Greetings—and Aloha from the mezzanine on Court Street. It's time to be back after a lovely trip to the Hawaiian Islands. I've changed my name since I last wrote a Memo to you all, and I would like to thank you for all your good wishes—they must all be coming true, for I'm certainly very happy!

The first thing I had to do was go all around the store to see the new arrivals in the furniture department, the brand new carpet department, and to go over all the Market orders placed in San Francisco. Cherry is continuing strong in popularity, and this beautiful wood is being used in provincial, country styles, as well as in mellow fruitwood colonial pieces. Cherry seems to express our love of "informal grace" with its warmth of color-tone and live-with look.

New accessories are already beginning to come in. One, a wall lighting fixture, that looks for all the world like a big 4th of July sparkler! Slender brass spokes hold sparkling lights out at all angles—perfect for the entrance hall, over a buffet in the dining room, over a cabinet or chest in the living room.

The fabulous Dorothy Draper has done it again—her new Espana group of fabrics and wall papers designed while in Spain has arrived. Her flair for the unusual in color scheme and design of trends just starting. Fortisan is still the magic name in fabrics—lovely bouffant fabrics in plains and prints in every group of samples arriving. Come in and see!

I'll be seeing you again every week now, with ideas for your decorating problems. Bye for now.
