(Continued from preceding page) who turned out to be South Salem's biggest ground-gainer. Three rushing plays pushed the ball for six more yards, a Juran pass fell incomplete and Marshfield took over on downs on the 13, with the fourth quarter just starting. Baker gained three yards and then Fraser pitched out to Johnson but the ball sailed over his head and into the end zone. A mad scramble for the free ball followed, mostly between Saxon Larry Newsome and Pirate Johnny. The ball squirted out to the four yard line and Newsome dove on it to recover for the South Salem.

It took all four downs to do it but the Saxons went those final four against a stubborn Marshfield line, with Maps taking it around end to score, aided by key blocks thrown by Jerry Walling and Ed Keech. This time Juran's kick was good and the Saxons led, 13-6, with 8:45 to go in the game.

Marshfield, however, showed they were far from through when they took the following kickoff and returned it to their 40.

Johnson, the Marshfield flash who has averaged 7.8 yards a carry this season, suddenly rammed right tackle and scampered 53 yards to the Salem seven before he was stopped. He would have gone all the way but Halfback Bill McDonald finally caught him from behind.

Two rushing plays netted only one yard and Fraser attempted a pass to Frank Yeiter that fell incomplete but was ruled as pass interference against the Saxons, moving the ball to the one for an automatic first down. After two bucks at the line, Baker hit the line for the touchdown. Fraser's conversion kick knotted the game up at 13-13, the final score of the game.

Salem got their hands on the ball after the kickoff and managed to thrust once into Marshfield territory. A Juran screen pass to Scheidel gained 10 to the Pirate 36. Scheidel carried on the next play but fumbled and Jack Forbus recovered for Marshfield, with 50 seconds remaining.

Two incomplete passes by Fraser and a six-yard gain by the quarterback ran out the remaining seconds.

A heavy rain poured in the first half and made the field slick for the rest of the game, possibly accounting for the two teams only trying 14 passes between them.

Outstanding for Marshfield on defense were Creasey and Don Brandon in the line. For South Salem it was Newsome, McDonald and Bob Beals.

Big groundgainers for Marshfield were Johnson with 95 yards in 21 tries and Baker, 86 in 12 tries. The Saxon Maps gained 75 yards in 11 tries and Anderson got 63 in 9 tries, to lead both teams.

Marshfield fumbled seven times, losing it twice, and South Salem fumbled twice, losing it once.

HAPHAZARD QUACKING WITH A DUCK CALL WILL DRIVE ALL DUCKS AWAY FROM YOU. IT IS BEST NOT TO USE THE CALL IF YOU DON'T KNOW HOW. EVEN DIFFERENT SPECIES OF DUCKS MAKE DIFFERENT SOUNDS.

ONE OF THE BEST METHODS OF LEARNING "DUCK-TALK" IS PRACTICING WITH A PHONOGRAPH RECORD, DONE BY AN EXPERT, TO TEACH YOU.

Irish Rated Over Trojans

Southern California's hopes for an upset are based on speed and squad depth. But such Trojan gallopers as Aramis Dandoy, Lindon Crow and an Arnett can show any more speed than Iowa's Earl Smith and Eddie Vincent who were well shackled by the Irish.

Despite a lack of reserve Notre Dame has proved hard to wear down. Only 14 players excluding three who appeared less than 30 seconds saw action in Notre Dame's 20-19 shading of Michigan State. Only 13 playing for the Irish until they had lows down 28-6.

Notre Dame has 10 players who have averaged between 40 and 45 minutes play per game for eight contests. They are headed by end Paul Matz with 340 minutes, tackle Frank Varrichione with 339, and quarterback Ralph Guglielmi with 336.

Guglielmi, one of 15 Irish seniors in their final home game, is well remembered by Southern California. In fact, the Trojans in 1951 launched Guglielmi to fame. As a skinny, inexperienced freshman, Guglielmi came in against USC with Notre Dame trailing 6-0 and directed the Irish on touchdown drives of 76, 73 and 63 yards for a 19-12 victory.

Davis Earns Title Chance
NEW YORK (AP) — Hartford's Teddy (Red Top) Davis earned a title shot at featherweight champion Sandy Saddler Friday night by cleverly outboxing Friday night Percy Bassett of Philadelphia in a 12-round elimination bout between the world's leading contenders.

Each weighed 126 pounds, the featherweight limit. Loser of two of three previous decisions to Bassett, the 31-year-old Connecticut veteran avoided the count with his 24-year-old rival by scoring a cleancut, unanimous decision in a nationally telecast bout from Madison Square Garden.

