Ruth Duggan Wins Yamhill IOOF Contest

WILLAMINA — Ruth Duggan of McMinnville, formerly of Willamina, is one of 14 high school students who received top honors in the IOOF and Rebekah Lodge sixth annual United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth. She will make a tour of the United Nations this summer. Ruth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Duggan of McMinnville. Mrs. Duggan is a teacher at the Willamina elementary school.

Miss Duggan won the McMinnville High School contest on her essay entitled “What the United Nations Means to Me.” Other factors considered were character, leadership, contribution to her community, welfare, scholarship, interest in church or Sunday School activities, and general fitness for and cooperation with the entire project.

Miss Duggan will leave about July 5, and go through Washington and British Columbia, to pick up winning students in that area. The group will then go across Canada to Ottawa, where they will visit parliament, and then on to New York. They will return about August 2.
