Valley Briefs

Keizer—Health will be the main topic of the program for the Keizer-Cummings PTA meeting Thursday, Jan. 13th at 8 p.m. at Keizer school. A highly rated film will be shown, and speakers will be Mrs. Edith Haulman, school nurse and Miss Blanche Storer, psychiatric social worker, both from the Marion County Health office.

Keizer—All Keizer residents are urged to save their newspapers during the week of Jan. 10 through 14, for benefit of the student council of Keizer and Cummings schools. They ask that papers be bundled and tied securely and brought to the schools. Money derived from the sale of the paper will be used for school items not in the budget, such as visual aid screens.

Liberty—The Liberty Mothers and Dads club will meet Wednesday, Jan. 12, at 8 p.m. at the Liberty school. Plans will be made for the club's rummage sale and a revision of the constitution. Kurk Mulder, youth counselor for Marion county, will speak on juvenile delinquency.

Lynn—The first series of the first aid classes was held at the Mari-Linn school house Tuesday evening, Jan. 4, with Mr. H. L. Lewis from the State Industrial Accident Commission in Salem as the instructor, with 25 present. Anyone may still enroll by attending the next meeting. Each person should bring their own 40-inch bandages. The classes will be held for the next six weeks beginning at 7 o'clock.

Farmers Discuss Taxes, Legislation

Statesman News Service
MONMOUTH—Taxes and coming state legislation were the major topics of discussion at a meeting of the Polk County Farmers Union Thursday evening in the Monmouth city hall.

Harley Libby, state president of the organization, was a visitor at the meeting. He presided over a panel discussion concerning Farmers Union activities. Participants were R. B. Whittington and Mrs. B. M. McKinney of Spring Valley and Jonas Graber of Buena Vista.

A panel discussion on taxes and state legislation was moderated by Cecil Hultman, Polk County Farmers Union president. Taking part in the discussion were Dewey Cummins of Pedee and Mrs. Joe Statz and Mrs. Philip Sperling of Luckiamute.

The group announced plans for a county quarterly meeting which will be held Wednesday in Ballston and a pie social which will be held Jan. 22 in the Rickreall Grange Hall.

North Howell Group Makes Study Plans

Statesman News Service
NORTH HOWELL—Members of the North Howell Home Extension Unit last week approved a list of subjects for study during the year. Subjects approved at a Wednesday meeting included hat trimming, cake decoration, modern drugs, flower arrangement and chair caning.

Program planning was led by Mrs. M. O. Nichols and Mrs. A. B. Wiesner. Mrs. K. D. Coomler and Mrs. Jim Jackson directed a recreation hour. Luncheon hostesses were Mrs. E. H. Beals, Mrs. Ed Zitzewitz, Mrs. Andrew Hall and Mrs. John Beals. The topic for the meeting, "Health Insurance," was presented by Mrs. A. M. Zahare and Mrs. Lloyd McDonald.

The group scheduled a work day for next Wednesday, when the walls inside the new meeting hall will be finished and made ready for painting.
