Barbershop Singing Show Due Saturday

A parade of barbershop harmony featuring eight Oregon and Washington close-harmony groups will be presented Saturday night by the Salem Rotary Club at North Salem High School. Special feature will be the appearance of Robert Perkins, Coos Bay pantomimist. Proceeds of the event, sponsored again by the Rotarians and Cascade Chapter of the SPEBSQSA, will go toward the Willamette University scholarship fund. The quartets will be headlined by the Oregon Medical School's "Forces Four," twice-winners of the Forest Grove Barbershop Festival. Other singers will be the Cordings, Rose City Four, Oswego Four, Four Gnomes, all of Portland; the Miller Tones, Springfield; Seafarers, Everett, Wash.; and the Cord Cats, Salem. All seats are reserved. They can be purchased at Stevens and Son, Willamette University, Sa-

Young Victim of Leukemia Dies

PORTLAND (UP)—Sharon Ann LeBaugh, 12, whose thirst for watermelon brought help from radio hams throughout the country recently, died Wednesday of leukemia. More than 25 melons were received after the appeal for melons went out in February. There were so many that her parents had melons sent to other children in the city's hospitals.

About two out of every three adult Americans wear eyeglasses.

26 Sentenced To Death by Chinese Reds

TOKYO (UP)—Peiping Radio said Thursday a Chinese Communist court had imposed death sentences on 26 persons it called "American-backed Chinese Nationalist agents" on charges of spying and plotting to blow up various buildings. The broadcast said the Canton Municipal Court which sentenced them commuted the death sentence for 17 of the defendants. Peiping Radio claimed the defendant confessed high explosives in their possession were "made by U. S. espionage organizations, which also passed on them instruction on demolition methods."
