Silverton to Observe Special Easter Rites

SILVERTON—Easter, from sunrise to nightfall, will be observed at Silverton churches Sunday in varied programs. At 5:30 a.m. youth of First Christian will conduct a sunrise service at the home of James Bonner in Silverton Hills. The group will return to the church for an Easter breakfast at 8 a.m. The Bible School of First Christian will hold an Easter program at 9:45. A baptismal service has been arranged for Sunday night at 7:30.

Northwestern Choir to Sing At 1st Baptist

Northwestern Schools Choir of Minneapolis, Minn., will sing at First Baptist Church Sunday evening at 7:30. The 68-voice group is directed by William B. Bernsten.

Two Salem youths, Larry Delke and Bill Lottis, are with the choir on its present tour of 26 cities in nine states.

In addition to the choral group the school's band will also play in Salem.

The presentation will include numbers from Ludvig Senf, Anerio, Bach, Brahms, Witkowski, Gibbons, Christiansen, Wilson and others along with several modern arrangements. The choir and band will present several numbers together.

Presbyterian Meeting Set

The annual congregational meeting of First Presbyterian Church will open with a banquet at 6:30 Wednesday evening in the dining room of the church. The meeting is called for 7:30 p.m. and will be followed by a meeting of the corporation.

Annual reports will be made by organizations and committees. Officers for the Sunday school as well as members of the Church Boards will be elected.

CHOIR TO SING

The thirty-two voice choir of the Pacific Bible Institute of Fresno, Calif., will present a sacred concert at the Kingwood Bible Church on Monday, at 7:30 p.m. The choir is under the direction of Dietrich Friesen.

Korean Youth To Address United Women

Wono Lee, Korean student at Willamette University, will speak at the annual meeting of the United Church Women Tuesday afternoon in the Carrier Room of First Methodist church at 1:30.

C. A. Kells, who was one of the Salem persons instrumental in bringing Lee to this country, will introduce him to the group of church women who have helped in providing his semester tuition.

Mrs. Robert Stutzman, chairman of the nominating committee, will present the report of the committee and election of officers will follow. Officers-elect will be installed at May Fellowship Day and take office the first of June.

Other business will be the adoption of the next year's budget as prepared by the finance committee. Mrs. Roy Lively chairman. Reports will be given by the chairmen of May Fellowship Day, scheduled for May 6, and the summer migrant program which are the major interests of United Church Women as they near the close of their year's work.

OCE Religious Emphasis Rite Starts Monday

MONMOUTH—For the fifth year, the traditional Religious Emphasis Week will be held on the Oregon College of Education campus.

Scheduled for Sunday through Wednesday, the program will get under way with a 1 o'clock assembly according to Gary Stephenson, OCE senior and Campus Christian Council chairman.

Three speakers have been chosen to present the theme, "Christ, the Hope of the World, Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow." Presenting the "Yesterday" side of the picture at the opening assembly will be the Rev. Evan K. Williams from St. Helen's Hall in Portland. On the following two days, the Rev. Ed Svenson from the Lutheran student foundation at Corvallis will speak on the "Today" aspect, and Dr. L. C. Yates from Whitworth College in Spokane will talk on the "Forever" phase.

In addition to the assemblies, there will be informal discussions of the day's topic each evening.

Mrs. Harding, 33, Succumbs, Rites Today

Funeral services will be held here today for Mrs. Anetta Virginia Harding, 33, a former resident of Salem, who died Wednesday at her Bend home after a short illness. The services will be at 2 p.m. at Virgil T. Golden chapel, with the Rev. Brooks Moore officiating. Interment will follow at Belcrest Memorial Park.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stewart of Salem, Mrs. Harding resided in Salem for about seven years prior to moving to Bend in 1953. Her first husband, Robert Taylor, died in Salem in 1946, and on June 2, 1951 she was married to Edwin D. Harding, who survives.

Mrs. Harding was born at Coaling, Ia., Feb. 4, 1922. Employed as a bookkeeper in the Bend city recorder's office, she was a member of the Methodist Church and sang in the choir of the Bend church. Mrs. Harding was inducted into the Eastern Star only last March 28.

Surviving in addition to the parents and widower are a daughter, Mary Lee Taylor Bend, and two sisters, Mrs. Norma Hazel and Mrs. Betty Hartley, both of Salem.

Young Cyclist In Accident

A young bicyclist escaped injury Thursday evening when he knocked from his vehicle after a collision with a car in the 1600 block of Fairgrounds Road, city police said Friday.

