At Oregon Sally Greig Winner of Plaque

By MARCIA WEBB
Statesman Correspondent

EUGENE—Miss Sally Jo Greig, sophomore majoring in English, has top billing on the Mortar Board Plaque this year for her accumulative grade point average of 3.71 for her freshman year. Aside from the fact that she had the highest grades among the women of her class, she was the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi, and is a member of the rally squad, co-editor of the Emerald women's page, in Kwama (sophomore women's honorary), working to make Dad's Day successful, and helping with many other campus activities.

Among the other Salem students active on campus are Bill Mainwaring and Ann Ritchey as members of the Emerald staff. Jean Smith spends much of her time working for KWAX, the campus radio station, which is almost entirely run by the students.

Rogar Middleton and his band are providing the music for the Frosh Sno-Ball, a dance scheduled for January 29.

The University has a 11 per cent increase in enrollment over that at the end of the first week of winter term a year ago. Though 636 students dropped out after fall term, there are 4066 currently enrolled.

The third annual Panhellenic pledge banquet was held Wednesday in the Student Union. All sorority pledges were urged to attend such as Julie Astrup, Pat Gordon, Nancy Hilton, Sharon Johnson, Nancy Lidbeck, Judy Loucks, Lauranne Ray and Diane Van Horn.

Many fraternities and sororities held initiation last weekend. Included among the new members, naming only a few, are Marian Baum and Betty Lou Boehm, Kappa Alpha Theta; Sally Hoy, Gamma Phi Beta; Karen Johnson, Alpha Phi; and Yvonne Stevens, Zeta Tau Alpha. The Zeta Tau Alpha pledge class of which Yvonne Stevens was a member received the highest grade average for last term of any organization, with the figures of 3.22.

Pat Collins and Nancy Hilton will spend Saturday evening at the Delta Zeta house dance and Ann Ritchey will attend the dance at Alpha Omicron Pi. Many other Oregon students including Scott Page will be at Corvallis for the Oregon vs O. S. C. game.

Reception Will Fete Couple On Sunday

MONMOUTH — Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Williamson will observe their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday, Jan. 23. Their four children: a son and three daughters, are arranging a reception at the family home on South Monmouth avenue in their honor Sunday afternoon.

Ann Abel, who is 72, was born at Richhill, Mo., April 15, 1882. Hulet Williamson, 73, was born Feb. 17, 1883, near LaFollette, Tenn. She taught school for several years prior to her marriage. For five years they farmed in Missouri, then moved to Essex, Montana, operating a restaurant for 3 years. From 1916 to 1950, he was in the mechanical department of the Great Northern railway, Callispell division, and their home was in Whitefish, Montana.

Mr. Williamson was active in civic affairs, serving as mayor of Whitefish for two years, and two terms also as city councilman. Following his retirement from the railroad in 1950, they traveled all over the U. S., later settling in Monmouth, as they preferred the mild Willamette Valley climate.

Their children are: Mrs. Naomi Stribling and Mrs. Leta Lindner, Portland; Mrs. Ada Braus, Hagerstown, Maryland; and Wayne Williamson, and engineer with Boeing Aircraft, Seattle.

The Williamsons were married Jan. 25, 1905 at the home of Judge and Mrs. J. A. Nash at Cheney, Mo. Mrs. Nash, who is Mrs. Williamson's only sister, now lives at Bakersfield, Calif.

Mrs. Stribling will serve the cake at the reception; Mrs. John Schmidt will preside at the coffee urn, and Mrs. Mary Shannon, Monmouth, will serve punch. Mrs. Siebert J. Williamson will greet the guests and Mrs. Lindner and Wayne Williamson will have a charge of gifts and guest book.
