Pythian Hall in Silverton Sold To Incorporators

Statesman News Service

SILVERTON — Reorganization of the Knights of Pythias property on Mill Street has been completed through the newly formed Silver Creek Building Association. The incorporators have bought the Pythian Hall and will operate it through a joint undertaking.

Knights of Pythias built the hall in 1922 and it was dedicated on Feb. 22, 1923. At the reorganization, the Knights still owed some $1,500 on the building and this has been transferred to the corporation.

Incorporators are L. C. Eastman, Ted Lorenzen, Delbert Iverson, Henrietta Loe, Olive Morley and Marie Ekman, all members of Home Lodge, KP, and Home Temple, Pythian Sisters.

Officers are Ralph Adams, president; Delbert Iverson, vice president; Olive Morley, treasurer; Blanche Feneide, secretary, and Clarence Morley, Ted Lorenzen and Anna Adams, trustees.

MT. ANGEL — Winners in the annual poetry contest, sponsored by the Mt. Angel court of the Catholic Daughters of America, were announced Monday by Miss Patricia Connell, chairman. Participating were students of St. Mary's Grade School, Mt. Angel Academy and Mt. Angel Women's College.

Four divisions were listed. Winners in the first, consisting of fourth, fifth and sixth grades, are: First prize, Mary Anne Kloft; second, Jimmie Huffstutter; third, Carol Ann Wavra.

Second division, seventh and eighth graders: First, Carroll Kleczynski; second, Carolyn Humphert; third, Gordon Wavra.

Third division, second, third and fourth year high: First, Marilyn Schwab; second, Zita Steinkamp; third, Judy Foltz.

Fourth division, all college students: First, Marie Heisinger; second, Patricia Anderson; third, Margaret Bergin.

Cash prizes will be awarded to each winner at the next business meeting of the CDA, April 11. The winners will read their poems.

The twelve are eligible for the state contest and state winners will enter the national contest. All poetry is on religious themes.

Dallas Camp Fire Girls to Pick Officers

Statesman News Service

DALLAS — Election of officers to head the "O-da-ko" unit of Camp Fire Girls, sponsored by the VFW Auxiliary of Dallas Post-3203, will be at 4 p.m. Tuesday in VFW hall.

The new officers will be installed immediately after the election, according to Mrs. Ray Carlson, leader. Present officers are headed by Jane Elliott.

At their last meeting, the girls completed Easter favors for the Evans' Nursing Home in Dallas, and Mrs. Carlson photographed the group for Camp Fire records.