Officers listed the bicyclist as Robert Ramey, 14, of 1723 N. Summer St., and the driver of the car as Paul Robert Bello, 1115

First National Bank Deposits Drop Slightly

Salem branch of First National Bank of Portland on March 31, had deposits of $23,786,718 and loans of $11,820,346, according to Vice President and Manager Arthur Atherton.

On that date last year deposits were $25,320,969 and loans $10,770,296.

Further figures show that on March 31, 1955 deposits at the First National Bank and its 70 statewide banking offices were $755,133,833, loans were $372,221,722 and resources were $832,319,336.

C. B. Stephenson, president of the bank, reported that statewide totals represented increases over a year ago, and are record highs for the bank.

Compared to Dec. 31, 1954, loans are up $2,976,639, and deposits are off $29,597,593. Stephenson pointed out that this is an established trend in the state's economic activity, since in mid-winter and early spring First National normally is called upon for maximum funds to be used for building inventories, expanding production of manufactured items, planting of crops and other agricultural needs.

Salem Naval Unit Honored

Lt. Cmdr. Ivan Esau, Dallas, boarded a plane here Friday afternoon for Seattle, Wash., where he was presented a plaque in recognition of Naval Air Reserve aviation auxiliary unit 801, Salem.

The unit topped 81 others in the nation in 1954 in "general excellence," and won the Noel Davis trophy, which will be presented to the unit at a later date. Plaque presentation was made at the Seattle Naval Air Station. It will be presented to the squadron at its annual inspection here on May 8.

Accompanying Lt. Cmdr. Esau north was Lt. Cmdr. Neal Bryant, officer in charge of the Salem Naval Air Reserve Facility.

Good Friday Commemorated Around World

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Solemn Good Friday services around the world commemorated the death of Jesus Christ on the cross at Calvary.

Catholic and Protestant churches in villages and cities opened their doors for the Christian faithful to hear again the story of the Savior's hours of suffering. In the Holy Land more than 5,000 pilgrims of many nations marched on the Way of the Cross through the cobblestoned streets of old Jerusalem.

More than 100,000 Romans, pilgrims and tourists thronged sun-drenched St. Peter's Square in Vatican City and received the blessing of Pope Pius XII.

St. Peter's, the world's largest basilica, was crowded for the solemn mass of the pre-sanctified Host. As thousands of other Americans did, President Eisenhower attended Good Friday services. He spent 45 minutes at the National Presbyterian Church in Washington.

The Lenten period ends Saturday, Easter Sunday the joyous cry will be heard: "Christ is risen." All across the United States and in foreign lands the story of Christ resurrection will ring out in music and in words, in pageants and parades.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said fair weather appears likely for most of the nation over the week end. Scores of open air Easter services are planned in the United States, many of the spectacles beginning before dawn.

Pope Pius, in giving his blessing, showed evidence of his steady recovery from illness which last December threatened his life.

In Jerusalem, the Good Friday procession followed the path along which Christ carried his cross.

The pilgrims were divided according to languages. Preceding each unit was a huge wooden cross carried by 15 men.

At each station of the cross the procession paused while a sermon was preached in the language of each group. A Franciscan monk with a Midwestern accent conducted the services for the Americans, many of whom wore sport shirts.

At dawn Easter morning the consuls of Catholic countries represented in Israel will cross the Israeli-Jordan armistice lines for services in the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. At the same time a united Easter dawn service for Protestants will be held in the Israeli sector of Jerusalem.

S. 22nd St. Witnesses told police the bicyclist turned into the car while making a turn about 6:13 p.m.

Bicycle Rider Hospitalized

An 11-year-old Salem bicycle rider was hospitalized Friday night after he was struck by a car on Mission street just off of 12th street.

The accident, which happened about 7:40 p. m., sent Larry Fanning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fanning, 1686 South Winter St., to Salem Memorial Hospital.

His injuries, the hospital said, consisted of lacerations of the scalp, abrasions, and concussion. He was kept overnight for observation.

The boy was struck by a car driven by Garney Hudson Willard, 4755 Nials Ave., police said. He was treated by Salem first aidmen and taken to the hospital by Willamette Ambulance Service.

Since the first U. S. Diesel-powered streamline train was put in operation in 1934, that train has traveled over 2 1/2 million miles.

Regional NLRB Upholds Election

The regional office of the National Labor Relations Board has upheld a recent election in which Statesman-Journal circulation department employees voted 17 to 13 against the Teamsters' Union as their bargaining agent. The opinion was received Saturday from Thomas Graham, regional NLRB director. The union had claimed restraint and coercion.
