

Mrs. Wayne L. Simmons, the former Myrna Lois Lippert before her April 2 marriage at the First Church of God. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Lippert and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin H. Simmons. (Steimonts Studio).

Simmons-Lippert Vows Are Read at Church Nuptials

At a 3 o'clock ceremony Saturday afternoon at the First Church of God Miss Myrna Lois Lippert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Lippert, became the bride of Wayne L. Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin H. Simmons. The Rev. H. J. McIntire performed the nuptials before an Easter setting of potted lilies. The alternate pews were marked with daffodils and white satin bows.

Miss Coralie Doughton was the singer and Mrs. John Eby the organist.

For her wedding the bride selected an original floor length gown of white organdy with a bouffant ballerina overskirt of Swiss eyelet embroidered organdy. The fitted bodice was enhanced with a round, scoop neckline outlined in embroidered daisies. For "something old" she wore a single strand of pearls. Her elbow length veil of illusion was caught to a Juliet cap. She carried a colonial nosegay of bouvardia centered with yellow roses.

Attendants Wear Aqua

Three attendants preceded the bride to the altar all wearing aqua crystaletta street length gowns over white, fashioned with scoop necklines and full skirts. They carried yellow nosegays of carnations and roses-edged with organdy from the bride's gown. Mrs. Byron E. Lippert, the bride's sister-in-law, was honor matron and Miss Marcelline Salisbury and Miss Judy Shrock were the bridesmaids. Walter Wilson served as best man for his cousin. Seating the guests were Allen Simmons, the groom's brother, Loren Lippert, brother of the bride, Jerry Curtis and James Kinkaid.

Mrs. Lippert chose a navy blue crepe gown with navy and pink accessories for her daughter's nuptials. Mrs. Simmons wore a portrait blue gowns with black and white accessories. Their flowers were yellow roses.

A reception followed in the Nazarene Church annex. Pouring were Mrs. L. A. Brice and Mrs. Elmer Miller, aunts of the bride. Mrs. Richard Figgins and Mrs. Viola Buckbee, the bride's aunts, cut the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Earl DeSart, Mrs. H. J. McIntire, Mrs. Lon Foltz, Misses Lois Shafer, Marilyn Shafer, Shirley Dumm, Carol McCleary, Patricia Jenkins, Sharon Lary, Elaine Conklin, Jane Horiuchi, Josephine Nystrom, Doris Wilson, Myrna Foltz, Hazel Buckbee, Rose Brice, Norma Foltz, Karalee Miller, the latter five cousins of the bride.

Go South on Honeymoon
When the couple left on their wedding trip to Southern California the new Mrs. Simmons donned a pearl grey wool suit with box jacket and navy and white accessories. After April 15 the newlyweds will be at home in West Salem.

Out-of-state guests here for the wedding were Mrs. Richard Figgins of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brice and family of Seattle, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Getman of Toppenish, Wash.
