

King-Size A-Blast Slams Into Jet Planes, Weapons, Supplies

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (U)—A king-sized atomic explosion Friday tested the ability of weapons and battle vehicles to take it, while three unmanned jet planes roared close in to the nuclear inferno.

Although all three of the F80 jets survived the immediate blast effects above the Atomic Energy Commission proving grounds, 75 miles from here, one crashed into nearby mountains and the other was crash-landed on a dry lake.

Baby Sitter Released in Child's Death

EPHRATA, Wash. (U)—Charlotte Mae Brewer was freed Friday of charges she killed a 21-month-old baby. The prosecutor said "reasonable explanations" for the death have been found and that it apparently was an accident.

Miss Brewer, 30, had maintained all along that the death of Deena Starzman was accidental drowning and that she had nothing at all to do with it. Her first degree murder trial had been set for Monday.

"I'm speechless," she sobbed Friday, after embracing her brother, William Brewer, 28, of Nampa, Idaho, and her fiancé, William Hefflemeir of San Francisco.

Prosecutor Paul A. Klaseen Jr., who filed the charge against her last month, asked for its dismissal Friday and the request was promptly granted by Superior Judge Robert T. Hunter.

Klaseen said in an affidavit that the state's case against her was "based to a large extent on circumstantial evidence" that didn't stand up in view of recent developments.

"Since the arrest and through cooperation of defense attorneys and the defendant, she has been examined by two qualified psychiatrists and after private interviews with her they have reached concurring opinions that certain facts which appeared to be circumstantial evidence against the defendant are fully explained and consistent with the innocence of the defendant."

The Starzman child had been found face down in a puddle on the lawn of her Grand Coulee home, apparently the victim of drowning. Doubts of the victim's maternal grandmother eventually led to exhuming the body. An autopsy then revealed death had resulted from a skull fracture.

Man Turned Over To Portland Police

Chester Castle, 1327 Third St., was arrested by city detectives early Friday morning on a warrant from Portland charging larceny by bailer. The man later was turned over to Portland police.

Detectives said the case involved sale of a car upon which payments had not yet been completed.

The population of Ireland fell from more than 8 million in 1840 to 4,300,000 in 1950.
