Jo Ann Keeker Married to Lynn Jensen on Saturday

(Picture on Page 1)
Before a spring setting of orchid and white stock and snapdragons at St. John's Lutheran Church Miss Jo Ann Lora Keeker, daughter of Mrs. Elsie E. Keeker, became the bride of Luther Lynn Jensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther L. Jensen, Saturday night. The 7 o'clock nuptials were performed by the Rev. H. W. Gross.

Jerry Friesen was the soloist and William Fischer the organist. Lighting the candles were Garland Keeker, the bride's brother, Billy Harrison and Willis Holscher.

For her wedding the bride selected a handsome gown of nylon tulle over satin embellished with tiny satin roses centered with embroidered sprays of lily-of-the-valley tied with a bow. The bodice was designed with an oval neckline with soft sheering and the tiered held in place her fingertip illusion skirt of tulle enhanced with the roses and embroidery terminated in a chapel train. A headress of veil. She carried a bouquet of white iridescent sequins and seed pearls roses and lily-of-the-valley.

Walk Before the Bride

Three attendants preceded the bride to the altar. Mrs. Alyn Knode, the honor matron, wore a yellow gown of nylon tulle and satin with bouffant tiered skirt and tulle stole. The bridesmaids, Miss Patricia Sebastian and Miss Gladys Koch, wore similar gowns, only of orchid. The attendants all wore matching floral headresses and carried cluster bouquets of yellow roses and snapdragons tied with yellow and violet ribbon.

Murray Jensen stood with his brother as best man. Seating the guests were James Lytle, Carl Standley, Walter Stauffacher and Kenneth Holmes.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Keeker chose a desert rose gown with pleated nylon net skirt and lace bodice with powder blue accessories. She pinned a corsage of white azaleas to her gown. Mrs. Jensen attended her son's marriage in a wedgewood blue crystalline gown with blue and white accessories. Her flowers were white azaleas.

Greet Guests at Reception

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the fire-side room. Pouring were Mrs. Theodore Gottschalk, Mrs. Lawrence Shrake and Mrs. William Fischer. Mrs. Sophie Mahrt, the bride's grandmother, and Mrs. H. W. Gross, cut the cake. Assisting were Misses Lorraine Saul, Lorna Robertson, Lolita Taylor, Lavona Shrake, Mesdames Jason Ewing, Edwin Poppitz, the bride's sister, Elmer Peterson, George Porter and Donald Davis.

When the couple left on their honeymoon along the Oregon coast the new Mrs. Jensen wore a beige suit with fiesta pink hat and gloves panama shoes and purse. She pinned a corsage of lily-of-the-valley and stephanotis to her ensemble. After April 10 the newlyweds will be at home in Salem at 2265 Breyman Avenue.
