Mrs. L. L. Linn Gets Polk Co. Red Cross Job

DALLAS—Mrs. L. L. Linn this week was appointed executive secretary for the Polk County Chapter, American Red Cross, it was announced by Norman Guedon, chairman.
Her appointment fills the vacancy in the post created by the death of Mrs. Lillian Bilyeu, veteran social worker.
Mrs. Linn will assume her new duties upon the completion of a course of training in Red Cross work. A resident of Dallas, she is experienced in office work with private and governmental agencies and in social service.
Meanwhile, Mrs. Frank Willson of the Orchard Knob district is acting secretary of the Red Cross chapter.

Swegle PTA Carnival Nets School $400

SWEGLE—The school carnival at Swegle Friday night was termed a "tremendous success" by PTA president, William Kirkman, in behalf of the carnival committee.
Parents and children turned out in large numbers to enjoy the many concessions, bringing total proceeds to over $400. The proceeds will go toward a walk-in playhouse and a large-type typewriter, projects which were voted on by the PTA to be purchased for the school.
Heading the various booths at the carnival were Mrs. Bruce Quarry, Mrs. Leonard Yarnell, Mrs. William Kirkman, Mrs. W. J. Buck, Mrs. J. P. Robinette, Mrs. Robert Hughes, Mrs. James Scott, Clayton Gibb, Melvin LaDue, William Sample, Mrs. Harold Holler, Mrs. J. Stuter, Keith LaDue, Harold Holler and Mrs. W. Garrison. Teachers in charge of ticket sales were Boyd Hillisland, principal, and Sidney Phillips, Mrs. Lillian Schmidt, Mrs. Cooley, Miss Gortmaker and Mrs. Fern Bay.

Church Hears Dr. Talney

ELLIOTT PRAIRIE—Dr. Mark A. Talney, executive director of the Oregon Council of Churches, was the guest speaker at the Elliott Prairie Congregational Church Sunday.
Following church and Sunday School services, a no-host dinner was attended by 36 members of the congregation at the community hall. At the quarterly business meeting, led by the minister, the Rev. Edward Salter, plans were discussed for moving the community hall and making it a part of the church building. The Rev. Mr. Salter displayed a scale model of the plan which he had built.
It was voted to go ahead with the project and Raymond Paulson, Carl Fauske and Elmer Schneider were elected to get an estimate on the cost of material and labor. Pledges of $800 were made by the group present to help finance the project.

Parking Near Church Aired At Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL—The City Council met in special session with a State Highway Traffic representative Monday night to hear findings on the parking problem near St. Mary's Church but tabled decisions until the College and Church street project is completed.
Glen L. Clark, from the highway traffic engineering department, showed maps and explained why the department recommended that Church street, on which cars are currently parked by backing in, should be marked for 45 degree angle parking. The department likewise recommended that a curb be installed on College street from the Legion Hall west to Elm street and from there to St. Mary's gym on Elm leaving an entrance and outlet only on Elm.
Since College and Church streets are listed for a straightening and widening project as soon as weather permits, the council decided to table the matter until the streets are completed.

8th Primrose Show Carded

MT. ANGEL—Visitors a-plenty from up and down the Willamette Valley are expected here Sunday for the eighth annual primrose show which will open at St. Mary's School at 2 p.m.
A committee of Miss Teresa Duda, Mr. and Mrs. Volney White, Mrs. George Schmidt, Mrs. Paul Sliffe, Mrs. Roy Palmer and Mrs. Donald Chapman will register and place all plants.
Entries will be received at the east entrance of the hall Saturday afternoon and may be brought direct to the show rooms Sunday from 8 to 10 a.m. No plants entered after 10 a.m. will be accepted for competition.
Mrs. Marc Wampach and Mrs. Palmer will greet the guests. Mrs. John Drescher is in charge of the coffee hour with Mrs. Chapman to decorate the coffee tables.
Judges, who will be members of the American Primrose Society, will be guests at noon luncheon at the Mt. Angel Hotel with Mayor Jacob Berchtold as host.
A plant sale, with Mrs. Frank Pranger in charge, will help finance the show as there will be no admission charged and no entry fee to exhibitors.
