

Janis, Pianist In Concert Here Friday

Byron Janis

Byron Janis, young American pianist will appear at North Salem High School auditorium as second in the Salem Community Concert association attractions on Friday, January 14.

Young Janis, born in Pittsburgh, made his debut at Carnegie Hall in his home town when but nine years old. He was thereupon embarked on a musical career in earnest.

At the age of 15 Byron Janis appeared as soloist with the NBC Symphony under Dr. Frank Black, and did a series of nationwide broadcasts on the network. Since then he has appeared with many great orchestras including those of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Minneapolis and others.

Janis toured South America in 1948 and in Europe several times. He is married to the former June Dickson Wright of London, daughter of a well known London surgeon.

The program will include the works of Haydn, Schumann, Beethoven, Prokofiev and Chopin.

Orchestra to Be Heard in Concert Here

The concert being given at North Salem High School on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock by the Portland Symphony Orchestra is the only symphony concert listed for Salem this season. Highlight of the performance is the presence of Igor Stravinsky, Russian-born composer, who directs the orchestra in a program made up entirely of his own works.

One of the greatest composers of the 20th century, Stravinsky was once a pupil of Rimsky-Korsakoff. Probably his best-known composition is the Fire Bird Suite, which he includes in the Tuesday program. Also listed for playing are other favorites Petroushka and Le sacre du Printemps.