The losing contender ever to reach a challenger's ranking this record now is 58-47-2 (the poker-faced Davis gave the harder punching Bassett a boxing lesson he'll never forget).

It was all Davis except for the fourth, fifth, sixth, and 11th rounds when Percy's left hooks and swinging rights to head and body slowed Teddy down.

There was no knockdowns, but it was a brisk fight throughout. Bassett's left eye was half closed at the finish as the result of the steady tattoo Red Top beat on the orb with his ever flashing left jab.

from the Craycroft's five. Ed Logan with a 216 and a 597 series was high man for the beverage team. Wes Delapp with a 468 series was hot for the losers.

Wolgamott's Automotive won two out of three from the Pink Elephant squad. Larry Kyle with a 507 series and a 203 game was high for the losers and Ted Rutherford with a 527 series was high man for the winners.

Santiam Hardware won two out of three from the Jonesway grocers despite the efforts of Vern Beal who rolled a 211 game and a 567 series for the losers. C. Hendrich was high man for the winners with a nice 493 series.

Baltimore Club Calls It Quits Over Finances

NEW YORK (AP) — The Baltimore Bullets Friday night obtained permission from the National Basketball Association to suspend operations for the remainder of the 1954-55 season because of financial difficulties.

Under the arrangement, decided at a league meeting Friday, members of the Bullets' roster were distributed among the other eight clubs of the NBA with the Milwaukee Hawks, the club with the poorest record this season now that Baltimore has stepped out, picking up rookie Frank Selvy, currently the league's individual scoring leader.

Usual player-draft rules were employed in disposing of the Bullets' personnel, with the lower ranked clubs getting first pick.

Bob Houbregs, former University of Washington ace, went to the Boston club.

In their Thursday night game, the Bullets were defeated by Fort Wayne which rallied after an up and down battle to take its 16th straight victory over the Bullets in three seasons, 92-89, despite a 30-point performance by the sensational Houbregs.

Houbregs racked in 10 baskets and 10 free throws in an amazingly accurate shooting demonstration that almost balanced the Piston defense strategy of bottling up high-scoring Frank Selvy.

Dancer Voted Horse of Year
NEW YORK (AP) — Native Dancer, Alfred Vanderbilt's Grey Ghost of Sagamore who was retired in August because of a foot injury, was voted Horse of the Year Friday in the 19th annual poll of Triangle Publications racing experts.

The 4-year-old Daner received 19 of the 38 ballots cast by the Morning Telegraph and Daily Racing Form experts. His closest competition came from the King Ranch's High Gun, with 11 votes.

Andy Crevelin's Determine got 2 votes, William G. Heils Jr.'s Heliscope, 1.

High Gun, owned by Robert J. Kleberg of Texas, was the overwhelming choice as 3-year-old champion with 28 votes. Kentucky Derby winner Determine had 4, and Pimlico Special winner Heliscope had 1.

The 2-year-old championship went to the Belair Stud's Nashua by a 29-4 bulge over Mrs. Russell A. Firestone's Summer Tan.

Hunting Tolls 43 Accidents
PORTLAND (AP) — The State Game Commission reported Friday that Oregon has had 43 hunting accidents in 1954.

There had been two deaths and three wounded, before the main hunting season opened.

Ten hunters were wounded Oct. 23, the day the pheasant season started. That was the peak of the season for careless spraying of shot.

During the deer season seven hunters were killed.

All big game hunting now is ended except for three controlled seasons for elk and one for deer. But waterfowl seasons extend into 1955, and the commission warned that past records show a rareless firing by waterfowl hunters.

Shuffle Teams Maintain Lead
The Pink Elephant and Triangle teams held their leads in the Salem shuffleboard leagues as a result of mid-week action in the tournaments. Pink Elephant holds a 45-wins mark for first place while Walt's of Silverton trails in second with 38. Following Triangle's 57 win record is Maude and Andy's with 39.

Fourth and fifth place in the Tuesday night league is now in a two-way tie. The complete standings:

Tuesday night league:
1. Pink Elephant, 45
2. Walt's, 38
3. Orey's, 35
4. Lana and Lone Oak (tie), 33
5. 20-20 and Goldie's (tie), 27
6. Pioneer (Gervais), 26
7. Fairgrounds, 25
8. Karr's, 20
Wednesday night league:
1. Triangle, 47
2. Maud and Andy's, 39
3. Burrough's, 38
4. Ray and Wilma's, 35
5. Marv's, 34
6. South Village, 32
7. The Hub, 22
8. Stone Front, 21
9. Busy Corner, 19
10. Dick's (Turner), 12.

