Crew Works to Raise Death Car From River

GATES—A rescue crew works to put a cable on the submerged automobile of Etoyle Myers, 49-year-old Idanha logger, after it skidded into the North Santiam River reservoir behind Big Cliff Dam east of here Monday night. Myers, apparently lone occupant of the 1954 Nash sedan, was trapped when the car flipped over into the icy water. It took the workers nearly three hours in a heavy snowstorm to bring the car to the surface. Directing the operation from the rocky bank is State Patrolman Robert Haynes of Salem. Solons' Pay Hike Passes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress voted itself a 50 per cent pay raise Tuesday. The House stamped final approval on a salary bill which also provided increases for federal judges and prosecutors.

Acting quickly on a compromise measure worked out in conference with the Senate Monday, the House voted 223-113 to boost congressional salaries from $15,000 to $22,500 a year.

The measure now goes to President Eisenhower for virtually certain approval. Eisenhower himself, as had a presidential commission before him, told senators and representatives in January the time had come to allow themselves more money.

Eisenhower didn't recommend a specific amount. The $7,500 finally agreed upon was the amount chosen by the Senate last week and retained in the settlement of differences with the House.

Congress last voted its members a raise in 1946, when the rate was $10,000 a year.

The legislation as finally enacted retains a $3,000 tax deduction designed to offset costs of living in Washington as well as back home. The 96 senators and 435 representatives also will be reimbursed for one round-trip home at 20 cents a mile.

Vice President Nixon and House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex) will receive $5,000 more than their present $40,000 a year.

The over-all cost would be just shy of four million dollars for Congress alone.

Increase for Judges
Raises for some 400 federal judges range from $7,500 to $10,000, lifting district jurists to $22,500 and Chief Justice Warren to $35,500.

The maximum for U. S. attorneys goes from $15,000 to $20,000 and their assistants from $12,500 to $15,000. Atty. Gen. Brownell may decide how much each should get.

WASHINGTON (AP) — House members from Washington, Oregon and Idaho split 8-4, with one absent, Tuesday as the House approved a compromise congressional and judicial pay raise bill.

Democratic Reps. Green of Oregon and Frost of Idaho voted against the bill, joined by Republicans Mack of Washington and Coon of Oregon. Idaho's Rep. Budge, a Republican, was absent or not voting.

Elizabeth Winship as the young servant girl gave an excellent performance as Electra of last year. Robert Alfred played the dramatic part of the canon with equal excellence, though with less assurance. David Finlay made a convincing dissenter in the person of Schoolmaster O'Flingsley.

Two young priests were Theodore Primrose and George Nelson. Jean Thomas, Lois Wickham, John Ray, William Hagmeyer and Barbara Ruhl were the supporting players.

The play is an intense drama of a small group of Irish folk concerned with the visions of a servant girl, the bitter schoolmaster, author of a controversial book, and the way the situation is handled by the all-powerful Canon.

Firemen Go Twice to Site

Salem's south station firemen Tuesday went twice to the same building — once to attend to a chimney burning out and once to adjust a damper.

The first call was at 12:05 p.m. when M. M. Lewis, 1310 S. 13th St., reported the chimney trouble in his apartment house. At 8:43 p.m., Mrs. Lee Myers, worried about smoke in the room, summoned firemen again.

At 9:22 firemen from the North Salem station tended to another burning chimney at the house of Pat Izzo, 2135 Myrtle Ave. No damage resulted in either blaze.

DUNN APPOINTED
