She's finished 3 times faster

Mrs. Joyce McLaughlin, Portland
"Heck, I've got too much to do to fuss with old-fashioned starch. With new concentrated Vano Liquid Starch I'm finished 3 times faster. No more mixing and boiling for me: I just pour Vano out of the bottle, dilute and starch. New Vano Liquid Starch lasts lots longer."
Get concentrated, heavier Vano Liquid Starch today—if you're not using Vano, you're working too hard!

Past Presidents Make Flowers

MT. ANGEL—Mrs. Fred Proser was hostess to the Past Presidents club of the American Legion Auxiliary at her home Thursday night.

The women made paper flowers to be sent to the Veterans hospital for their annual wheelchair parade.

Mrs. Gene Hoffer discussed plans for the Junior district conference set for April 23 in the Legion hall to which auxiliary members were invited to attend.

New Officers Elected

PEDEE — Nola Womer was elected president of the Women's Society of World Service of the EUB church at the Tuesday meeting at the Womer home. Other officers are Mrs. Francis Dyer, vice-president; Mrs. Thera Womer, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. John Jongeling, Spiritual Life secretary; Mrs. Howard Perry, secretary of Missionary Education; Mrs. Roland Trueax, Christian Social Relations secretary and Youth Fellowship leader; Mrs. Clinton McCormack, leader of Mission Band and Little Heralds. Plans were made to attend the district rally to be held in Albany, March 23, at which Lee Schurman, returned worker from Pakistan, will be the speaker.

MARQUAM—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Uhrig spent the weekend at Vancouver, Wash., visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Schovil.

Dr. Laughlin, Former Resident, Speaks at AAUW Luncheon

Salem Branch, American Association of University Women met for the March luncheon meeting on Saturday in the Gold Room of the Marion Hotel. Mrs. John H. Hann, president of Salem AAUW, presided at the regular business meeting, after which Miss Nancy Stuart, a chairman of the program committee, introduced the speaker, Dr. William Seava Laughlin.

Dr. Laughlin, formerly of Salem, is associate professor of anthropology at the University of Oregon, and he spoke on the subject, "The History of the Eskimos and of the Aleutians."

Having spent considerable time in Alaska studying the history and culture of these northern peoples, Dr. Laughlin was well qualified to speak on the Eskimo today, and his ancient ancestors.

It has been comparatively easy to study the Eskimo, in that different generations did not migrate far from the original site chosen for the village. Dr. Laughlin spoke of the individualism and resourcefulness of the Eskimo, and his many methods of obtaining food for survival in the north. These peoples have a tutor form of education, usually an uncle or grandfather.

Special Guests Introduced
Mrs. Paul Patterson, state chairman for committee on by-laws, and Mrs. Robert Y. Thornton, state president of AAUW, were introduced, also Miss Mary Laughlin, sister of the speaker.

Miss Mary Eyre, advisor to the local chapter of the International Relations League, introduced Miss Kay Ruberg, one of the delegates from the local club who attended the 8th International Relations League confer-
