

Concert Ticket Sales to Close On Thursday

A limited number of memberships for the Salem Community Concert Association are now available to the general public according to Mrs. Ruskin D. Blatchford, membership chairman. The annual spring membership drive of the concert association is being held this week, with headquarters at the Portland General Electric Co.

The drive will close Thursday night, after which time no concert memberships will be sold. Four concerts are guaranteed for the 1955-56 season and admittance is by membership only, which must be purchased this week. Anyone wishing to obtain a membership is asked to stop by at headquarters or telephone the office, 4-4666.

All renewals must be turned in by the workers tonight. Assisting Mrs. Blatchford at campaign headquarters is Mrs. Lucille Schreiner, Northwest Representative of Community Concerts Inc., and Mrs. Arthur Atherton, treasurer of the Salem association.

The annual kick-off dinner for the campaign was held Monday night at the Marion Hotel with Dr. Wolcott E. Buren, president, presiding. Mrs. Schreiner talked to the workers and discussed available artists for next season. Seventy attended the dinner.

This year's final concert will be April 25 with the appearance of Rise Stevens, mezzo-soprano of the Metropolitan Opera. Other artists appearing here this past year were Richard Tucker, tenor, Byron Janis, pianist, and the Ballet Russe.

Historic Church Scene of Rites

AMITY — The old historic Church of Christ in this village was the setting for a spring wedding on Saturday, when the Vasey-Hickenlooper rites were solemnized at 2 p.m. by the minister of the church, Dr. James Matthew Alley.

The bride, Nadine Vasey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Vasey, came down the aisle on the arm of her father wearing a white nylon embroidered gown, with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Her cap was a seed pearl coronet with a shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white stephanotis.

Two of the bride's sisters, Misses Marianne and Constance Vasey, acted as bridesmaids. They were dressed in pink and yellow glazed cotton dresses and carried colonial nosegays of white sweet peas and yellow roses. The junior bridesmaid was Sylvia Adams of Tillamook.

The groom, Paul Hickenlooper of Portland, had chosen his brother, Don Hickenlooper, for his best man, and Daryl L. Vasey of Tillamook and Keith Petzold of Portland for the ushers.

The organist was Melvin S. Ashwill of McMinnville. The soloist was David Ordway of Portland.

A reception followed in the Friendship Room of the church, after which the young couple left for a honeymoon at Victoria, B. C. They will be at home in Portland after April 15.

Modern Etiquette

By Roberta Lee
Q. I have been invited by a boy to attend a fraternity dance, and he has made reservations for me in the hotel in that town. He has offered to pay the bill, but my mother says this is wrong. What is correct?
A. You pay both your traveling and hotel expenses. Any entertainment expenses during your visit, of course, are paid by your escort.

Q. Is it the girl's privilege to select the table when entering a restaurant with a male escort?
A. No; she should allow her escort to do this.

Q. Is it good form to sip one's coffee first with the spoon in order to test its temperature?
A. Yes; this is far better than burning the mouth, or perhaps spitting out the liquid. But after testing it, the spoon should be left in the saucer and the remainder of the coffee sipped from the cup.

Q. Is it permissible to sip water while one has food in one's mouth?
A. This is considered very bad manners.
