McKillip New President of St. Paul Rodeo

ST. PAUL — Ray Manegre, president of the St. Paul Rodeo Association for 17 years and nationally known in rodeo circles, has resigned the post and has been succeeded by John McKillip, vice-president the past four years.

Manegre and McKillip were among the eight originators of the St. Paul Rodeo and have been closely identified with its growth from a local event to a nationally recognized rodeo—one of the richest in the West.

In assuming the presidency, McKillip said tribute to the work done by Manegre and stated that "his only compensation has been in watching this rodeo grow to its present stature."

Manegre, owner of the International Harvester Company plant in St. Paul, will continue to serve as a member of the board of directors. Manegre was named vice-president and Gene Smith was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Other members of the board are Fred Viesko, L. H. Bunning, Frank Kirsch Jr., and Bill Smith.

Church Plans Extra Events At Unionvale

UNIONVALE—Next week will be one of special activity at the Unionvale Evangelical United Brethren Church with council of administration meeting Tuesday evening, family night on Wednesday. Good Friday communion service.

An Easter sunrise service will be held at 5:30 Easter Sunday. Special music will include trumpet solo's by Don Jeter of Cascade College and The Melodaires will sing.

An Easter breakfast will follow the sunrise service. Dr. Gates will bring the Easter Message and there will be dedication of children. Planning the Easter breakfast are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rutschman, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Magee and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Steingrube.

The Sunday School Classes of Mrs. Leola Turner and Mrs. Maxine Noble held a dinner Monday evening. They visited the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dixon; Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Withee; and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Magee before returning to the church where the group dismissed. There were 15 youngsters present.

Although fewer children of unskilled laborers go to college than children of professional men, about the same percentage in each group who do enter college go on to graduation, a University of Michigan study shows.

Cavett New Principal of Woodburn HS

WOODBURN — David C. Cavett, 39, vice-principal of Gervais Union High School, will become principal of Woodburn High School next fall, school authorities here reported Thursday.

Cavett will succeed the late Lester E. Kelley. Cavett has lived at Woodburn for 10 years, teaching at Gervais for nine years. He is instructor in band, mathematics and science.

Cavett was a high school principal in North Dakota prior to serving two years in the Navy during World War II. He was born at Lisbon, N. D., and graduated from North Dakota State College.
