-1 Ron Jones, from Marshfield, at the other. Jones is a freshman. Center will be Doug Zitek, 6-2 freshman from Redmond. The forwards will be 6-1 freshman Barry Adams of Oswego and 6-3 Dale Anderson, junior from Astoria.

Davis is the only senior on the OCE squad. Other varsity members include the following: Norm Hendrix, 6-1 freshman from Alsea; Les Birdsall, 6-1 freshman from Sweet Home; Harley Willis, 6-1 freshman from Harrisburg; Bob Knight, 6-3 freshman from Oswego; Fred Stanley, 5-11 soph from Forest Grove; Elton Gregory, 6-0 freshman from Mill City; Ron Pedersen, 5-11 freshman from Willamina; Wayne Young, 6-2 freshman from Marshfield; Bob Jones, 6-6 soph from Portland, and Pete Barnes, 6-1 freshman from Myrtle Creek.

The first home game for the Wolves will be with Pacific University December 2.

Bill McArthur is again Dr. Livingston's coaching assistant this season, and will handle the freshman team.

Shaw Best, Says Team

EUGENE (SP) — Quarterback George Shaw, the nation's leader in total offense, Tuesday night was selected by team members as the most valuable player on the University of Oregon football squad.

He became the 11th winner of the Hoffman award which is presented annually by Vern Hoffman, former Duck letterman and now a Eugene businessman.

Lon Stiner Jr., two-year letterman at tackle, was elected captain of the 1955 squad. He is the son of Lon Stiner, a former Oregon State football coach.

Shaw, who in his four years at Oregon smashed numerous passing and total offense records, will conclude his collegiate football career at San Francisco on New Year's Day when he appears in the East-West Shrine charity game.

Captain Ron Pleister and guard Jack Patera, both graduating seniors, also will play in the game. Other seniors honored at Tuesday's banquet included ends Hal Reeve, Dick Mobley, Leroy Campbell and Chuck Greenley; tackle Keith Tucker; and backs Lloyd Powell, Walt Gaffney, Don Holt and Dean Van Leuven.

Coch Len Casanova said of his departing team members: "It's going to be mighty strange for me to go out there next year and not find Shaw, Reeve, Pleister, Patera, Greenley and Holt reporting back for another season. They have been here ever since I have and we shall certainly miss them and other seniors when we start getting ready for the 1955 games."

Huskies Rate Hooper Best

SEATTLE (SP) — The University of Washington football squad chose Billy Hooper of Baylor over the West's two famous quarterbacks, George Shaw of Oregon and Paul Larson of California, in picking its 1954 all-opponent team Tuesday night.

UCLA, Coast Conference champion which survived a 21-20 scare against Washington, drew five places on the team. California and Southern California were given two berths each.

The team had Jim Hanifan of California and Ron Kramer of Michigan at the ends; Jack Ellena, UCLA, and Ed Fouch, Southern California, tackles; Sam Boghosian and Jim Salisbury, both UCLA, guards; and Matt Hazeltine, California, center.

The backs were Hooper, Primo Villanueva and Bob Davenport of UCLA and Aramis Dandy, USC. The squad named Stewart Crook of South Bend, Wash., as honorary captain for 1954 and voted the Flaherty inspirational award to Larry Rhodes of Longview.

EAGLES SIGN ROFFLER

PHILADELPHIA (SP) — The Philadelphia Eagles signed Thursday they signed Bud Roffler, former Washington State and Green Bay Packers halfback, to a contract. Roffler joined the club last week-end, according to General Manager Vince McNally.

Andrews Test Bout Tonight

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (SP) — Lanky, hard-punching Paul Andrews of Buffalo, N.Y., lapped a "sleeper" Year's Day when he appears in the East-West Shrine charity game.

Maxim is a 7-5 favorite in the 10-round match at the stadium which will be televised nationally at 7 p. m. PST.

Andrews, 24, who has flattened 19 opponents in winning 29 of 32 starts, currently is ranked third behind the No. 2 Maxim among contenders for Archie Moore's light heavyweight crown.

