At Willamette

Houses Elect New Officers For Year

By JULIE MELLOR
Statesman Correspondent

The walks of the Willamette University campus have been deserted lately, in favor of a quiet seat in the library. The reason? Final week begins January 29, and the students are preparing now for those term examinations.

But finals still are time for romance, as evidenced by the announcement of the engagement of Jodie Johannaber of Chemawa and Lewis Hampton of Salem.

Miss Johannaber graduated in education and is teaching grade school. While at Willamette she was affiliated with Pi Beta Phi. Mr. Hampton, a freshman law student, is a member of Cardinal Key.

Keith Mirick of Medford, was named Rotarian of the Month for February at the last meeting of the student council. Mr. Mirick was selected because of his campus leadership for over a period of four years.

Alpha Chi Elect

Selected to preside at the Alpha Chi Omega house for the coming year is Gay Kent of Deadwood, S. D. Assisting her will be vice president, Joyce Amber of Portland; standards chairman, Charlene Miner, San Mateo, Calif.; secretary, Margie Knochenhauer, San Mateo, Calif.; and treasurer, Charlotte Stark, Idaho Falls, Ida.

Salem members of Alpha Chi Omega holding offices are Noreen Nelson, Coralie Roseberry, Nadine Small, Marilyn Isaak, Janice Hershe and Pat Shields.

Dick Adams of Salem, was elected president of Sigma Alpha Epsilon last week. Other officers are vice president Gerry Cruson, Portland; secretary, Tom Steeves, Salem; and treasurer, Lewis Beaty, Portland.

Arnold Air Society, ROTC honorary, have elected to the offices of president and vice president respectively, Rick Butler and Bill Nelson, both of Portland. Salem men holding offices are secretary Tom Steeves; treasurer, Bob Zoelch; and public relations, George Strozt.

Salem Chapter, OES will meet Saturday night at the Masonic Temple at 8 p.m.

Six Circles in Trinity Guild

SILVERTON — Trinity Guild, newly formed organization of women in Trinity Lutheran Church, has divided its membership into six circles. Names of the circles, which reflect aspects of the Guild's activities and interest, are: Charities, to meet tonight at 8 p.m.; Foreign Missions, Tuesday at 2 p.m.; Education, Wednesday at 2 p.m.; Life Membership and in Memoriam, Thursday at 2 p.m.; and Literature and Home Missions, Friday at 8 p.m.

Each circle will choose a chairman and secretary at the January meetings. Bible study leaders for the Circles include Mrs. Harold Toft, Mrs. Orin Smedstad, Mrs. Duane Bloch, Mrs. Oswald Johnson, Miss Nettie Hatteberg and Mrs. Ludvig Meyer. All January meetings will be held in the Fireside Room in the church.

Calvary Ladies Aid Society will meet Wednesday at 2 p.m. at Calvary Church with Mrs. Joseph Lerud as hostess.

Engagement Is Revealed

The engagement of Miss Audra Garbarino, daughter of Mrs. Ann Garbarino to Robert Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hamilton of Salem, was announced early this week.

Both Miss Garbarino and Mr. Hamilton attended high school in the Salem area. Miss Garbarino, a graduate of Marylhurst College, is currently employed by the State Welfare Commission in Marion County. Mr. Hamilton is employed by the State Highway Department.

Wedding plans are being made for early in June.

McMINNVILLE—Mr. and Mrs. Amel Funk of Amity have announced the engagement of their daughter, Connie, to Carl Keeton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Keeton of McMinnville. The wedding is planned for June.
