Miss Patricia Gordon Reveals Betrothal to John Humphrey

Romantic news revealed at a holiday party Wednesday night was the betrothal of pretty, blonde Patricia Anne Gordon, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Gordon, to John Scott Humphrey, young-est son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Humphrey. Sixty of the college and young married contingent were bidden to the party given by the bride-elect at the Candalaria Heights home of her parents on Skopil

Guests learned of the engagement on entering the living room. Miss Shirley A large hand painted sign depicting a bride and groom with their arms looped through an engagement ring was spotlighted in varied colors in the picture window. Guests were invited to a "talkathon" and during the evening a dessert supper was served. A silver centerpiece with penk nosepink tapers.

For her announcement party the bride-to-be wore a mist blue faille tea frock.

Miss Gordon and her fiance are graduates of Salem High School and are freshmen at the University of Oregon. The bride-elect is a pledge of Kappa Alpha Theta and Mr. Humphrey is a Beta Theta Pi pledge. No plans have been THE PARTY WHIRL . . .