Traditional Games, Too... Six Bowl Bids Await Saturday Grid Results

By RIP WATSON
The Associated Press
* Six invitations to Jan. 1's rich bowl games will be up for grabs Saturday as college football bows out with a small but select list of traditional games.

The bowl bid atmosphere even extends to the highlights of the day, the Army-Navy clash at Philadelphia before a sellout crowd of 105,000, plus uncounted watchers on the nation's TV sets and listeners on the overseas broadcasts.

But Sugar Bowl officials are quite frank to say Mississippi will be one of their teams Jan. 1 — if the Rebels can wrap up the South-eastern conference title by whipping troublesome Mississippi State.

Mississippi, ranked seventh this week in the semi-final Associated Press rankings, was knocked out of the bowls last year when State gained a 7-7 tie. The Rebs' only loss was to Arkansas.

Baylor, No. 9 team in the country, will have two goals in its battle with Rice: A tie with Arkansas as Southwest Conference champion and a Sugar Bowl berth.

A Baylor victory would give the Bears a 5-1 conference mark equal to Arkansas' record, but Arkansas gets the Cotton Bowl assignment because of an early season 21-20 squeaker over Baylor.

Arkansas, knocked down to the No. 13 spot after successive losses to Southern Methodist and Louisiana State, will try to climb back into the top ten at Houston's expense.

Arkansas' opponent on Jan. 1 could well be Georgia Tech, a veteran bowl team which closes its season against Georgia, an old bitter rival.

If Mississippi should lose out in the Sugar Bowl scramble, however, Georgia Tech would be a prime candidate to succeed the Rebels, and Mississippi might wind up in the Cotton Bowl.

Other possibilities are West Virginia, No. 12, which closes out against Virginia still trying to live down its flop in last year's Sugar Bowl; Auburn, No. 15, which meets Alabama, and Kentucky, No. 18, which concluded its season last week with five straight victories after a slow start.

Duke hopes to clinch a spot in the Orange Bowl opposite Nebraska by trouncing old rival North Carolina. The Blue Devils have a 3-0 mark in the Atlantic Conference compared to Maryland's 4-0-1. A committee picks the bowl representative.

Maryland's tremendous exhibition of power, speed and finesse in a 74-13 humbling of Missouri before a nationwide TV audience Thursday kept the Terapins, No. 10 team, in the running for the Orange Bowl.

The Gator Bowl also has two berths open, with West Virginia, Auburn, Kentucky, possibly Penn State and whoever doesn't go to the Sugar or Cotton Bowls available for the spots.

Wichita, which won its first Missouri Valley conference title Thursday, and Denver, the new Skyline titlist, also are in the market.

The Rose Bowl, of course, is all set with Ohio State, the nation's top-ranked team, against twice-beaten Southern California. Fourth ranked Notre Dame, which has beaten USC at South Bend every time since 1939, is expected to do it again Saturday and further tarnish the Trojans' record.

Ohio State and UCLA, the No. 2 team, have finished their regular schedules undefeated. Oklahoma, No. 3, is expected to join them by walloping Oklahoma A&M for the Sooners' 19th straight victory over a two-year span.

Sam (Rifle) Etcheverry Voted Canada's Best Pro Ball Player

TORONTO (AP) — Sam (The Rifle) Etcheverry, a player no U. S. pro football team wanted, was acclaimed the best in Canada Friday on the eve of his Montreal club's battle with Edmonton in the Grey Cup, Canada's football classic.

Etcheverry, a handsome, 24-year-old quarterback from Albuquerque, N. M., out of the University of Denver, was chosen tops in a poll of Canadian sports writers and sportscares.

For the honor he collected $1,000 in cash, a billfold to carry it in, a diamond tie pin, a permanent plaque and temporary possession of a 3-foot high trophy.

Top Democrats Off for Session

PORTLAND (AP) — Three Oregon Democrats left Friday for New Orleans by way of Washington to attend the Dec. 3-4 meeting of the Democratic National Committee.

They are Howard Morgan, Monmouth, state chairman; Peg Clarke, Portland, secretary of the party; and Mrs. Edith Green, congresswoman-elect from Multnomah County.

Monroe Sweetland, state senator-elect and Democratic national committeeman, and Mrs. Lillian Burton, national committeewoman, also are to attend the New Orleans meeting.
