Social Work Institute Set For Tuesday

Salem's second annual Labor-Management Social Work Institute, designed to create understanding of labor and management's interest in United Fund, will be Tuesday in the YMCA gym, it was announced Thursday by Chairman H. E. Berker who released the program for the all-day event.

Speakers for the forenoon session, which opens with a 9 a.m. registration, are United Fund President Elmer A. Berglund, H. E. Berker, Bernard Mainwaring and Paul Elliott of the Seattle chapter for United Neighbors; a labor-management panel headed by State Labor Commissioner Norman O. Nilsen and including James Marr of Portland, Al Ofenstein Dean Proust, Elmoro Hill and Stanley Grove.

The afternoon session, presided over by Arthur B. Bates, will feature appearances by representatives from all 11 local UF agencies—the Boy and Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Catholic Charities, Community Council, Legal Aid, Oregon Chest, Red Cross, Salvation Army, YMCA and YWCA. Also in the afternoon there will be another panel followed by a summary by Dean Robert Gregg.

The group at noon will meet with the Kiwanis Club at the Senator Hotel where Paul Elliott and George Alexander will speak. Also on the program will be Rev. Louis White, Councilman Dave O'Hara, and Rev. Julius Keiser.

Man Bound Over On Check Charge

John Henry McNeill, 37, was bound over to the Marion County Grand Jury Thursday on a bad check charge after he waived preliminary hearing.

School Reporter Final Ballot on Officers Due Today

By BARBARA BONIFACE and WILL BATESON

SOUTH SALEM HIGH
Election ballots filled by students stating their choice of the candidates competing for different A. S. B. offices showed quite a controversy over who should be the next year's officers.

Steve Little and Gary Anderson will see their names on the re-election ballot which will determine which of one of them will hold the office of student body president. Jane Medaris and Bonnie Starr will be voted upon again for the office of secretary and Kathleen Deeney and Mary Lynn Stevens for the office of second vice-president. Students will hold re-election this morning.

Victorious in her campaign for vice-president was Ada Hartman. Bill Grimmert is the new yell king with his assistants Ray Grimmert and Ladley Ronning. Nancy Denton won the office of song queen and she will be assisted by Marjorie Allen, Judie Templeton and Laura Lee Grimmert.

18 Go to Portland
In an effort to acquaint students with the benefits of the United Fund drive in which South Salem High school participates, 18 students were sent to Portland Thursday on an all-day tour of institutions which receive support from the United Fund.

They visited two Catholic and two non-Catholic institutions and lunched with a representative from a Boys' and Girls' Aid Society and Prison Association. Students attending the tour were seniors Bob Griffen, Jim Anderson, Glenda McCormick, June Baker, Ed Burkland, Jim Allen, Judie Templeton, Betty Coe, Donaldia Zeh, Nancy Snyder, Bill McDonald; sophomores, Linda Kendrick, Marcia Humphrey, Larry Merk, Bob Treistad and John Harvey.

Honorary Rotarian for the month of April is Senior Bob Wulf. Wulf is well-known for his sports activities. He has participated in varsity football, basketball and tennis during this year. He was one of the co-captains of the basketball team.

He has a grade point average of 3.7, is a president of National Honor Society and a member of Varsity "S" club.

Phoebe Lou Braun was named South Salem Girl-of-the-Month for March. Her activities include holding the office of treasurer of Anne Guthrie Y-teens, member of Girls' Letter Club, a Girls' League representative, active member of Pep club and recently became a mem-

Thornton to Talk at Meet Of Democrats

Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton will speak on the subject "The People's Lawyer" at a public meeting sponsored by the Marion County Democratic Club at the YWCA at 8 p.m. Friday.

Thornton, first Democratic Attorney General of Oregon since 1895, will discuss the duties of his office and give his views on proposed legislation providing for appointment of the attorney general by the governor, and removing the attorney general's power to appoint attorneys for state agencies.

Tom Enright, Democratic Club president, announced that members will vote on revised by-laws which will permit a change of name of the club to the Marion-Polk Democratic Club, and will grant ex-officio membership on the Kay Ruberg, North Salem high student will also participate. Petitions are being issued to girls wishing to hold a Girls League office for next school year. The elections will take place Wednesday during home room.

Students running for office must have at least a "C" average. The presidential candidate must be a junior this year, but the other candidates may be either juniors or sophomores.

NORTH SALEM HIGH
First ballot was cast in the North Salem High elections Thursday and the students will decide today who will head their student government next year. The students will have to decide whether they want John Jelderiks or Jim Gordon as their next year's student-body president.

In Thursday's voting, Carol Werner was elected first vice-president, Judy Wolfe as second vice-president and Judy Seely as secretary. Anita Wagner was elected for the much sought office of song queen. Today's election between Carol Boesch, Diane Ferguson, Darlene Hankel, Millie Messner, Lonnie Pearson, and Betty Pressley will decide who her assistants will be.

The student chose for their yell king Bob Wilder. As assistants they picked Bruce Estes and Dick Hansen.

CLUB MEETS TONIGHT
The Couples Club of St. Mark's Lutheran Church will meet at 8 o'clock tonight in the social rooms of the church to hear Dr. William G. Burrows of the Oregon State Hospital. He will speak on mental health. O. K. Nielson will lead the devotions.