Marciano and his manager, Al Weill, are reported interested enough in Andrews' potentialities as a heavyweight menace to view Wednesday night's proceedings from ringside.

Whether the 32-year-old Maxim has faded enough to be just a trial horse will be determined against the up-and-coming Andrews. A masterful boxer with a weak punch, Maxim in his last start administered the only defeat yet suffered by Olympic champion Floyd Patterson.

Maxim, owning an experienced-steep record of 80-21-4, has fought the best—Ezzard Charles, five times; Jersey Joe Walcott, three times; Moore, three times and Sugar Ray Robinson in ending Sugar's quest for the 175-pound crown. Yet, the Cleveland dandy has been knocked out only once, by Curtis Sheppard in 1943.

Andrews will weigh about 177 and Maxim approximately 182.

Padres Sell Negro Rookie to Redlegs

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (SP) — The San Diego Pacific Coast League baseball club said Tuesday it has sold Mill Smith, Negro rookie who played both outfield and third base the past season, to Cincinnati for 1955 delivery.

Amount of cash involved was not disclosed. Cincinnati will deliver a player on option by April 5, 1955.

Smith hit .294 in 1954 and replaced the veteran former major league player Bob Elliott at third through much of the season.

Johnny Lattner Plans To Enlist in Army

PITTSBURGH (SP) — Halfback Johnny Lattner of the National Football League's Pittsburgh Steelers said Tuesday he plans to enlist in the Army in January. The former Notre Dame standout is a reserve in the ROTC. By enlisting, he would be lost to the Steelers for only one season.

Among Palms, Writer Picks Army to Win

By WILL GRIMSLEY

HONOLULU, Hawaii — What better place to pick the winner of the Army - Navy football game than on the beach on Waikiki, with a coconut for a crystal ball and strumming ukeleles for inspiration.

It's a brief stop here en route to the Australian Davis Cup wars where a year ago we picked Uncle Sam to win for a 6-1 mark and a 100 percentage.

Let's hope for better football luck: Army over Navy: This is the best service game in years with the two teams strong and evenly matched and the Eastern Championship riding on the outcome.

Army, with Pete Vann's passing and the dynamic running of Tommy Bell and Bob Kyasky, explodes faster and bigger than the midgets. But watch out for Navy's Coach Eddie Erdelatz — he usually kicks up a surprise for his old service enemy.

Notre Dame over Southern California: We go with the Irish on the theory that the Trojans were "up" for their traditional game with UCLA last week and won't be able to reach the same psychological level.

Oklahoma over Oklahoma A & M: The Sooners complete a perfect season.

Rice over Baylor: Dickie Moe's running should give the Owls a touchdown edge even though the strong, seasoned Bears are at home.

Georgia Tech over Georgia: Tech's sophomore backs have come of age.

Cornell over Pennsylvania: (Thursday): Billy DeGraaf, Dick Meade and Dick Jackson put a jolting period behind Penn's worst season in history.

Maryland over Missouri: (Thursday): The split-T pupil, Jim Tatum, teaches the teacher, Don Faurot, some tricks.

Southern Methodist over Texas Christian: Frank Eidom and Don McIlheny give the Mustangs needed punch in a close game.

Boston College over Holy Cross: The New England feature goes to the Eagles on a more diversified attack.

Others: Thursday Colgate over Brown, Texas over Texas A & M, Wichita over Tulsa, Virginia Tech over VMI, Denver over Colorado A & M, William & Mary over Richmond, Utah over Utah State.

Friday Nebraska over Hawaii.

Saturday EAST — Fordham over Villanova.

SOUTH — Auburn over Alabama, Clemson over The Citadel, Miami (Fla.) over Florida, Mississippi over Mississippi State, Duke over North Carolina, South Carolina over Wake Forest, Tennessee over Vanderbilt, LSU over Tulane, West Virginia over Virginia.

SOUTHWEST — Arkansas over Houston, Texas Tech over Hardin-Simmons.

FAR WEST — Wyoming over Arizona, San Jose State over New Mexico.

