Two Jefferson Boys Stricken With Fever

JEFFERSON—Two Jefferson boys are ill with rheumatic fever. Gary Petersen, son of the Kenneth Petersens, and a senior in high school, entered Salem Memorial Hospital a week ago, suffering with the illness. "Gipper" Broxson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Broxson, is ill at his home here, and thought to be suffering from the fever.

Wayne Johnston left Tuesday for Camp Chaffee in Arkansas. He was accompanied by Mrs. Johnston who will visit an aunt, Mrs. M. E. Dobbs at Leeds, Ala. Wayne finished basic training at Ft. Ord, before coming home on a ten-day leave. At Fort Ord, he scored first in his company in rifle marksmanship and was presented a medal. Odell Lott, also stationed at Ft. Ord, came home with him. He was formerly employed by Bill Wiederkehr of Sidney, and will be out of service in another two months.

Skating Party Planned by Church Group

SALT CREEK—The Loyal Workers Class of the Salt Creek Baptist Church will have a skating party at the Haunted Mill Skating Rink in Rickreall on Monday evening, April 4.

Guests will include the college group of the Salt Creek Church and the young married and college age groups of the Bethel Baptist Church of Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Radke are in charge of arrangements.

Hosts and hostesses for the evening are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Villwock, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Buhler, Mr. and Mrs. Carl May, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bartel.

Scouts Hold Joint Meeting At Aumsville

AUMSVILLE—Cub pack 48 and Troop 48 of Aumsville held a joint meeting Wednesday evening with their parents and friends as visitors. Six cubs received their Bobcat awards and they were presented to them by Ken Jury, District Scout Executive, Bob Weeks from Albany and Harry Way, Scoutmaster, Aumsville. They were dressed as Indian chiefs with war bonnets and regalia, with much delight to the Cubs.

During the ceremony lights were out and the Scouts of the troop carried lighted candles. The six cubs were John Hotaling, Gary Harris, Tim Whelan, Gary Bates, David Elam and Daniel Fromherz.

Scoutmaster Harry Way installed Martin Boehme as assistant scoutmaster. Boehme installed Gerald Lewis, Johnny Baker and Carl Meyer as senior patrol leaders with Benny Nicholson as quartermaster, Jimmy Way as scribe and Charles Way as bugler. The three senior patrol leaders installed David Dahl, and Ken Clark as patrol leaders with Larry Boehme and Jerry Baker as assistant patrol leaders.

Candidates for 'Miss VFW' Title Named

SHERIDAN—Candidates named from the Sheridan high school to compete for the Miss VFW title are: Pam Peizer, freshman; J. Hutchinson, sophomore; Ina Kusler, junior; and Shirley Holstad, senior.

They will compete with these four from Willamina for the title: Connie Thomason, freshman; Patricia Wren, sophomore; Gloria Ayres, junior; and Marilyn Moroney, senior.

The winner will be named April 6 at a dance at the VFW hall in Willamina, and will receive a $25 prize. Second prize winner will receive $10 and the remainder of the proceeds will be divided between the two high schools.

New Residents At Four Corners

FOUR CORNERS—New residents in Four Corners are T/Sgt. and Mrs. Boyd Esler and son, Duane, who are located in the Rudy Kadine cottage, 395 S. Elma Ave.

Sgt. Esler recently returned from Japan and is currently with the Inspector Instructor Staff at the Marine Corp Training Center, Salem.

The Kadine family moved to Medford.

Moving to Dunn Center, N.D., this week were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Kling and family who resided at 224 S. 45th St. The family came here for the winter. They are farmers in Dakota and expect to return again this fall for the winter.

Valley Obituaries

Charles B. Coleman
WOODBURN—Graveside services will be held at Belle Passi Cemetery Wednesday at 2 p.m. for Charles B. Coleman, former resident of the Woodburn-Hubbard area who died Saturday at his home in Oakland, Calif., at the age of 46.

Coleman was born at Inman, Neb., Feb. 20, 1909. He came to Oregon with his parents and spent most of his life in this vicinity until moving to Oakland 13 years ago to carry on his trade as a welder.

Surviving are the widow, Inez Coleman, Oakland; brother, Harold Coleman, The Dalles; sister, Margaret Sigler and Mrs. Ruth Aubert, both of Parkdale, Mrs. Mildred Bloom, Myrtle Creek, and Mrs. Arlene Hammond, Woodburn.

The Rev. Ormal Trick will officiate at graveside. The casket will be open to friends at the Ringo-Cornwell Chapel prior to the service.
