SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST

USING SCARECROWS

THE FAMILIAR SCARECROW CAN BE USED BY HUNTERS, PASS-SHOOTING AT WATERFOWL, OR CROWS THAT FLY A PARTICULAR ROUTE EACH DAY. MORE THAN ONE SCARECROW MAY BE NEEDED AT STRATEGIC LOCATIONS TO CAUSE THE TARGETS TO FLARE OFF COURSE AND PASS OVER YOUR BLIND, OR HIDING PLACE, SO THEY'LL BE WITHIN SHOTGUN'S RANGE.

GOOD SPOTS FOR WATERFOWL ARE BETWEEN TWO BODIES OF WATER, OR WATER AND GRAIN FIELDS. FOR CROWS: BETWEEN ROOST-TREES AND FEED AREAS.

North Salem Tops Millers

Ken Carl was the top scorer in the Viking lineup, pushing home 15 tallies before retiring from the game with less than a minute to play. Carl racked up 12 of his total in the second 16 minutes as his mates piled up advantages of as much as 19 points.

Rhine was second high for the 14th Streeters with 14.

Bourgeois was the whole story for Coach Roger Wiley's Millers. The big guy hit from all around the bucket, but got little help from his mates, with the exception of Warren Dixon who scored 10 before intermission. Bourgeois got the final 15 Springfield points.

The JV prelim was also won by Salem, 62 to 50. Gary Kanz of the Vik seconds was high man with 18 followed by teammate Ed Kitchen with 16. The fans were wowed at halftime of the varsity mix by a fancy marching display by an ROTC drill squad from Oregon State College.
