

Salem Driver Found Guilty By Trial Jury

A man whose car, according to police side-swiped an auto in which a woman later was killed, was found guilty by a trial jury Monday of failing to remain at the scene of an accident.

The man, James A. Robinson, 50, of 3510 Williams Ave., will be sentenced Wednesday. He is accused of being involved in an accident on Dec. 6 with Mrs. Catherine Bielemeier, who later died when her car went out of control on Silverton Road and crashed into a house.

The trial was held in Marion County District Court. Robinson had pleaded innocent to the charge.

SPEDY EVACUATION CHICAGO (INS)—A transportation expert says plans for speedy evacuation must be ready in event of an atomic attack.

E. Grosvenor Flowman, president of the National Defense Transportation Association, told the Chicago Traffic Club: "Orderly evacuation promises survival and this would permit removal as quickly as possible of a damaged city and its industries."

Crash Near Bend Kills 1

BEND — An automobile crashed into the rear of a truck, throwing Mrs. Mildred Beckes, 35, Chemult, to her death on Highway 20, seven miles south of here Sunday night.

State police said the car, driven by George Thomas Epperson, crashed into the truck on a curve at Lava Butte. Epperson and Lloyd C. Hauptman, both of Chemult, were brought to a hospital here. Epperson was in critical condition Monday. Hauptman was believed out of danger.

The truck driver, Roger C. Anderson, Prineville, and two passengers were not injured.
