Eldon Shafer Married in California

Of interest to the groom's many Salem friends is the wedding of Miss Patricia Joan Bowen, daughter of Mrs. J. Annetta Bowen of Long Beach, Calif., to Eldon Vern Shafer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Vern Shafer of Salem. The ceremony took place on Dec. 28 at the Belmont Heights Methodist Church in Long Beach. Dr. Charles Mayes officiated at the 8 o'clock rites.

For her wedding the bride chose a white lace and net floor length gown with illusion veil caught to a crown of net. She carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and lily-of-the-valley. Andrew L. Fletcher gave his niece in marriage.

Miss Sonja A. Shaffo was the maid of honor and Miss Diane L. McKinney was the bridesmaid. They wore red velvet ankle frocks and carried white roses and carnations.

John Wade served as best man and ushers were Thomas J. Smith and Gerald Week.

Mrs. Bowen wore a beige lace gown with white carnation corsage for her daughter's wedding and the groom's mother chose a black net gown with pink carnation corsage.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Ralph Wade of Halsey, Oregon, sister of the bridegroom, cut the cake.

After a wedding trip to Laguna Beach the couple returned to Eugene to reside, where Mr. Shafer is attending the University of Oregon. For traveling the bride donned a toast colored suit with dark brown accessories.

Beta Omicron chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will be entertained Tuesday night at the Kingwood Heights home of Mrs. Glenn McCormick, 549 Kingwood Drive, at 8 o'clock.

The topic will be given by Mrs. Al Prop and the Bible study by the Rev. T. M. Gebhard. This month the department emphasis will be on Christian Service of which Mrs. Otto Zistel is chairman. Mrs. Elsa Frey and Miss Minnie Housinger will be the hostesses. Refreshments will be served preceding the meeting and program. All interested women and non-church members are invited to attend.

The Salem Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will hold its monthly meeting Monday morning at the hospital at 10 a.m. Final reports on the membership drive will be given according to the president, Mrs. C. Ronald Hudkins.

Doran-Stair Rites Read

The Christian Church at Turner was the setting for the marriage of Miss Camilla Rosalie Stair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart L. Stair of Salem, and Glen Vernon Doran, son of Mrs. Thomas Doran of West Stayton, on Dec. 31.

The Rev. Gilbert E. Knox read the rites at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Patricia Ahrens played the wedding music. Lighting the candles were Miss Lillian Bales and Miss LaVonne Thompson.

Of white slipper satin was the bridal gown fashioned with lace panels on the skirt and train and a lace bodice with a net yoke. A crown of rhinestones and seed pearls held in place her illusion veil. She carried a cascade of white carnations.

Miss Nancy Manning was the honor maid and Miss Hazel Large and Miss Dorothy Smith were the bridesmaids. They wore white ballerina frocks with net stoles and carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Jack Doran was best man for his brother. Ushers were A 3/c Leon Stair, the bride's brother, and Dean Doran, the groom's brother.

The bride's mother wore a red suit with white carnation corsage and Mrs. Doran chose an aqua suit with corsage of white carnations.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. J. B. Sevey Jr. and Miss Ruth Holmquist poured. Miss Marilyn Billetter cut the cake and assisting were Mrs. Sherman Walls and Mrs. Jack Doran.

The newlyweds will make their home in Turner.

Book Review Group

The Book Review group of the Women's Guild of the First Congregational Church will meet Wednesday at 3 o'clock in the church parlor. Miss Eleanor Stephens, state librarian, will review "The Fabulous Opal Whitley," by Elbert Bebe, well known Oregon newspaperman. The book has had much local interest and Miss Stephens will show original letters of Miss Whitley and newspaper clippings that document the book. Miss Elizabeth Rossum is chairman of the group. All interested persons are invited to attend this book group, which meets monthly.

The Pi Beta Phi Mother's Club will meet for a 1:30 no-host luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the State Street chapter house. Heading the directorate for the affair are Mrs. B. F. Schmoker and Mrs. Solor Shinkle.