Vancouver Bids For PCL Club

VANCOUVER, B.C. (SP) — A city council subcommittee Tuesday recommended the expenditure of $60,000 to bring Capilano Stadium up to Pacific Coast Baseball League requirements providing local promoters make three guarantees.

Guarantees sought from promoters seeking to bring a PCL franchise to Vancouver are:

1. Advance annual ticket sales totalling $250,000 by March 1. 2. Payment to the city of five per cent of gate receipts and concessions for at least two years, after which the percentage would be reviewed.

3. Promoters take over the lease of the city-owned stadium presently held by a brewery and which the brewery is willing to give up.

The $60,000 expenditure would add 3,000 seats to the 7,000-seat stadium and (blacktop, the gravelled parking area.

Businessman Coleman E. Hall, chairman of a committee trying to bring PCL ball to Vancouver, told the city council Monday the two projects would be enough to attract the financially hardpressed Sacramento Solons to Vancouver.

However, it was disclosed in Sacramento later in the day that a majority of club directors had agreed to try to keep the Solons in Sacramento.

Max Boydston Chosen AP Lineman of Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Max Boydston, who has been playing a terrific game at end for Oklahoma all through an all-winning season, turned in a peak performance last Saturday against Nebraska, crowded the backs out of the headlines and earned the designation as Associated Press Lineman of the Week.

On the basis of 10 points for first, nine for second and on down, Ohio State rolled up 2,259 points, just 97 more than for UCLA, champions of the Pacific Coast Conference. UCLA received 85 first place votes and 2,162 points.

A week ago Coach Woodrow Hayes' Bucks topped the Uclans by the slim margin of only 7 points.

A third major undefeated and untied team, Oklahoma, drew the No. 3 spot with 31 first place ballots and 1,932 points.

After Oklahoma came Notre Dame, Army, Navy, Mississippi, Wisconsin, Baylor and Maryland to round out the top ten.

Although Ohio State is headed for the Jan. 1 Rose Bowl, the Buckeyes and UCLA's Bruins must stand on their records for each has finished its regular season. So has Wisconsin, the No. 8 team. UCLA is ineligible for the Rose Bowl, having played there last New Year's Day.

The only other Ohio State team to be voted No. 1 at season end was the Buckeyes of 1942, during the dynasty of Paul Brown, who moved on to establish the mighty Cleveland Browns of professional football.

But the 1942 Ohio State team boasted only a 9-1 record, losing a 17-7 verdict to Wisconsin. The 1954 edition is only the second team in Big Ten history to win seven conference games, and its 9-0 record also shows victories over California and Pittsburgh.

In 1944 Ohio State was voted No. 2 behind Army. The last time the Buckeyes were even listed among the final top ten was a No. 6 rating in 1949.

The leading teams with first place votes and won-lost records in parentheses (points on a 10-9-8-7, etc basis):

1. Ohio State (115) (9-0) 2,259
2. UCLA (85) (9-0) 2,162
3. Oklahoma (31) (9-0) 1,933
4. Notre Dame (4) (7-1) 1,569
5. Army (7-1) 1,296
6. Navy (2) (6-2) 874
7. Mississippi (6) (8-1) 873
8. Wisconsin (7-2) 872
9. Baylor (7-2) 317
10. Maryland (6-2-1) 312

The Second Ten

11. Miami (Fla.) (2) (7-1) 310
12. West Virginia (3) (7-1) 238
13. Arkansas (2) (7-2) 196
14. Michigan (6-3) 173
15. Auburn (6-3) 142
16. Virginia Tech (7-0-1) 109
17. Southern California (8-2) 94
18. Kentucky (7-3) 55
19. Penn State (7-1) 38
20. (Tie) Duke (6-2-1) 35
and Minnesota (7-2) 35

Pastrano, weighing 166 — heaviest of his young career — crowded Dykes from the start, connecting with short left jabs and hooks to the head followed frequently by long rights.

Pastrano started off fast and took the early rounds but was slowed down midway in the fight after absorbing crushing left blows to the body from Dykes, who weighed 161½.

