

Dances Hold Limelight During Holidays . . .

Women's Section
SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

Off to the YWCA Holiday Ball Monday night will be the Lynn Hammerstad family pictured above at the left in the sleigh. Seated in back are Lynn Hammerstad, Mrs. Hammerstad and Dr. Hammerstad. In front, left to right, are Judy Larson, Chuck Hammerstad, Judy Templeton and John Hammerstad. "Winter Wonderland" is the theme of the ball, which will be attended by family groups as well as couples of all ages and friends of the YWCA. The ball promises to be one of the outstanding events of the Christmas season. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

A gala event for the teen-age contingent New Year's Eve will be the Rainbow Girls formal dance at the YWCA. Above are two couples planning to attend the affair. Left to right are Karlene Quistad and Skip Saunders, Karen Covert and Ron Porter. The girls are serving on committees for the dance. A round of parties are being arranged to precede and follow the formal affair. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

Bringing in the tree and greens to decorate for the YWCA Holiday Ball Monday night are, left to right, Nancy Atherton, Mrs. Morris Bergman, Mr. Bergman, Margo Hudkins and Gary Gregor. The Bergmans are president of the Couples Club at the YW and the teen-agers are active members of committees for the first annual holiday ball. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

Members of the directorate for the Junior Catholic Daughters of America formal holiday dance Monday night at the Knights of Columbus hall are pictured at the left. Standing left to right are Helen Rupp, Carolyn Cramer, general chairma, Carol Taggart, and Joan Collieran. Seated are Evelyn Drummond and Dolores MacMahon. "Midnight Christmas" is the theme of the dance and numerous parties are being arranged to precede the affair. (Artz Studio).

The Rainbow Girls New Year's Eve formal will be one of the social highlights for the young set during the holidays. Four of the committee members, above, pictured arriving at the YWCA, where the dance will be held. Left to right are Sally Merrill, Donna Haugen, Sue Wilson and Carol Williams. The decor will feature the theme, "Midnight Silhouettes." The formal is being sponsored by Chadwick and Cherry Assemblies. (Kennell-Ellis Studio).

