Science Shrinks Piles
New Way Without Surgery
Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids
New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.
In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.
Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"
The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.
Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form under the name of Preparation H. Ask for it at all drug stores—money back guarantee. *U.S. Pat. No.

The affair will be held at the Mayflower Hall for members, guests and their escorts.

Delegates to Convention Are Named

Senator Warren McMinimie of Tillamook was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Salem Unit, Republican Women's Federation of Oregon Monday afternoon at the Senator Hotel. He spoke on legislative work and stressed the importance of the three divisions of government and of keeping government power with the people.

During the business session, presided over by Miss Hattie Bratzel, the unit went on record as encouraging members to hold coffee groups on March 18 between 10:30 and 11:30 a.m. in cooperation with all state units.

Delegates and alternates to the state federation convention in Portland on March 30 were elected. Delegates include Miss Bratzel, Mrs. Harry Sappenfield, Mrs. E. F. Kirkwood, Miss Georgia Shane, Mrs. Abner Kline and Mrs. James H. Turnbull. Alternates include Mrs. M. M. Magee, Mrs. Floyd L. Utter, Mrs. Leon Perry, Mrs. A. A. Rogers, Mrs. Ed Lewis and Mrs. Effie King.

Kathryn Santee Weds in South

From Hollywood, California comes news of the marriage of Miss Kathryn Santee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Santee of Salem, to Dewey Morrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morrow of Crestline, Ohio, on January 29 at the Country Church. The Rev. Roy Worthington officiated at the 8 o'clock rites.

The bride's gown was of imported Chantilly lace over satin fashioned with a chapel train and high neckline with standup collar edged in seed pearls. Her veil was also edged in lace and she carried a bouquet of red roses centered with a white orchid.

Miss Ethel Girod was the honor maid and she wore a royal blue net gown over pale blue taffeta. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Ramona Santee and Miss Beverly Williams, wore pale blue net frocks. They all carried bouquets of pink carnations. Sandra Santee, niece of the bride, was the flower girl.

Ray Morrow stood with his cousin as best man. Ushers were Marvin Orewitter and Kenneth Schuberl.

Mr. and Mrs. Santee went south for their daughter's marriage. A reception followed the ceremony in the parish hall of the church.

The newlyweds went to San Francisco on their wedding trip and are now at home in Los Angeles at 1304 Lemayne St.

The Spiritual Sunflower Club will meet Thursday at the First Spiritualist Church, 1320 Madison St., between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. At noon there will be a sack lunch.

Nuptials are Performed At Church

Mr. and Mrs. Kemper M. Rostad are now making their home in Portland following their March 5 marriage in Salem at the First Congregational Church. The bride, the former Jean B. Nieswander, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Nieswander of Salem and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Rostad of Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Dr. Julian J. Keiser officiated at the 8 o'clock rites. Clorinda Topping was the soloist and Jean Hobson Rich was the organist. The church was decorated with bouquets of yellow gladioluses, white stock and daffodils. Yellow tapers were used at the altar and down the aisle. Lighting the candles were Mrs. George Sennatt and Mrs. W. C. Cross, who wore yellow frocks with yellow and white daisy chain head-dresses.

Of white Chantilly lace over nylon net and taffeta was the ballerina length bridal gown fashioned with an inset of pleated nylon net down the front of the skirt with scalloped edge. The lace bodice was made with a scalloped neckline and long sleeves. Her French illusion veil was caught to a cap of the same material embellished with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible marked with a yellow throated white orchid.

Miss Lenore Nieswander was her sister's honor maid and Mrs. Dale Finlayson, twin sister of the groom, was the bridesmaid. They wore ballerina gowns of yellow embroidered organza with yellow and white daisy head pieces. Both carried circles of yellow daisies with yellow and white ribbon and tulle.

Susan Nieswander, the bride's niece, was the flower girl, and she wore a yellow embroidered organza frock.

Dale H. Finlayson of Portland stood with the bridegroom as best man. Seating the guests were Lee E. Nieswander, the bride's brother, and Elden Wagenblast, The Dalles, the bride's cousin.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Nieswander wore a rose crepe and lace gown with corsage of deep pink rosebuds. Mrs. Rostad chose a deep rose crepe gown with lace bodice and corsage of violets for her son's marriage.

Reception Follows Rites
A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. George Wagenblast of The Dalles and Miss Sylvia Gibbons of Portland poured. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Paul Nieswander and Mrs. H. Willis of Portland. Assisting were Mrs. Lee Nieswander, Miss Ronetta Garrett, Mrs. V. L. Stephens and Mrs. Gus Berliner.

For going away the bride changed to a portrait blue wool dress with black accessories. The newlyweds went to Victoria, B.C. on their honeymoon and are now at home in Portland at 1000 S.W. Vista Ave.

FOUR CORNERS—Mrs. Emma Force and sons, Dick and Barry, of Roseburg were visitors in the Jess McInlay home. Mrs. Force formerly owned the Four Corners Beauty Shop.

School Carnival Well Attended

The Garfield School carnival, held Friday night, was a huge success, reports Mrs. David H. Turney, finance chairman, and Mrs. Richard L. Cooley, carnival chairman. This was the first all-school carnival sponsored by the Mothers and Dads Club with several hundred attending. Net proceeds will be over $400, announces Mrs. Turney.

The talent show proved so popular that four performances were given during the evening. Dinner was served in the cafeteria throughout the evening with carnival booths set up in the halls and various rooms which were gaily decorated for the occasion.