Pastrano came back strong in the late stages. Dykes was a 9 to 5 favorite at fight time.

Bruins Keep Second Place

This week's semifinal poll showed Ohio State the No. 1 team on the ballots of 115 of the 250 sports writers and broadcasters participating.

Grid Honors Go To Shaw, Larson

Bruins Rated All-Around Top Team

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Final Pacific Coast Conference statistics Tuesday prove what coach Red Sanders has said all season—UCLA's success is based on teamwork.

Individual honors went to Oregon's George Shaw, the nation's leader in total offense, and California's Paul Larson, who set a new national pass accuracy mark with 64.1 per cent completion.

But in most departments the champion Bruins, undefeated and untied, have solid representation. For example, in rushing the first four places go to backs from four other schools but positions five, six and seven all go to the three players comprising UCLA's first offensive unit.

And in scoring, which of course is the final decider of any game, Bruin fullback Bob Davenport shared the lead with Dick James of Oregon at 66 points.

Bill Farr of Stanford led in rushing with 729 yards in 154 carries. He was followed by Jerry Drew, California, 715 in 77; Duke Washington, Washington State, 616 in 105; and Wilbur Gary, Idaho, 579 in 86. Then came the UCLA offensive unit — Jim Decker, wingback, 506 in 47 for a 10.8 average, Primo Villanueva, tailback, 486 in 87, and Davenport, 470 in 105.

Villanueva ranked third behind Shaw and Larson in total offense. The Oregon quarterback has a leading 1,536 and California's Larson had 1,465. Then comes Primo with 886. While Shaw and Larson collected most of their yardage through the air, Villanueva had more than half of his on the ground.

Larson is the top passer with 125 completions in 195 throws, a .641 average, 1,339 yards and 10 touchdowns. Shaw is next with 91 completions in 186 throws, 1,858 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Third in scoring is Jon Arnett of Southern California with 55, one more than collected by Villanueva. Jim Hanifan, California end, posted the second-highest total in conference history to win the pass receiving title. His 44 receptions, mostly on Larson throws, were good for 569 yards and seven touchdowns. Ed Barker of Washington State set the record of 46 in 1951.

A three-way tie for pass interceptions, at five each, came between Bob Iverson, Washington State; Wilbur Gary, Idaho; and Bob Cox of Washington.

Jim Withrow of Oregon State, was leading punter with a 40.5 average followed by UCLA's Bob Heydenfeldt at 39.3. Sam Brown of the Bruins led in punt returns with 263 yards in 11 carries, and Larson had the best kickoff return mark with 281 yards on eight returns.

So there is a good possibility the option will be torn up and a new contract written with a pay boost just in case another school might try to lure Sanders away.

And as a precautionary measure, alumni and undergraduate groups were reported to have launched a "Keep Red Sanders" movement.

Sanders said he hasn't given much thought to the contract situation. "After all, we just finished our season last Saturday," he said.

Roy Campanella of the Brooklyn Dodgers hit 19 home runs in 1954. This was the first time since 1948 that he failed to hit at least 20.

SHERIDAN (Special) — With eight lettermen on his 11-man squad, Coach Ray Pointer at Sheridan High is anticipating a good season in Yawama League basketball play. There is no appreciable height on the entire squad, however, which could prove quite a handicap to the Spartans.

Lettermen are 5-10 Larry Green, 5-9 Bob Beller, 5-8 Noah Berkey, 5-8 Weldon Wood, 5-11 Chuck Clark, 5-9 Bill Mullanix, 5-9 Jack Eden and 5-8 George Paen. Other squad members are 6-1 Ken Spielman, 5-10 Kelton Nickerson and 5-9 Richard Sparks.

Sheridan opens play December 1 at Taft. Following a December 3 game at Cascade, the Spartans play Cascade here December 4 in the home opener. John Blaser is Pointer's assistant coach.

Two new records were set on opening day at Delaware Park race track this season. The crowd of 19,317 was the largest opening day affair and the $1,005,198 wagered through the mutual machines topped all previous first day betting records.
