Parish Dinner Slated Sunday At Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL — Big preparations have been made for the annual Mt. Angel parish sausage-and-kraut and fried-chicken benefit dinner, Sunday, from 11:15 a.m. to 3 p.m. The meals will be served in the two large basement dining halls of St. Mary's school.

Mt. Angel has quite a reputation for its parish dinners and this promises to be no exception. The annual affair is sponsored by the St. Ann's Altar Society for the benefit of St. Mary's Church, but the entire community participates in the work and in donating a good part of the food.

Ministers at Dallas Elect New Leader

DALLAS—The Rev. Herbert Anderson, pastor of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church, has been chosen to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. Walter Penner as president of the Dallas Ministerial Association.

The Rev. Mr. Anderson took over the duties of the post when association members met at their regular breakfast meeting on March 7. He has been serving as vice president of the group.

The Rev. Mr. Penner is leaving this community for Los Angeles about April 1 to assume duties with the Association of Evangelicals.

Silverton Post Of VFW May Purchase Hall

SILVERTON — The Veterans of Foreign Wars Post has taken steps toward buying the Perry W. Nofsker building on High Street, once the Nofsker auto shop and later a printing shop.

Commander Ronald Syron reports that plans, if all goes as scheduled, call for remodeling and converting the building into a meeting place for the organization.

At one time the VFW tried to make arrangements with the city to take over the Washington Irving Building, former school building which the city obtained in a trade-in for McGinnis ball park. However, negotiations failed to materialize and the matter was dropped.

Trail Ride Plans Made At Silverton

SILVERTON—Plans are already underway for the Annual Silverton Saddle Club Trail Ride which will be held in late June.

At this week's meeting Orville Totland was appointed general chairman of the 8th annual event. To him falls the duty of arranging for the Buckaroo Breakfast as well as selecting the trail which the ride will take.

Horse riding visitors from far and near join in the annual Silverton event. Frequently some 250 horses are tethered at the rural breakfast house. Rollin Heater is president of the group.

Will Sing at Liberty

LIBERTY—The Gospel Harmonies (above) will be featured when the Liberty Christian Church choir presents an hour's concert of sacred music at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the church on Skyline Road. Left to right are John Robertson, Wayne Bryant, Alice Standley, Verne Moore and Lynn Cooper. The varied program will include the Liberty Belle Trio singing "The Lord's Prayer."

Spring Vacation Starts at Dallas

DALLAS — Spring vacation will give a holiday to Dallas pupils and teachers from March 14 through 18. Classes will take up at the usual time on Monday, March 21.

During the week, when classes are not in session, some teachers will be attending the conference of the Oregon Education association in Portland.

The state high school basketball tournament, being held in Eugene, is also scheduled for this time and many students, teachers and townspeople are planning to attend.

Silverton Co-op Employs Jensen

SILVERTON — James Jensen, formerly connected with the Pratum Co-op, has been employed by the Valley Farmers Co-op at Silverton as general contact man.

C. M. Brownell, manager of the Silverton plant, has also announced the annual meeting of the Valley Farmers for next Wednesday at American Legion Hall. Business will start at 10:30 a.m. and be concluded in mid-afternoon. Besides reports of officers and management, election of two directors will be held. Terms of Amos Furnie and Dan Steffen expire.

Salt Creek District Honors Schoolteacher

SALT CREEK—There was a good turnout at the Salt Creek School when the district decided to honor Mrs. Nada Hassler of Monmouth, teacher of their one-room school, with a party.

The party, which was to show the community's appreciation for the job Mrs. Hassler has done for the last four years as teacher and 4-H leader, featured a sound movie, "How One Community Came Back," and an abundance of refreshments.

Robertson Gets Albany Park Post

ALBANY—Bob Robertson, assistant director of the city parks and recreation department since 1950, has been elevated to the head of the department.

Robertson succeeds George Chambers, director since 1949, who resigned Tuesday. Chambers recommended Robertson for the post.

The new director, a native of Albany, has served with the department since 1947, including summer work. He graduated from Willamette university at Salem in 1950 and was then given the position of assistant director.

Robertson served as acting director for 18 months while Chambers was with the U. S. Marine corps. In January of this year he was named Albany's Junior First Citizen.

Hoover PTA Sees Juvenile Program

EAST SALEM — The case of a typical juvenile was the theme for a skit put on at Hoover PTA Monday night.

Taking part in the skit were Judge Joseph Felton, Ken Seipp, Frank Kehrl, Hugh Nelson, Kirk Mulder, Billy Beatty and Mrs. J. Mudd.

Elected to the nominating committee were Oscar Specht, Dick Espey and Mrs. Edith Brydon. Election of officers will be held at the April meeting. Hosts were the fourth and sixth grade room mothers.

UNMISSED FUNDS

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Clarence Naso, found a package of cash and checks totaling $10,000 on the street—and a bank book showing the money belonged to a hospital. No one at the hospital knew the money was missing. The bundle apparently had fallen from a bank messenger's car.

Keizer Lions Start $15,000 Clubhouse

KEIZER—Now under construction by volunteer workers is the Keizer Lions Club-Scout Building. Donations of material and labor have been pooled with funds raised by the Lions at their summer Carnival to get the work underway.

Certificates have been purchased by numerous clubs and individuals providing additional funds. Future carnivals will repay these certificates after completion of the building.

The rustic log-type building will feature a main room approximately 40x90, a smaller room exclusively for use of the Boy Scouts, and other features. A total of 5,000 square feet of floor space is planned. The building will be available for use for general community activities.

Actual investment will be approximately $15,000 but valuation will be much higher because of generous donations. Lions Club members have been turning out on week-ends to volunteer their work on the building. It is hoped that work can be completed by the end of the year.

PTA Hears Sen. Hatfield

SOUTH SALEM—Sen. Mark Hatfield was guest speaker Wednesday evening at Morningside PTA meeting.

He spoke on education and stated that one of the major problems in Oregon is the need for 3,400 more classrooms. He also discussed salaries for teachers, declaring that 50 percent of the teachers educated in Oregon go to other states to teach because better salaries are offered. Ken Potts introduced the speaker.

Marion Miller, principal, spoke on plans for a visitation day with the date to be announced later.

The attendance award was won by Mrs. Hazel Thomas' first grade. Mrs. Erwin Batterman and Mrs. Glen Collins are room mothers.

Mrs. Leon Margosian was the hospitality chairman, assisted by Mrs. J. W. Ridgeway, Mrs. A. Espey, Mrs. H. J. Mason and Mrs. Harold Rossler.
